Seen but Not Heard Christobel Mattingley, 2014-04-01 Lilian Medland has not received until now the recognition she deserves as a painter of birds Due to world events and circumstances five important books on birds containing her superb illustrations were never published Despite such major disappointments she continued to devote her time and talent to painting first the birds of the British Isles and later those of Australia her adopted country where she died in 1955 Even now she is not mentioned in the Australian Dictionary of Biography in her own right but only in the entry for her husband ornithologist Tom Iredale Seen but Not Heard is the first publication to shine a light on the life and work of this much overlooked but brilliant Australian natural history artist

Seen and Heard Ellen Lynn Hall, Jennifer Kofkin Rudkin, 2011-01-13 Using examples from a Reggio inspired school with children from ages 6 weeks to 6 years the authors emphasize the importance of children's rights and our responsibility as adults to hear their voices Seen and Heard summarizes research and theory pertaining to young children's rights in the United States and offers strategies educators can use to ensure the inclusion of children's perspectives in everyday decisions Real life classroom vignettes illustrate how young children perceive the idea of rights through observation and discussion The authors work is based on these essential ideas 1 the one hundred languages children use for exploring discovering constructing representing and conveying their ideas 2 the pedagogy of listening in which children and adults carefully attend to the world and to one another 3 the notion that all children have the right to participate in the communities in which they reside

Seen and Heard Lesa Peterson, 2023-07-18 Move into Abundance and Freedom You are not alone if you've struggled with not feeling like you will ever be enough This can happen when you realize you aren't living the life you want something dramatically uproots the plan you had for your life or even when comparison slips in and it seems everyone else's lives are perfect and alluring and yours feels empty There are many unseen forces that shape our lives expectations from society culture and religion that impact how we feel about ourselves and our lives This can lead us to feel like frauds or imposters in the life we re living day to day Weeding through this slog can feel like walking with weights on our ankles as we go through the motions without really engaging in our lives Seen and Heard seeks to reveal the unseen forces holding you back and keeping you from the life you re desperate to live all the while providing a path forward of how it can be different and empowering you with the tools to live the life you dream of Things Seen and Heard by Many W. Thomas Love, 2015-04-16 Things Seen and Heard by Many is a collection of poetry based upon the authors observations of people as they go about their daily lives not knowing they are being observed Within each observed life is a central problem caused by some outside influence or an internal conflict Author W Thomas Love seeks to bring this to light to stimulate all who read the book to examine themselves and their respective lives This examination hopes to minimize the problems before they become uncontrollable An uncontrolled problem will disrupt life From the outward expressions of a cotton pickers life and the authors interpretation of his life to the revelation that the world is a hard place that creates hard hearts the poetry considers the essence of the human soul in its journey through life These are many souls we encountered through our walk through this life Things Seen and Heard by Many chronicles their joy pain struggle disappointments and their sadness Our Brother Dr Claude We want you to know that you our brother have been the highlight of our lives You came from way down under but you still reached for the sky You were born in abject poverty an environment with defocusing means You were the exception to the rule because you had big dreams You were a quiet young man with a deep mind

Intersectionality and Leading Social Change in Education Aubrey H. Wang, Margaret Grogan, 2024-07-02 This book explores a social change and transformational approach to leadership As educational leaders are increasingly serving a changing demographic of students and also address persistent challenges and heightened tension around race and equity it is becoming necessary for educators to approach leadership in new and radical ways Designed for aspiring and current leaders this book highlights stories of courageous educational leaders with intersectional identities who interrogate and reflect on how their intersectionality shaped their leadership In turn these stories help readers explore how lived experiences and deeply held values can shape and inform their own leadership Chapters conclude with a reader s guide prompting reflection upon the nuances of each leader s journey and thus facilitating the discourse of marginalized experiences in educational leadership This new approach to professional learning helps today s aspiring principals aspiring superintendents and practicing administrators learn how intersectional leadership can help them navigate multiple marginalized spaces and codify new notions of power and success This volume generates a collection of compelling counter narratives that the field needs to hear Winner of Society of Professors of Education 2025 Outstanding Book Award Honorable Mention
