Seduction Of Silence:

Seduction of Silence Bern Le Hunte, 2000 RECOGNITION OF A TRUE MAN OR JUST GOOD GAME? Melvin Stitt Sr., 2019-03-19 The recognition of respect being given to one another in a relationship The rewards behind the recognition of one's own self worth that causes them to take a stand and settle for nothing less than that respect due to them Fulfillment of desires and fetishes the acknowledgement of strengths and weaknesses within the relationship Feminist Approaches to the Body in Medieval Literature Linda Lomperis, Sarah Stanbury, 1993 Feminist Approaches to the Body in Medieval Literature forges a new link between contemporary feminist and cultural theory and medieval history and literature The essays establish crucial historical connections between feminist theorizing about the body and specific accounts of gendered bodies in medieval texts Discourses of Seduction Hosea Hirata, 2020-03-17 If the postmodernist ethical onslaught has led to the demise of literature by exposing its political agenda if all literature is compromised by its entanglement with power why does literature's subterranean voice still seduce us into reading Why do the madness and the scandal of transgressive literature its power to force us to begin anew its evil escape the gaze of contemporary literary criticism Why do we dare not reject ethics and the ethical approach to literature If the primary task of literary criticism is to correct others' ethical missteps should we not begin by confronting the seductiveness of ethics our desire for ethics the pleasure we take in being ethical And what is the relationship between ethics and history in the study of literature What would be the ethical consequences of an erasure of history from literary criticism In a series of essays on the writings of Kawabata Yasunari Murakami Haruki Karatani Kjin Furui Yoshikichi Mishima Yukio Oe Kenzaburo Natsume Soseki and Kobayashi Hideo Hosea Hirata visits the primal force of the scandalous in an effort to repeat in the Kierkegaardian sense the originary scene that initiates the obscure yet insistent poetry that is literature and to confront the questions raised Literary Hybrids Erika E. Hess, 2004-08-02 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Looting and Rape in Wartime Tuba Inal, 2013-03-15 Women were historically treated in wartime as property Yet in the Hague Conventions of 1899 and 1907 prohibitions against pillaging property did not extend to the female body There is a gap of nearly a hundred years between those early prohibitions of pillage and the prohibition of rape finally enacted in the Rome Statute of 1998 In Looting and Rape in Wartime Tuba Inal addresses the development of these two separate prohibition regimes exploring why states make and agree to laws that determine the way war is conducted and what role gender plays in this process Inal argues that three conditions are necessary for the emergence of a global prohibition regime first a state must believe that it is necessary to comply with the prohibition and that to do otherwise would be costly second the idea that a particular practice is undesirable must become the norm finally a prohibition regime emerges with state and nonstate actors supporting it all along the way These conditions are met by the prohibition against pillage which developed from a confluence of material circumstances and an ideological context the nineteenth century fostered ideas about the sanctity of private property which made the act of looting seem more abhorrent Meanwhile the existence of conscripted and regulated armies meant that militaries could take measures to prevent it In that period however rape was still considered a crime of passion or a symptom of behavioral disorder in other words a distortion of male sexuality and outside of state control and it would take many decades to erode the grip of those ideas Only toward the end of the twentieth century did transformations in gender ideology and the increased participation of women in politics bring about broad cultural shifts in the way we perceive sexual violence women and women s roles in policy and lawmaking In examining the historical and ideological context of how these two regimes evolved Looting and Rape in Wartime provides vital perspective on the forces that block or bring about change in international relations

The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Tom Ribitzky, 2024-10-31 The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Eros Futility and the Quarrel with Philosophy explores the novel as a response to the Platonic myth that narrates the rift at the core of our being Eros is supposedly the consolation for this rift but the history of the novel documents its expression as one of frustrated desires neuroses anxieties and cosmic doom As if repeating the trauma from that original split in Plato a split that also divides philosophy from literature the novel treats eros as a site of loss and grief from the medieval romances to Goethe Emily Bront Proust Mann Woolf D H Lawrence and Nabokov The pessimism that emerges from this eros tells us something fundamental about who we are something that only the novel can say At a time when both education and leisure are increasingly ignoring the novel s imperative to sit with ambiguity complexity and contingency and as we are hurtling toward a bleak future of climate catastrophe and political instability the novel is one of the last bastions of humanity even as it is quickly being eroded

The Castration of Oedipus Joseph C. Smith, Carla J. Ferstman, 1996-03-01 The intellectual movements of psychoanalysis postmodernism and feminism have redefined the ways in which we think about human experience And yet an integration of these movements has been elusive if not impossible In this landmark book J C Smith and Carla J Ferstman combine these disparate traditions to create a provocative unified and tightly woven perspective that transcends the misogyny implicit in much of Freudian psychoanalytic theory The dialectics of domination and submission are central to Smith and Ferstman s argument Men and women they insist must avoid the temptation to fetishize equality and recognize the roles of domination and submission in the human psyche or in Nietzsche s terms the Will to Power They argue that the unification of psychoanalysis postmodernism and feminism leads us to a shocking conclusion that women and men cannot move beyond the suffering which so haunts the human condition unless heterosexual men surrender the power that is causing their misery and affirm life by joyfully accepting domination by women And women conversely must reaffirm their power by rejecting Oedipal genderization and embracing a liberating matriarchal consciousness and a matriphallic sexuality A work of tremendous insight and extraordinary intellectual energy The Castration of Oedipus will provoke strong reactions in all readers regardless of ideology

Seducing Augustine Virginia Burrus, Mark D. Jordan, Karmen MacKendrick, 2010 Augustine s Confessions is a text that seduces But how often do its readers respond in kind Here three scholars who share a longstanding fascination with sexuality and Christian discourse attempt to do just that Where prior interpreters have been inclined either to defend or to criticize Augustine's views Virginia Burrus Mark Jordan and Karmen MacKendrick set out both to seduce and to be seduced by his text Often ambivalent but always passionately engaged their readings of the Confessions center on four sets of intertwined themes secrecy and confession asceticism and eroticism constraint and freedom and time and eternity Rather than expose Augustine's sexual history they explore how the Confessions conjoins the erotic with the hidden the imaginary and the fictional Rather than bemoan the repressiveness of his text they uncover the complex relationship between seductive flesh and persuasive words that pervades all of its books Rather than struggle to escape the control of the author they embrace the painful pleasure of willed submission that lies at the erotic heart not only of the Confessions but also of Augustine's broader understanding of sin and salvation Rather than mourn the fateful otherworldliness of his theological vision they plumb the bottomless depths of beauty that Augustine discovers within creation thereby extending desire precisely by refusing satisfaction In unfolding their readings the authors draw upon other works in Augustine's corpus while building on prior Augustinian scholarship in their own overlapping fields of history theology and philosophy They also press well beyond the conventional boundaries of scholarly disciplines conversing with such wide ranging theorists of eroticism as Barthes Baudrillard Klossowski Foucault and Harpham In the end they offer not only a fresh interpretation of Augustine's famous work but also a multivocal literary philosophical meditation on the seductive elusiveness of desire bodies language and God
