Bundy, 2005-08-04 Wilson Harris is one of the outstanding literary innovators of the century His novels date from The Palace of the Peacock to Jonestown This long awaited volume matches Harris s career with his critical writings from 1961 to the present day Selected Essays of Wilson Harris brings together twenty one lectures addresses and essays to make available Harris s full range of writings on subjects including the literate imagination traditions of myth and fable in Central and South America the North American literary imagination from Edgar Allen Poe Herman Melville and Ralph Ellison to William Faulkner and Jean Rhys inheritances and legacies of writers of the postcolonial diaspora This comprehensive collection also comes complete with an extensive editorial introduction providing valuable historical and theoretical context for the essays a map of Guyana bibliographies of Harris s fiction and non fiction appendices on the legends of El Dorado and the Holy Grail Selected Essays of Wilson Harris Wilson Harris, 1999 Best known for his novels Harris had written fiction and non fiction since the 1960s This provides the most comprehensive collection of his essays interviews and lectures from the 60s to the present Includes a bibliography of his work Selected Essays of Wilson Harris Wilson Harris, 1999 Exploring the Palace of the Peacock Joyce Sparer Adler, 2003 Annotation Wilson Harris Guyanese novelist poet and surveyor is known for his experimental and complex fiction His is a unique and vivid perspective and students of West Indian literature often find his fiction daunting but it is nevertheless richly rewarding Harris s voice is distinctive and unparalleled among West Indian writers and indeed as Joyce Sparer Adler shows through his novels he engages in the ongoing literary and philosophical dialogue of the ages Adler s essays on Harris originally published in various journals are collected here for the first time and now available to a wider audience The collection includes her previously unpublished essay on Harris s cross cultural dialogue with Melville and a substantial autobiographical essay by Wilson Harris

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Cambridge Companion to the Twentieth-Century English Novel Robert L. Caserio, 2009-04-30 The twentieth century English novel encompasses a vast body of work and one of the most important and most widely read genres of literature Balancing close readings of particular novels with a comprehensive survey of the last century of published fiction this Companion introduces readers to more than a hundred major and minor novelists It demonstrates continuities in novel writing that bridge the century s pre and post War halves and presents leading critical ideas about English fiction s themes and forms The essays examine the endurance of modernist style throughout the century the role of nationality and the contested role of the English language in all its forms and the relationships between realism and other fictional modes fantasy romance science fiction Students scholars and readers will find this Companion an indispensable guide to the history of the English novel The Caribbean Novel Since 1945 Michael Niblett, 2012-02-16 How fiction its forms and its evolution reflect countries in the midst of postcolonial change Time, History, and Philosophy in the Works of Wilson Harris Gianluca Delfino, 2012-11-01 Gianluca

Delfino's study is based on the assumption that Wilson Harris works as a whole show a remarkable unity of thought rooted in their author's complex imagination. As a valuable contribution to Caribbean Literature and Philosophy, Harris' imaginative approach to reality is discussed in relation to the categories of history and time with reference to several novels from Palace of The Peacock to The Mask of the Beggar with a special focus on The Infinite Rehearsal, Jonestown and The Dark Jester spanning more than forty years of his vast literary production encompassing critical perspectives ranging from African philosophy to Jungian readings through historiography and anthropology. As a result, the cross-cultural quality of Harris' thought emerges as a healing outcome of the traumatic colonial encounter bringing together elements of Amerindian, African and European origin in an ongoing dialogue with time, nature and the psyche. The outcome of an extensive research into Harris' world, Delfino's study stands in the tradition of the late Hena Maes Jelinek's critical enterprise by expanding philosophical and psychological readings with the addition of anthropological perspectives that appeal to those who were captured by Harris' intricacy and rescued by Maes Jelinek's illuminating interpretations. The attempt to reconstruct a unifying frame around Harris' body of work suggests a new way of looking at one of the Caribbean's most controversial authors.

Multilingualism and the Twentieth-Century Novel James Reay Williams, 2019-04-17. This book argues that the Anglophone novel in the twentieth century is in fact always multilingual. Rooting its analysis in modern Europe and the Caribbean, it recognises that monolingualism, not multilingualism, is a historical and global rarity and argues that this fact must inform our study of the novel even when it remains notionally Anglophone. Drawing principally upon four authors: Joseph Conrad, Jean Rhys, Wilson Harris and Junot Díaz, this study argues that a close engagement with the novel reveals a series of ways to apprehend, depict and theorise various kinds of language diversity. In so doing, it reveals the presence of the multilingual as a powerful shaping force for the direction of the novel from 1900 to the present day, which cuts across and complicates current understandings of modernist, postcolonial and global literatures.

