Helping Grieving People - When Tears Are Not Enough J. Shep Jeffreys, 2011-05-09 Helping Grieving People When Tears Are Not Enough is a handbook for care providers who provide service support and counseling to those grieving death illness and other losses This book is also an excellent text for academic courses as well as for staff development training The author addresses grief as it affects a variety of relationships and discusses different intervention and support strategies always cognizant of individual and cultural differences in the expression and treatment of grief. Jeffreys has established a practical approach to preparing grief care providers through three basic tracks. The first track, Heart, calls for self-discovery, freeing oneself of accumulated loss in order to focus all attention on the griever. Second track, Head, emphasizes understanding the complex and dynamic phenomena of human grief. Third track, Hands, stresses the caregiver's actual intervention and speaks to lay and professional levels of skill as well as the various approaches for healing available. Accompanying these three motifs, the Handbook discusses the social and cultural contexts of grief as applied to various populations of grievers as well as the underlying psychological basis of human grief. Throughout the book, Jeffreys presents the role of the caregiver as an Exquisite Witness to the journey of grief and pain of bereaved family and friends and also to the path taken by dying persons and their families. The second edition of Helping Grieving People remains true to the approach that has been so well received in the original volume. It includes updated research findings and addresses new information and developments in the field of loss, grief, and bereavement.

Loss and Bereavement Ros Weston, Terry Martin, Yvonne Anderson, 1998-10-15. This is a practical guide for all those involved in teaching and learning about bereavement, loss, and managing change. It takes the reader through the theory and the process and integrates the information into practice. The book provides a framework for teaching and understanding specific conflicts and their effects on health and describes the underpinning theories and current research. The text considers work, school, family, and social environments and looks at ways of teaching, learning, organising, and training in loss, bereavement, and change. Themes and issues of experiencing loss are considered, including bullying, violence, sexual crime, and anger, along with ways of resolving these conflicts. Methods of dealing with death of a child, suicide, trauma, and unemployment are also highlighted. The final section looks at coping mechanisms such as assertiveness, grieving, and post-traumatic stress syndrome.

Understanding Grief Richard Gross, 2015-10-05. Understanding Grief is a comprehensive and accessible one-stop introduction to all the major models of grief. In addition to the individual perspective, bereavement is discussed in relation to social, cultural, and religious factors and influences. Richard Gross also examines the impact of different types of bereavement, such as the death of a child, parent, spouse, partner, and sibling, and discusses the impact of traumatic death in relation to complicated grief. The text also covers pet loss, death anxiety, and post-traumatic growth. This innovative book combines personal accounts of grief with clinical accounts of patients provided by psychiatrists and psychologists and research involving large numbers of bereaved individuals. Understanding Grief will be invaluable to all those working with bereaved clients, including bereavement counsellors, counselling, and clinical psychologists, healthcare professionals, social workers, and the interested layperson. It is also suitable for people training to work with bereaved individuals.

Grieving For Dummies Greg Harvey, 2011-04-18. Coping and recovery strategies for dealing with the loss of a loved one. Whether the death of a loved one is sudden or expected, grieving the loss is a difficult yet transformative process. Grieving For Dummies approaches this very important subject with sensitivity helping readers who are grieving the loss of a loved one as well as those who want to support them in this process This compassionate guide covers all types of profound losses including parents spouses and partners children siblings friends and pets It also addresses children s grieving and how the manner of death may cause additional hurdles to grieving the loss The book is filled with practical suggestions for moving through the phases stages and tasks of grieving with an eye towards successfully integrating the loss of a loved one while at the same time keeping the love shared alive Life

After Loss Tim Jackson,2014-01-01 Grief is a journey that sooner or later we all must take writes counselor Tim Jackson Sharing his personal experience and pointing us to the cross and the power of Christ s resurrection Jackson shows us how we can take that journey with hope In the pages of this booklet he walks with us through the grieving process and reminds us to lean on our Creator and each other for comfort The Truth About Grief Ruth Davis Konigsberg,2011-01-04 The five

stages of grief are so deeply imbedded in our culture that no American can escape them Every time we experience loss a personal or national one we hear them recited denial anger bargaining depression and acceptance The stages are invoked to explain everything from how we will recover from the death of a loved one to a sudden environmental catastrophe or to the trading away of a basketball star But the stunning fact is that there is no validity to the stages that were proposed by psychiatrist Elisabeth K bler Ross more than forty years ago In The Truth About Grief Ruth Davis Konigsberg shows how the five stages were based on no science but nonetheless became national myth She explains that current research paints a completely different picture of how we actually grieve It turns out people are pretty well programmed to get over loss Grieving should not be a strictly regimented process she argues nor is the best remedy for pain always to examine it or express it at great length The strength of Konigsberg s message is its liberating force there is no manual to grieving you can do it freestyle In the course of clarifying our picture of grief Konigsberg tells its history revealing how social and cultural forces have shaped our approach to loss from the Gettysburg Address through 9 11 She examines how the American version of grief has spread to the rest of the world and contrasts it with the interpretations of other cultures like the Chinese who focus more on their bond with the deceased than on the emotional impact of bereavement Konigsberg also offers a close look at K bler Ross herself who she borrowed from to come up with her theory and how she went from being a pioneering psychiatrist to a New Age healer who sought the guidance of two spirits named Salem and Pedro and declared that death did not exist Deeply researched and provocative The Truth About Grief draws on history culture and science to upend our country s most entrenched beliefs about its most common experience The Meaning of Mourning Mikolaj

