Lost In The Crowd:

What Eve Wants to Hear from Adam Michael J. Davis, 2012-08 IN A WORLD that is full of technology and modern advances in everything from medicine to solar fusion it is so interesting that the most common issues of life seem to still have man confused and with no concrete answers from the common cold to how to get along with each other Mankind has been involved in some type of war or interpersonal conflict since the beginning of time from Cain and Abel to Rome's desire to conquer the world to Hitler's attempt to control Europe Some attempts at control have involved masses and some have involved just two The most fundamental relations are between a man and a woman and the products of their union mothers and fathers and their relationship to their children We find ourselves in the twenty first century still trying to explore and master the elements that make a relationship move without conflict We are still trying to discover the key to making a relationship work and without emotional or psychological injuries to anyone As we grow and mature we are ever aware of the difference in the concepts and attitude displayed by both men and women We are more conscious of the differences and attempt to adjust our behavior to accommodate the needs of others Women are from a different DNA makeup and make different needs and priorities Because of our lack of understanding of these needs we inflict needless pain and discomfort on each other We must open our hearts to each other so that we can operate in an environment that promotes love understanding and well doing to others This collection of poetry addresses some of my observations in regard to what I think women desire from men They need to feel secure wanted and loved There is no perfect relationship and no perfect man or woman However there is a balance that can be reached that will allow us to better understand each other

In Search of Lost Meaning Adam Michnik, 2011-05-23 In this new collection of essays Adam Michnik one of Europe's leading dissidents traces the post cold war transformation of Eastern Europe He writes again in opposition this time to post communist elites and European Union bureaucrats Composed of history memoir and political critique In Search of Lost Meaning shines a spotlight on the changes in Poland and the Eastern Bloc in the post 1989 years Michnik asks what mistakes were made and what we can learn from climactic events in Poland's past in its literature and the histories of Central and Eastern Europe He calls attention to pivotal moments in which central figures like Lech Walesa and political movements like Solidarity came into being how these movements attempted to uproot the past and how subsequent events have ultimately challenged Poland's enduring ethical legacy of morality and liberalism Reflecting on the most recent efforts to grapple with Poland's Jewish history and residual guilt this profoundly important book throws light not only on recent events but also on the thinking of one of their most important protagonists

Lost in Time June J. Hwang, 2014-08 June J Hwang's provocative Lost in Time explores discourses of timelessness in the works of central figures of German modernity such as Walter Benjamin Georg Simmel Siegfried Kracauer and Helmuth Plessner as well as those of Alfred Döblin Joseph Roth and Hugo Bettauer Hwang argues that in the Weimar Republic the move toward ahistoricization is itself a historical phenomenon one that can be understood by exploring the intersections of discourses about urban modernity the stranger and German Jewish identity These intersections shed light on conceptions of German Jewish identity that rely on a negation of the specific and temporal as a way to legitimize a historical outsider position creating a dynamic position that simultaneously challenges and acknowledges the limitations of an outsider's agency She reads these texts as attempts to transcend the particular attempts that paradoxically reveal the entanglement of the particular and the universal Lost: the Novels Catherine Hapka, Frank Thompson, 2014-07-15 To celebrate the tenth anniversary of LOST's debut on ABC delve back into the excitement and mystery through the eyes of three new characters stranded on the island This three book compilation of compelling original stories features your favorite characters Jack Kate Sawyer Hurley and more Perfect for fans of the hit TV series the books Endangered Species Secret Identity and Signs of Life add even more depth to the show The Harvard Monthly, 1907