Black Odysseys Justine McConnell, 2013-06-20. This book explores works from Africa and the African diaspora which respond to the Homeric Odyssey. As a founding text of the Western canon and as a homecoming trope and quest for identity, the Odyssey has inspired writers who are simultaneously striving against and appropriating the very forms which had been used to oppress them.

The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms Mark Wollaeger, Matt Eatough, 2013-10. The Oxford Handbook of Global Modernisms expands the scope of modernism beyond its traditional focus on English and Irish literature to explore the contributions of artists from countries and regions like the US, Cuba, Spain, the Balkans, China, Japan, India, Vietnam and Nigeria.

Jean Rhys Erica Johnson, 2015-06-21. Presents new critical perspectives on Jean Rhys in relation to modernism, postcolonialism and theories of affect. Jean Rhys (1890-1979) is the author of five novels and over seventy short stories. She has played a major figure in debates attempting to establish the parameters of postcolonial and particularly Caribbean studies and although she has long been seen as a modernist writer, she has also been marginalized as one who is not quite in, yet not quite out either.

The 10 newly commissioned essays and introduction collected in this volume demonstrate Jean Rhys's centrality to modernism and to postcolonial literature alike by addressing her stories and novels from the 1920s and 1930s including Voyage in the Dark Quartet After Leaving Mr Mackenzie and Good Morning Midnight as well as her later bestseller Wide Sargasso Sea 1966 The volume establishes Rhys as a major author with relevance to a number of different critical discourses and includes a path breaking section on affect theory that shows how contemporary interest in Rhys correlates with the recent affective turn in the social sciences and humanities As this collection shows strangely haunting and deeply unsettling Rhys's portraits of dispossessed women living in the early and late twentieth century continue to trouble easy conceptualisations and critical categories Key Features New and original work on Jean Rhys's fiction and short stories highlighting key areas of her work Contributors area leading scholars on Jean Rhys from the US the UK and Australia including Mary Lou Emery Elaine Savory John J Su Maroula Joannou H Adlai Murdoch Rishona Zimring Carine Mardorossian Patricia Moran Erica L Johnson and Sue Thomas Organised around 3 important themes Rhys and modernism postcolonial Rhys and affective Rhys Patricia Moran is the author of Word of Mouth Body Language in Katherine Mansfield and Virginia Woolf Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys and the Aesthetics of Trauma and co editor of Scenes of the Apple Food and the Female Body in 19th and 20th Century Womens Writing and The Female Face of Shame Formerly Professor of English at the University of California Davis she is now Lecturer in English at the University of Limerick Erica L Johnson is an Associate Professor of English at Pace University in New York She is the author of Caribbean Ghostwriting 2009 and Home Maison Casa The Politics of Location in Works by Jean Rhys Marguerite Duras and Erminia DellOro 2003 and is the co editor with Patricia Moran of The Female Face of Shame 2013 Memories of the Classical Underworld in Irish and Caribbean Literature Madeleine Scherer, 2021-09-20 Classical Memories is an intervention into the field of adaptation studies taking the example of classical reception to show that adaptation is a process that can be driven by and produce intertextual memories I see classical memories as a memory driven type of adaptation that draws on and reproduces schematic and otherwise decontextualised conceptions of antiquity and its cultural exports in broadly speaking the twentieth and twenty first centuries These memory driven adaptations differ often in significant ways from more traditional adaptations that seek to either continue or deconstruct a long running tradition that can be traced back to antiquity as well as its canonical points of reception in later ages When investigating such a popular and widespread set of narratives characters and images like those that remain of Graeco Roman antiquity terms like adaptation and reception could and should be nuanced further to allow us to understand the complex interactions between modern works and classical antiquity in more detail particularly when it pertains to postcolonial or post digital classical reception In Classical Memories I propose that understanding certain types of adaptations as intertextual memories allows us to do just that The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature offers a comprehensive critically engaging overview of this increasingly significant body of work The volume is divided into six sections that consider the foremost figures of the Anglophone Caribbean literary tradition and a history of literary critical debate textual turning points identifying key moments in both literary and critical history and bringing lesser known works into context fresh perspectives on enduring and contentious critical issues including the canon nation race gender popular culture and migration new directions for literary criticism and theory such as eco criticism psychoanalysis and queer studies the material dissemination of Anglophone Caribbean literature and generic interfaces with film and visual art This volume is an essential text that brings together sixty nine entries from scholars across three generations of Caribbean literary studies ranging from foundational critical voices to emergent scholars in the field The volume's reach of subject and clarity of writing provide an excellent resource and springboard to further research for those working in literature and cultural studies postcolonial and diaspora studies as well as Caribbean studies history and geography

