Political Conflict On The Horn Of Africa:

Political Conflict on the Horn of Africa Robert F. Gorman, 1981 Cold War Fallout Cabdisalaam M. Ciisa-Salwe, 2000 This study explores the role of international politics in the life of a region where on the one hand a nation is trying to gather its people into a state Somalia and on the other are neighboring states Ethiopia Kenya Djibouti constructed on Western notions of statehood and wedded to colonial defined borders The positions were intractable The Horn became an arena for Cold War ideological global competition and the conflict one of the longest running disputes on the African continent Identity, Citizenship, and Political Conflict in Africa Edmond J. Keller, 2020-03-04 Engaging detailed with current information about the situation in many African countries African Studies Quarterly Reflecting on the processes of nation building and citizenship formation in Africa Edmond J Keller believes that although some deep parochial identities have eroded they have not disappeared and may be more assertive than previously thought especially in instances of political conflict Keller reconsiders how national identity has been understood in Africa and presents new approaches to identity politics intergroup relations state society relations and notions of national citizenship and citizenship rights Focusing on Nigeria Ethiopia Cote d'Ivoire Kenya and Rwanda he lays the foundation for a new understanding of political transition in contemporary Africa This book would certainly be useful in graduate seminars on African politics African history or ethnic politics It is written in a clear straightforward style that also makes it appropriate for use in advanced undergraduate classes Keller also offers insights for policymakers and development practitioners who continue to grapple with the real world consequences of citizenship conflicts Journal of Modern African Studies Opportunities and Dangers of Soviet-Cuban Expansion Richard J. Payne, 1988-01-01 Combined with aggressive rhetoric and ideological hostility the conventional approach to crisis resolution generates only military options and diminishes our prospects for less dangerous solutions This book explains how a workable pragmatic and efficient foreign policy in relation to Soviet Cuban activities in the Third World can evolve through negotiation that de-emphasizes ideology The focus is on problems within less developed countries problems that provide opportunities for Soviet Cuban involvement The book examines several Third World conflicts in which the Soviet Union and Cuba are involved The Horn of Africa Afghanistan Nicaragua Southern Africa and the Commonwealth Caribbean and suggests a pragmatic policy tailored to each regional conflict An objective assessment of Soviet Cuban activities discovers opportunities for cooperation and mutual restraint Mediation in Political Conflicts Jacques Faget, 2011-04-28 This book provides a vivid reader on experiences of mediation throughout history and in many different regional cultural and legal contexts For experts in the field of mediation and legal anthropology it provides a series of fascinating case studies not previously reported on For those not familiar with the field it provides a window on an alternative possibility for peacemaking in political conflicts The book is held together by the editor's introduction which defines political mediation the research methodologies employed the relationship of mediation to participatory democracy and the growth of mediation in the past twenty years The chapters which follow provide the anatomy of successful and unsuccessful mediations in contexts as widely diverse as the 30 Years War 1618 1648 which was ended following the intercession of the future Pope Alexander VII Three further chapters examine the role of the Catholic Church in other mediations in the Basque conflict in Burundi and in Chiapas while a further group of chapters looks at conflicts in Ethiopia Northern Ireland Central America and Congo Reinventing Peacekeeping in Africa F. Olonisakin, 2021-07-26 The euphoric cries of a peaceful and more dynamic new world order which followed the end of the Cold War have been silenced by the increased intensity of local conflicts around the world The humanitarian crises resulting from these conflicts have attracted greater international attention Perhaps even more tragic is the failure of the international community to find early effective response to these conflicts which have profound security implications for the affected regions and have led to the collapse of state structures in some cases The intra state conflicts in Africa alone have claimed over one million lives since 1990 On the international scene these internal conflicts have created new challenges for the UN whose efforts at dealing with them have produced mixed results whilst international policy makers the military and academics are faced with difficult questions Can traditional peacekeeping be stretched to accommodate this class of conflict What is the legal basis for these operations Attempts to answer these questions at the conceptual level have led to the development of concepts such as second generation peacekeeping wider peacekeeping peace support operations and strategic peacekeeping It has emerged that there is no common view on an effective and realistic set of tools to manage these crises Perhaps the most significant point to arise from the differing conceptual views presently is that an effective approach and sound legal basis have not been found for dealing with recalcitrant internal conflicts in far away regions which are not high on the strategic considerations of the great powers This book reconsiders the role of the UN and regional organisations such as ECOWAS in Africa It examines the response to the civil war in Liberia which served as a precursor to the international response to the crisis in Sierra Leone On the one hand this book offers an analysis of a new conceptual framework for managing a specific class of violent conflict On the other hand it provides first hand account of the character of a force that attempted to apply this approach In drawing some of its conclusions the book relies on the testimonies of many of the soldiers who formed the core of the military operations in these difficult conflict areas in West Africa Regional Guide to International Conflict and Management from 1945 to 2003 Jacob Bercovitch, Judith Fretter, 2004-11-23 Regional Guide to International Conflict Management from 1945 to 2003 provides global regional and specific information on the over 350 international conflicts that have occurred since World War II At the heart of the book are comprehensive regional sections each of which includes An essay providing regional context and highlighting the interrelation of countries and conflict in that area Summaries of each conflict in the region arranged chronologically and covering history circumstances players management and outcome References for further research Introductory chapters examine global patterns and trends in international conflict and how conflict is
