Seek My Face Speak My Name A Contemporary Jewish Theology:

Seek My Face, Speak My Name Arthur Green,1994 Rabbi Arthur Green leads us on a journey of discovery to seek God the world and ourselves One of the most influential Jewish thinkers of our time Green has created a roadmap of meaning for our lives in the light of Jewish mysticism A personal and honest framework of understanding for the seeker this revised and updated edition of a classic sheds new light on our search for the divine presence in our everyday lives Leaves from the Garden of Eden ,2010-09-23 In Leaves from the Garden of Eden Howard Schwartz a three time winner of the National Jewish Book Award has gathered together one hundred of the most astonishing and luminous stories from Jewish folk tradition Just as Schwartz s award winning book Tree of Souls collected the essential myths of Jewish tradition Leaves from the Garden of Eden collects one hundred essential Jewish tales As imaginative as the Arabian Nights these stories invoke enchanted worlds demonic realms and mystical experiences The four most popular types of Jewish tales are gathered here fairy tales folktales supernatural tales and mystical tales taking readers on heavenly journeys lifelong quests and descents to the underworld There is a dybbuk lurking in a well a book that comes to life and a world where Lilith the Queen of Demons seduces the unsuspecting Here too are Jewish versions of many of the best known tales including Cinderella Snow White and Rapunzel Schwartz s retelling of one of these stories The Finger inspired Tim Burton s film Corpse Bride On God and Dogs Stephen H. Webb,1998-01-15 Many of us keep pet animals we rely on them for companionship and unconditional love For some people their closest relationships may be with their pets In the wake of the animal rights movement some ethicists have started to re examine this relationship and to question the rights of humans to own other sentient beings in this way In this engaging and thought provoking book Stephen Webb brings a Christian perspective to bear on the subject of our responsibility to animals looked at through the lens of our relations with pets especially dogs Webb argues that the emotional bond with companion animals should play a central role in the way we think about animals in general and against the more extreme animal liberationists defends the intermingling of the human and animal worlds He tries to imagine what it would be like to treat animals as a gift from God and indeed argues that not only are animals a gift for us but they give to us we need to attend to their giving and return their gifts appropriately Throughout the book he insists that what Christians call grace is present in our relations with animals just as it is with other humans Grace is the inclusive and expansive power of God s love to create and sustain relationships of real mutuality and reciprocity and Webb unfolds the implications of the recognition that animals too participate in God s abundant grace Webb s thesis affirms and persuasively defends many of the things that pet lovers feel instinctively that their relationships with their companion animals are meaningful and important and that their pets have value and worth in themselves in the eyes of God His book will appeal to a broad audience of thoughtful Christians and animal lovers Embodiment, Morality, and Medicine L.S. Cahill,M.A. Farley,2013-04-17 Embodiment Morality and Medicine deals with the relevance of embodiment to bioethics considering both the historical development and contemporary perspectives on the mind body relation The emphasis of all authors is on the importance of the body in defining personal identity as well as on the role of social context in shaping experience of the body Among the perspectives considered are Christian Jewish Islamic Buddhist and African American Feminist concerns are important throughout Between Man and God Martin Sicker,2001-06-30 Sicker presents a personal attempt to come to grips with the awesome question Where was God at Auschwitz and with it some of the related central issues of Jewish thought and belief There is a tendency among many writers of contemporary work of theology to argue that the very fact of the Holocaust invalidates traditional Jewish theory and that its long held ideas about God must therefore be revised radically However Jewish thinkers have long asked the equivalent of this troubling question albeit in reference to other places and times in Israel s history and have offered possible answers just as we do today The big difference between then and now is not the enormity of the Holocaust but the readiness of earlier thinkers to search for meaning without almost cavalierly discarding traditionally cherished ideas and beliefs The author argues that modern advocates of radical theological revision actually have little to add to our understanding of the ways of God and even less to a meaningful Judaic perspective on the universe and the relationship between man and God A second concern is the contemporary argument that because there is no universally accepted theology of Judaism one is not bound by any particular conception of God whether of biblical or rabbinic origin Jewish theology has thus come to be viewed essentially as an equal opportunity field of intellectual endeavor an approach Sicker considers fundamentally and fatally flawed Traditional non dogmatic thought does not require radical revision What is required is a sympathetic understanding of the theological assumptions and ideas of the past coupled with a sincere and respectful attempt to reformulate them in terms more attuned to the modern temper A New Hasidism: Roots Arthur Green,Ariel Evan Mayse,2019-10-01 Neo Hasidism applies the Hasidic masters spiritual insights of God s presence everywhere of seeking the magnificent within the everyday