Pebbles On The Beach:

Pebbles on the Beach, 200? The Pebbles on the beach Clarence Ellis, 1965 Pebbles on the Beach Anthony Stones, 2016-09-22 Just as before these poems reflect my thoughts upon my own experiences as well as my observations on the experiences we all encounter at each phase of our lives Many of these poems unlike the first effort are more recent and therefore image events closer to the present This time too the poems are less chronological whereas I felt the first poems should remain mostly in the order in which they were written over fifty years I do not see poems as sad so much as thoughtful and reflective commentaries very often wry and tongue in cheek The poems in this book are mostly like that

On My Beach There Are Many Pebbles Leo Lionni, 1995-08-24 Take a look And another And another Are those ordinary pebbles you see lying on an ordinary beach Or are they hearts and gift wrapped packages numbers letters and the faces of friends Take a look And another PEBBLES ON THE BEACH SUBHANA SAWHNY, 2018-04-02 Each poem is like a pebble A pebble too was made with the elements of nature each one having its own story just like how a poem is created out of inspirations from nature or love or the destruction of both Poems are written on different subjects being love loss nature mysticism and wanderlust The poet writes lucidly and vividly A life longing for beauty and enchantment can be seen in these poems Written on a journey of self discovery through poetry it takes you out of the material world in search of a life beyond the mundane to magic Pebbles on the Beach is a collection of poems straight from the heart Pebbles on the Beach
