Seeing The Invisible Ordinary People Of Extraordinary Faith:

Seeing the Invisible Faith Cook, 1998 First appearing as articles in Evangelical Times Seeing the Invisible tells the stories of ten ordinary Christians who exercised extraordinary faith in their God None of these individuals is a famous name in Christian history but their faith in and devotion to Christ encourages and inspires us to exercise similar faith in the same powerful God who enabled them to endure as seeing him who is invisible The original articles have been expanded to include more background material and further details from the lives of these believers Making Evangelical History Andrew Atherstone, David Ceri Jones, 2019-04-08 This volume makes a significant contribution to the history of ecclesiastical histories with a fresh analysis of historians of evangelicalism from the eighteenth century to the present It explores the ways in which their scholarly methods and theological agendas shaped their writings Each chapter presents a case study in evangelical historiography Some of the historians and biographers examined here were ministers and missionaries while others were university scholars They are drawn from Anglican Baptist Congregationalist Methodist Presbyterian Fundamentalist and Pentecostal denominations Their histories cover not only transatlantic evangelicalism but also the spread of the movement across China Africa and indeed the whole globe Some wrote for a popular Christian readership emphasising edification and evangelical hagiography others have produced weighty monographs for the academy These case studies shed light on the way the discipline has developed and also the heated controversies over whether one approach to evangelical history is more legitimate than the rest As a result this book will be of considerable interest to historians of religion The Banner of Sovereign Grace Truth, 2002 Here Am I, Lord...Send Somebody Else Jill Briscoe, 2018-02-06 Being used by God is an adventure you won't want to miss Major Ian Thomas a British theologian teacher and the founder of Torchbearers Bible Schools spent seven exhausting years trying to live for Christ when he realized that God actually just wanted to live through Him He offered this extremely simple advice in considering the Christian life Go where you are sent stay where you are put and do what you are asked With her trademark warmth and keen sense of humor esteemed Bible study teacher Jill Briscoe follows Major Thomas's example to help readers learn how to allow God to live through them finding their mission field to be right before them in the space between their own two feet She uses stories from her own life and of other contemporaries to unpack the story of Moses in helping us better understand our true worth and calling She asks What is your Jerusalem your Judea your Samaria Whether you're fifty or fifteen you are called to be God's light in a troubled world This classic work is being updated to include conversation starters and Bible study questions at the end of each chapter I, Like a Deaf Man and Like a Mute Viktor Sizov, 2014-03-12 If you are struggling with hearing God's voice in your everyday life you are not alone Today many Christians are having difficulty hearing His voice too But Jesus said My sheep hear My voice The author invites readers exposing true real life reasons for not hearing His voice The issue is not with His voice but within us issues in our lives issues in our society The author has written to help those who are enduring struggles similar to the ones he has

Discovering the God Who Is R. C. Sproul, 2008-02-01 The minister gently guided my mother away from the grave to a waiting car. I moved behind them in a grim stupor. I was confused. I was hurt. I was angry. One question pierced my soul: Who are you, God? And why do you do the things you do? Thus began R. C. Sproul's search for ultimate truth and a personal encounter with the living God. In Discovering the God Who Is, readers will journey with Sproul to discover for themselves the magnificence of God's character and being, his power and personality. Sproul asks the questions many of us wonder about: God, Is the Bible the Word of God? What is righteousness? What is the difference between a moral and a legal right? How does God create something from nothing? Does God change his mind? Sproul communicates deep truths in a fresh and easy-to-understand style. Join R. C. Sproul as he shares his passion for God and excites the reader to dig deep and know the God who is alive, who is real, who relates to each one of us in our lives. An Exposition of the Old and New Testaments Matthew Henry, 1833

Fletcher's Appeal to Matter of Fact & Common Sense John Kingston, 1814 Crumbs Jr. Wallace, 2008-10 Work Ethics And The Generation Gap Many employers are noticing a pessimistic difference in today's generation. We are all asking what happened to responsibility, motivation, having positive values and integrity along with wanting and expecting more of today's youth and ourselves. Of course, there are many who have that excellent work ethic already. There are those who are workaholics and may need more balance in their lives and maybe manage their time more wisely, which is also covered in this book. It sounds like there may be some questions. The real question may be: Do we have the answers, and how do we meet this solution as a nation? I believe those of us who are parents, employers, teachers, and all positive active members of the community can motivate the necessary changes towards more agreeable and moral principals. Dr. Joanne Sujansky, founder of KEY group, author and certified professional speaker, sheds some light on Generation X, Y, and the baby boomers in chapter ten. Also find out what the community has to say in chapter seven. Hebrews (2 volumes in 1 / ESV Edition) R. Kent Hughes, 2015-05-31 The book of Hebrews conveys a double dose of spiritual power; it not only presents the supremacy of Jesus Christ, unlike any other New Testament book, but it also repeatedly demands a heart response from the reader. No one can study Hebrews and not grow spiritually as he or she comes face to face with God's one and only Son. In this insightful commentary, readers will find a gold mine of helpful discussion related to a book of the Bible that is easily misunderstood and often overlooked. With divisions and outlines that are never forced but flow naturally from the text, this updated volume in Crossway's Preaching the Word series will be a great resource for anyone studying or teaching the book of Hebrews. Part of the Preaching the Word series. The Church School Herald-journal, 1996
