Boss, 2021-12-14 How do we begin to cope with loss that cannot be resolved The COVID 19 pandemic has left many of us haunted by feelings of anxiety despair and even anger In this book pioneering therapist Pauline Boss identifies these vague feelings of distress as caused by ambiguous loss losses that remain unclear and hard to pin down and thus have no closure Collectively the world is grieving as the pandemic continues to change our everyday lives With a loss of trust in the world as a safe place a loss of certainty about health care education employment lingering anxieties plague many of us even as parts of the world are opening back up again Yet after so much loss our search must be for a sense of meaning and not something as elusive and impossible as closure This book provides many strategies for coping encouraging us to increase our tolerance of ambiguity and acknowledging our resilience as we express a normal grief and still look to the future with hope and possibility Trauma and Coping Mechanisms among Assemblies of God World Missionaries Valerie A.

Rance, 2021-12-21 Trauma from the fall of Adam and Eve forward impacts human lives in overpowering ways A review of the lives of biblical personalities and missionaries reveals shared traumatic experiences In addition to the stress of cultural adjustment missionaries often live in contexts of violence political unrest economic instability natural disasters and relational conflict The examined biblical personalities faced similar issues yet a majority coped with trauma in ways that led to well being The proposed biblical theory of well being assists missionaries to move deeper in their trust of God by utilizing the coping skills of the biblical personalities including asking God for help lifting up their praise and worship to God standing on a sense of call working with God lamenting venting to God in healthy ways embracing a theology of suffering and accepting assistance from friends and family The adherence to the constructs of this theory protects missionaries from the ravages of psychological trauma by avoiding negative coping and developing positive coping skills that lead to trusting in the only One who gives hope in seemingly hopeless situations The End of Trauma George A.
