Seeing Things Hidden

Seeing Things Hidden:

Seeing Things Hidden Malcolm Bull, 1999 The multiplicity of the self and the inaccessibility of truth are commonplaces of contemporary thought But in Seeing Things Hidden they become key features of a philosophy of history that reunites emancipatory political theory with the apocalyptic tradition Apocalyptic is the revelation of things hidden But what does it mean to be hidden And why are things hidden in the first place By gently teasing out the meanings of hiddenness this book develops a new theory of apocalyptic and explores its relation to the writings of Kant Hegel Benjamin and Derrida Exploiting affinities between the work of Lukács and recent American philosophers like Rorty and Cavell Bull argues that the central dynamic of late modernity is the coming into hiding of the contradictory identities generated through political and social emancipation Drawing on analytic and Continental philosophy he articulates the most ambitious philosophy of history since Francis Fukuyama's The End of History presenting fresh interpretations of such icons of modernity as Hegel's master-slave dialectic Benjamin's angel of history Du Bois's concept of double consciousness and Rawls's veil of ignorance
