Coll,2013-02-12 The Sefer Yetzirah is the fundamental source of the Kabbalah Numerous editions of the text exist Each describes the creation of the universe in different ways The differences relate to the different Kabbalistic Schools that used the text No edition contains the full knowledge of the different Schools thus it is necessary to study the different versions of the Sefer Yetzirah to gain a fuller understanding of the Kabbalah Sefer Yetzirah the Book of Creation E.

Colle,2013-08-03 The First Torah was lost when Moses broke the First Two Tablets he had received from God on Mount Sinai Moses privately conveyed this knowledge to those few found worthy to receive it This knowledge has been secretly preserved within the Kabbalah The Sefer Yetzirah contains the knowledge of the First Torah which can be discovered through diligent study and unbiased thought Sepher yetzirah or the book of Creation ,2010-11-17 According to the Sefer Yetzirah the first emanation from the spirit of God was the ruach spirit air that produced water which in its turn formed the genesis of fire In the beginning however these three substances had only a potential existence and came into actual being only by means of the three letters and as these are the principal parts of speech so those three substances are the elements from which the cosmos has been formed The cosmos consists of three parts the world the year or time and man which are combined in such a way that the three primordial elements are contained in each of the three categories The water formed the earth heaven was produced from the fire and then produced the air between heaven and earth The three seasons of the year winter summer and the rainy season correspond to water fire and in the same way as man consists of a head corresponding to fire torso and the other parts of the body equivalent to water The seven double letters produced the seven planets the seven days and the seven apertures in man two eyes two ears two nostrils and one mouth Again as the seven double letters vary being pronounced either hard or soft so the seven planets are in continuous movement approaching or receding from the earth The seven days in like manner were created by the seven double letters whereat they change in time according to their relation to the planets The seven apertures in man connect him with the outer world as the seven planets join heaven and earth Hence these organs are subject to the influence of the planets the right eye being under Saturn the left eye under Jupiter and the like

Sepher Yetzirah Fred Reiss, 2018-02-09 This revised and renamed edition of Ancient Secrets of Creation captures the earliest meanings and contexts of the philosophy theology and magic presented by Sepher Yetzirah by basing the translations interpretations and explanations on texts and ideas existing during or before the tenth century C E when the first commentary on Sepher Yetzirah appeared This is an important component of what distinguishes Sepher Yetzirah The Book That Started Kabbalah from other recent translations and commentaries which draw on doctrines and beliefs unknown at the time of Sepher Yetzirah s composition Another distinguishing feature is the author s search for the answer to the question why Those familiar with Kabbalah know for example the Hebrew letters aleph mem and shin as the mother letters but why these three letters and not another set of three letters Why also are there ten sephirot and not say nine or eleven Why were the twelve simple letters assigned their specific roles and not different roles Sepher Yetzirah The Book That Started Kabbalah is divided into two parts The first part is called Foundation and its two chapters lay out the Greek philosophical and Jewish theological bases for the material found in Sepher Yetzirah The second part called Wisdom is a translation of and commentary on Sepher Yetzirah s six chapters The first chapter gives a description of the ten sephirot and their relationship to God and creation the second explains the general operation and control of the twenty two Hebrew letters the third through fifth chapters describe the specific functions and governances of the three mother letters seven double letters and twelve simple letters respectively The final chapter offers a summary of all the ideas and concepts expounded by Sepher Yetzirah In Sepher Yetzirah The Book That Started Kabbalah the author expands on his original work by relating the interconnections among the mathematical rules alphabetical laws and uncanny coincidences found between Sepher Yetzirah and the natural world all of which are symbolisms in support of Sepher Yetzirah s assertions Endeavoring to show an inexorable link between the mystical topics presented by Sepher Yetzirah and Judaism many paragraphs begin with a quote from the Hebrew Bible paralleling the essence of Sepher Yetzirah s message The Epilogue links Sepher Yetzira s ideas and concepts with modern science s metaphors about creation Also provided is a glossary of important terms a version of Sepher Yetzirah in its original