Slawkowski-Rode,2023-01-09 Grief is a universal human response to death and loss Mourning is an equally universally observable practice that enables the bereaved to express their grief and come to terms with the reality of loss Yet despite their prevalence there is no unified understanding of the nature and meaning of grief and mourning The Meaning of Mourning Perspectives on Death Loss and Grief brings together fifteen essays from diverse disciplines addressing the topics of death grief and mourning The collection moves from general questions concerning the putative badness of death and the meaning of loss through the phenomenology and psychology of grief to personal and cultural aspects of mourning Contributors examine topics such as theodicy and grief reproductive loss mourning as a form of recognition of value the roots of grief in early childhood grief in COVID times hope phenomenology of loss public commemoration and mourning rituals mourning for a devastated culture the Necropolis of Glasgow and the art of outliving Edited by Mikolaj Slawkowski Rode the volume provides a survey of the rich topography of methodologies problems approaches and disciplines that are involved in the study of issues surrounding loss and our responses to it and guides the reader through a spectrum of perspectives highlighting the connections and discontinuities between them Loss, Change And Bereavement In Palliative Care Firth, Pam, Luff, Gill, Oliviere, David, 2004-12-01 This text brings together contemporary thinking on loss and bereavement It draws on international research practice and individual stories from people struggling to understand the meaning of loss including work with bereaved children parents families and adults Working with Loss and Grief Linda Machin, 2008-12-01 In a book that is replete with illustrative case studies Linda Machin draws together the findings of a wide range of psychological and sociological theory and research in order to develop a way of thinking about grief and loss that is intelligible to ordinary mortals Her Adult Attitude to Grief scale promises to be a useful tool by which problems can be identified and progress monitored Colin Murray Parkes Honorary Consultant Psychiatrist to St Christopher's Hospice Loss is a universal human experience Supporting those who are grieving a significant life loss is a key role for many professionals in health and social care settings and is the focus in many voluntary organisations Although there is an extensive literature on loss and bereavement practitioners often struggle to see how to put theory into practice Working with Loss and Grief provides a new model which makes clear connections between theory and practice The Range of Response to Loss model provides a theoretical compass for recognising the wide variability in reaction to loss and the Adult Attitude to Grief scale is a tool for mapping individual grief and its change over time providing an individual grief profile Together these offer a framework for practitioners to Listen to stories of grief told by clients Identify common patterns in grief Recognize individual difference in grief response Assess the need for therapeutic intervention or support Prompt therapeutic dialogue Guide therapeutic focus Appraise clients Evaluate outcomes Case examples show that the experience of grief is highly individual but also capable of being understood in terms of general concepts As such it is a valuable resource not only for practitioners and trainees in counselling and social work but also for psychologists doctors nurses and for researchers studying loss and grief Dr Linda Machin is a Visiting Research Fellow of Keele University having been a Lecturer in Social Work and Counselling at Keele She established a counselling service for the bereaved in North Staffordshire and continues to work as a researcher a hospice counsellor and a freelance trainer Loss, Grief, and Attachment in Life Transitions Jakob van Wielink, Leo Wilhelm, Denise van Geelen-Merks, 2019-08-12 Loss Grief and Attachment in Life Transitions gives readers an attachment informed grief counseling framework and a new way of understanding non death loss and its treatment Loss and grief are viewed through a wide angle lens with relevance to the whole of human life including the important area of career counseling and occupational consultation The book is founded on the key themes of the Transition Cycle welcome and contact attachment and bonding intimacy and sexuality separation and loss grief and meaning reconstruction Rich in case material related to loss and change the book provides the tools for adopting a highly personalized approach to working with clients facing a range of life transitions This book is a highly relevant and practical volume for grief counselors and other mental health professionals looking to incorporate attachment theory into their clinical practice Loss, Grief, and Bereavement

Otto Schwarz Margolis, Lillian G. Kutscher, 1985 Thanatology is a discipline which focuses on the practice of supportive physical and emotional care for those who are dying as well as their families The essays collected for this volume discuss the entire continuum of bereavement and grief Among the topics discussed are Anticipatory Grief the period following diagnosis of serious illness when the victim and family members must adapt to a new projection for the future and Pathological Bereavement the behavior pattern of those who find emotional recovery so difficult that everyday life becomes impossible The book also includes instructive case studies which examine each phase of bereavement from a variety of professional perspectives Loss, Grief, and Trauma in the Workplace Neil Thompson, Dale Lund, 2017-07-12 The workplace is not immune to the problems pressures and challenges presented by experiences of loss and trauma and the grief reactions they produce This clearly written well crafted book offers important insights and understanding to help us appreciate the difficulties involved and prepare ourselves for dealing with such demanding situations when they arise People's experiences of loss and trauma are of course not left at the factory gate or the office door Nor are loss and traumatic events absent from the workplace itself Loss grief and trauma are very much a part of life and that includes working life Executives managers human resource professionals and employee assistance staff need to have at least a basic understanding of how loss grief and trauma affect people in the workplace This book provides that foundation of understanding and offers guidance on how to find out more about these vitally important workplace issues The text provides a valuable blend of theory and practice that will be of interest to those involved in management human resources and organizational studies as well as those interested in the social scientific study of loss grief and trauma and of course to those involved in the helping professions It is essential reading for anyone concerned with making the workplace a more humane and effective environment or anyone wishing to develop an understanding of the complexities of loss grief and trauma in our lives The Nature of Grief John Archer, 2003-09-02 In this study on the evolution of grief John Archer shows that grief is a natural reaction to losses of many sorts and he proves this by bringing together material from evolutionary psychology ethology and experimental psychology
