Losing Generations Adolescents In High Risk Settings:

Losing Generations National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Panel on High-Risk Youth, 1995-02-01 At least 7 million young Americans fully one quarter of adolescents 10 to 17 years old may be at risk of failing to achieve productive adult lives They use drugs engage in unprotected sex drop out of school and sometimes commit crimes effectively closing the door to their own futures And the costs to society are enormous school and social services are overwhelmed and our nation faces the future with a diminished citizenry This penetrating book argues that the problems of troubled youth cannot be separated from the settings in which those youths live settings that have deteriorated significantly in the past two decades A distinguished panel examines what works and what does not in the effort to support and nurture adolescents and offers models for successful programs This volume presents an eye opening look at what millions of the nation's youths confront every day of their lives addressing How the decline in economic security for young working parents affects their children's life chances How dramatic changes in household structure and the possibilities of family and community violence threaten adolescents development How the decline of neighborhoods robs children of a safe environment How adolescents health needs go unmet in the current system Losing Generations turns the spotlight on those institutions youths need the health care system schools the criminal justice and the child welfare and foster home systems and how they are functioning Difficult issues are addressed with study results and insightful analyses access of poor youths to health insurance coverage inequities in school funding how child welfare agencies provide for adolescents in their care and the high percentage of young black men in the criminal justice system

Losing generations adolescents in high-risk settings, 1993 Licensing Parents Jack C. Westman, 2007-10-12 Licensing Parents addresses the relationship between poverty unemployment and other socio economic issues to competent parenting in a unique and creative manner Examines why the current generation of children and youth is the first in our nation's history to be less well off psychologically socially and morally than their parents were at the same age

Improving Intergroup Relations Among Youth Institute of Medicine, National Research Council, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Forum on Adolescence, 2000-01-01 On November 9 10 1998 the Forum on Adolescence of the Board on Children Youth and Families a cross cutting initiative of the Institute of Medicine and the National Research Council of the National Academy of Sciences convened a workshop entitled Research to Improve Intergroup Relations Among Youth Held at the request of the Carnegie Corporation of New York this workshop considered selected findings of 16 research projects that have focused on intergroup relations among children and adolescents all 16 received funding from Carnegie Corporation of New York for their work on this issue The funding of these projects was part of a larger research initiative supported by Carnegie Corporation of New York that sought to update and expand the knowledge sources and dynamics of racial and ethnic prejudice among youth identifying approaches to foster

intergroup understanding Improving Intergroup Relations Among Youth is the summary of the workshop which provided an opportunity to learn about the work and preliminary findings of the 16 projects This report reviews the knowledge base regarding the effectiveness of interventions designed to promote peaceful respectful relations among youth of different ethnic groups

Risks and Opportunities National Research Council and Institute of Medicine, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Institute of Medicine, Forum on Adolescence, 1999-11-16 This report constitutes one of the first activities of the Forum on Adolescence a cross cutting activity of the Institute of Medicine and the National Research Council of the National Academies Established under the auspices of the Board on Children Youth and Families the forum's overarching mission is to synthesize analyze and evaluate scientific research on critical national issues that relate to youth and their families as well as to disseminate research and its policy and programmatic implications The goals of the forum are to

- 1 review and establish the science base on adolescent health and development and make efforts to foster this development
- 2 identify new directions and support for research in this area approaching research as a resource to be developed cumulatively over time
- 3 showcase new research programs and policies that have demonstrated promise in improving the health and well being of adolescents
- 4 convene and foster collaborations among individuals who represent diverse viewpoints and backgrounds with a view to enhancing the quality of leadership in this area and
- 5 disseminate research on adolescence and its policy implications to a wide array of audiences from the scientific community to the lay public

Dropping Out Russell W. Rumberger,2012-11-19 Most kids in the developed world finish high school but not in the United States More than a million drop out every year and the numbers are rising Dropping Out provides answers to fundamental questions Who drops out and why What happens to them when they do How can we prevent at risk kids from short circuiting their futures Health Assets in a Global Context Antony Morgan,Erio Ziglio,Maggie Davies,2010-07-15 As global health inequities continue to widen policymakers are redoubling their efforts to address them Yet the effectiveness and quality of these programs vary considerably sometimes resulting in the reverse of expected outcomes While local political issues or cultural conflicts may play a part in these situations an important new book points to a universal factor the prevailing deficit model of assessing health needs which puts disadvantaged communities on the defensive while ignoring their potential strengths The asset model proposed in Health Assets in a Global Context International Health and Development offers a necessary complement to the problem focused framework by assessing multiple levels of health promoting aspects in populations and promoting joint solutions between communities and outside agencies The book provides not only rationales and methodologies e.g. measuring resilience and similar elusive qualities but also concrete examples of asset based initiatives in use across the world on the individual and community levels International Encyclopedia of Education ,2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science Unequaled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions 1985 1994 in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader Under development for five years this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning demography and social change globalization and adult learning to name a few Offers two content delivery options print and online the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files

Economics of Education Dominic J. Brewer, Patrick J. McEwan, 2010-01-26 A collection of short stand alone chapters divided into five sections including overview of the field private and social returns to human capital investments production costs and financing of education teachers and teacher labor markets and education markets choice and incentives The collection provides international perspectives that describe the origins of these subjects their major issues and proponents their landmark studies and opportunities for future research The 70 contributors are each well regarded economists whose research has advanced the topic on which they write and this book fulfills an undersupplied niche for a text in the economics of education The chapters come from the acclaimed International Encyclopedia of Education 3e 2010 edited by Eva Baker Barry McGaw and Penelope Peterson The Encyclopedia contains over 1 350 articles in 24 sections that stretch from educational philosophies and technologies to measurement leadership and national systems of education This single volume textbook presents a cohesive view of this increasingly important area of economics Superb contributions from well regarded economists convey unique and useful perspectives Chapters contain an extensive bibliography and further readings to enable interested researchers to extend their knowledge into each specific topic

Wasting America's Future Marian Wright Edelman, 1994-10-31 The Health and Human Services poverty line for a three person family in America is 11 800 in annual income One in every five American children is growing up in poverty What does child poverty mean for the economic and societal future of our country The Children's Defense Fund widely considered the most powerful force for children in America has assembled expert and ground breaking information on how poverty affects health childhood deaths low birth weight and injury on the insidious connections between low family income and learning disabilities on links between poverty abuse and neglect and self esteem and much more Wasting America's Future is the crucial citizen's handbook as we continue the national debate on welfare reform

Adolescent Health Services Institute of Medicine, National Research Council, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Adolescent Health Care Services and Models of Care for Treatment, Prevention, and Healthy Development, 2009-01-03

Adolescence is a time of major transition however health care services in the United States today are not designed to help young people develop healthy routines behaviors and relationships that they can carry into their adult lives While most adolescents at this stage of life are thriving many of them have difficulty gaining access to necessary services other engage in risky behaviors that can jeopardize their health during these formative years and also contribute to poor health outcomes in adulthood Missed opportunities for disease prevention and health promotion are two major problematic features of our nation s health services system for adolescents Recognizing that health care providers play an important role in fostering healthy behaviors among adolescents Adolescent Health Services examines the health status of adolescents and reviews the separate and uncoordinated programs and services delivered in multiple public and private health care settings The book provides guidance to administrators in public and private health care agencies health care workers guidance counselors parents school administrators and policy makers on investing in strengthening and improving an integrated health system for adolescents