Communities in Contemporary Anglophone Caribbean Short Stories Lucy Evans, 2014 This book explores representations of community in Anglophone Caribbean short story collections and cycles of the late twentieth and early twenty first century

Conversations in Philosophy F. Ochieng'-Odhiambo, 2009-10-02 Conversations in Philosophy Crossing the Boundaries consists of essays that revolve around the question of the nature and meaning of philosophy even as it demonstrates philosophy's significance and relevance to some fundamental human problems and issues The essays present diverse views of what philosophy might be and might aspire to be with contributors being influenced by a wide range of philosophical approaches and traditions The conversations also cut across disciplinary boundaries to interrogate and utilize ideas taken from ethics epistemology metaphysics literary studies cultural studies and the sociology of science Traversing regional boundaries the essays show philosophical analysis at work in exploring some issues pertinent to African Caribbean European and American experiences even while not ignoring Asian traditions The collection presents interesting and intriguing views on how philosophical inquiry can illuminate various pressing problems development conflict the discriminating preservation of worthwhile traditions and the prevalence of apathy It also reflects the vitality and multifaceted nature of philosophical discourse in grappling with live issues Conversations in Philosophy is a comprehensive balanced and unique anthology of readings capturing the diversity of philosophical investigation

Caribbean Without Borders Raquel Puig, Dorsía Smith, 2008-12-18 Caribbean Studies is an emerging field As such many topics within this discipline have yet to be explored and developed This collection of essays is one of the forerunners dedicated to a comprehensive study of the literature language and culture of the Caribbean By exploring the works of such prominent literary scholars as Samuel Selvon and Lorna Goodison as well as the myriad of issues pertaining to the Caribbean experience this volume provides an engaging overview of literary language and cultural analysis Because of this wide range of essays this text meets a need to examine the Caribbean in its complexity which is rarely addressed

Assembling Alternatives Romana Huk, 2003-04-29 First anthology to examine the national borders of postmodern poetry Perspectives on the 'Other America' ,2009-01-01 Uniting critical writing on novels poetry painting and ritual this volume takes a regional approach to the cultures of the Caribbean Basin Ranging across the linguistic spectrum of the area it examines cultural production from the Anglophone Francophone and Hispanophone islands Suriname and the Guyanas and Latin and Central America The interdisciplinary nature of the collection and the challenge it poses to the balkanization of the region within academic discourse will make it of especial interest to students and scholars of the Caribbean Inspired by the category of the Other America as developed by douard Glissant the book offers a series of original and stimulating engagements with topics that include nationalism migration and exile landscape and the environment gender and sexuality and Postcolonial Studies and world literature In addition to contributions by leading scholars such as Peter Hulme Theo D haen and Lizabeth Paravisini Gebert it contains interviews with two renowned novelists from the region Lawrence Scott and Mayra Santos Febres Underpinning the collection is an interrogation of received ideas of the nation state and a suggestion that regionalism might provide a better optic through which to view the circum Caribbean that national consciousness in other words must always also be a regional consciousness Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change ,2022-07-04 Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change investigates the evolving nature of postcolonial literary criticism in response to global regional and local environmental transformations brought about by climate change It builds upon and extends previous studies in postcolonial ecocriticism to demonstrate how the growing awareness of human caused global warming has begun to permeate literary consciousness praxis and analysis The breadth of the volume s coverage the diversity of its focal locations cultures genres and texts serves as a salient reminder that while climate change is global its impacts vary effecting peoples from place to place unequally and often in accordance with their particular historical experience of colonialism and neo colonialism as well as their ongoing marginalisations Demonstrating the urgency of invoking novel epistemological approaches combining the scientific and the imaginative this book is a must read for those concerned about the present and potential impacts of climate change on formerly colonised areas of the world The comprehensive and illuminating Introduction offers a crucial history and current state of postcolonial ecocriticism as it has been and is addressing climate crises Helen Tiffin University of Wollongong The broad focus on the polar regions the Pacific and the Caribbean with added essays on environmental justice activism in India and Egypt opens up rich terrain for examination under the rubric of postcolonial and ecocritical analysis not only expanding recent studies in this field but also enabling new comparisons and conceptual linkages Helen Gilbert Royal Holloway University of London The subject is topical and vital and will become even more so as the problem of how to reconcile the demands of climate change with the effects on regions and individual nations already damaged by the economic effects of colonisation and the subsequent inequalities resulting from neo colonialism continues to grow Gareth Griffiths Em Prof University of Western Australia Literature and Culture in the Black Atlantic K.