in doing all things with love and joy uplifting all of life to become a vehicle of God s service to contemporary Judaism as practiced by men and women who do not live within the strictly bounded world of the Hasidic community This first ever anthology of Neo Hasidic philosophy brings together the writings of its progenitors five great twentieth century European and American Jewish thinkers Hillel Zeitlin Martin Buber Abraham Joshua Heschel Shlomo Carlebach and Zalman Schachter Shalomi plus a young Arthur Green The thinkers reflect on the inner life of the individual and their dreams of creating a Neo Hasidic spiritual community The editors introductions and notes analyze each thinker s contributions to Neo Hasidic thought and influence on the movement Zeitlin and Buber initiated a renewal of Hasidism for the modern world Heschel s work is quietly infused with Neo Hasidic thought Carlebach and Schachter Shalomi re created Neo Hasidism for American Jews in the 1960s and Green is the first American born Jewish thinker fully identified with the movement Previously unpublished materials by Carlebach and Schachter Shalomi include an interview with Schachter Shalomi about his decision to leave Chabad Lubavitch and embark on his own Neo Hasidic path Philo of Alexandria Douwe (David) Runia,2015-12-22 This

Pondering the Imponderable Martin Sicker,2010-03-25 Pondering the Imponderable explores the philosophical and theological problems of God and their implications from a Judaic perspective including the attempts at knowing the unknowable and naming the unnamable that have been articulated over the course of some two millennia as well as how the chasm between man and God is bridged through revelation and the implications of these ideas for the ultimate question of what takes place after death resurrection immortality of the soul or transmigration or reincarnation In discussing these issues the non specialized reader will be introduced to the vast corpus of rabbinic literature written over a period of some two millennia to the present day and to many works that have never been translated into English The New Rabbi Stephen Fried,2003-08-26 From award winning journalist Stephen Fried comes a vividly intimate portrait of American Judaism today in which faith family and community are explored through the dramatic life of a landmark congregation as it seeks to replace its legendary retiring rabbi and reinvent itself for the next generation The New Rabbi The center of this compelling chronicle is Har Zion Temple on Philadelphia s Main Line which for the last seventy five years has been one of the largest and most influential congregations in America For thirty years Rabbi Gerald Wolpe has been its spiritual leader a brilliant sermonizer of wide renown but now he has announced his retirement It is the start of a remarkable nationwide search process largely unknown to the lay world and of much more For at this dramatic moment Wolpe agrees to give extraordinary access to Fried inviting him and the reader into the intense personal and professional life of the clergy and the complex behind the scenes life of a major Conservative congregation These riveting pages bring us a unique view of Judaism in practice from Har Zion s strong willed leaders and influential families to the young bar and bat mitzvahs just beginning their Jewish lives from the three days a year synagogue goers to the hard core of devout attendees We are touched by their times of joy and times of grief intrigued by congregational politics moved by the search for faith We witness the conflicts between generations about issues of belief observance and the pressures of secular life We meet Wolpe s vigorous minded ailing wife and his sons one of whom has become a celebrity rabbi in Los Angeles And we follow the author s own moving search for meaning as he reconnects with the religion of his youth We also have a front row seat at the usually clandestine process of choosing a new rabbi as what was expected to be a simple one year search for Rabbi Wolpe s successor extends to two years and then three Dozens of r sum s are rejected a parade of prospects come to interview the chosen successor changes his mind at the last minute and a confrontation erupts between the synagogue and the New York based Conservative rabbis union that governs the process As the time comes for Wolpe to depart a venerated house of worship is being torn apart And thrust onto the pulpit is Wolpe s young assistant Rabbi Jacob Herber in his first job out of rabbinical school facing the nearly impossible situation of taking over despite being technically ineligible for the position and finding himself on trial with the congregation and at odds with his mentor Rich in anecdote and scenes of wonderful immediacy this is a riveting book about the search for personal faith about the tension between secular concerns and ancient tradition in affluent America and about what Wolpe himself has called the retail business of religion Stephen Fried brings all these elements to vivid life with the passion and energy of a superbly gifted storyteller Judaism and Environmental Ethics Martin D. Yaffe, 2002-05-09 Martin D Yaffe s Judaism and Environmental Ethics A Reader is a well conceived exploration of three interrelated questions Does the Hebrew Bible or subsequent Jewish tradition teach environmental responsibility or not What Jewish teachings if any appropriately address today s environmental crisis Do ecology Judaism and philosophy work together or are they at odds with each other in confronting the current crisis Yaffe s extensive introduction analyzes and appraises the anthologized essays each of which serves to deepen and enrich our understanding of current reflection on Judaism and environmental ethics Brought together in one volume for the first time the most important scholars in the field
