Much More Laughing And Loving With Autism:

Much More Laughing and Loving with Autism, 2002 A collection of real life warm and humorous stories How to Teach Life Skills to Kids with Autism Or Asperger's Jennifer McIlwee Myers, Temple Grandin, 2010 The co author of Asperger's and Girls presents a no nonsense guide to teaching children with Asperger's or autism the life skills they will need to function as an adult More Laughing and Loving with Autism R. Wayne Gilpin, 1994 If you care for a child with autism this series of books is a must have R Wayne Gilpin past president of the Autism Society of America and founder of the autism publishing company Future Horizons compiled these books at a time when all other books on autism presented rather doom and gloom portraits of autism and those who have it As a father to his son Alex who has autism Wayne knew that people with autism were much more than their limitations His son was honest observant and genuinely caring There were countless moments when Alex would say and do things that made people smile So he collected these warm stories from parents of children with autism to show the world the beautiful side of these young people Be sure to check out the first book Laughing and Loving with Autism and the next book Much More Laughing and Loving with Autism Just This Side of Normal Elizabeth K. Gerlach, 2004 When I grow up I want to be a screwdriver A small boy spins down the sidewalk as his mother follows him with her eyes and heart Nicky has autism Winner of the ASA Outstanding Literary Work of the Year Award Just This Side of Normal is a powerful story of a parent's search for understanding in a world that sometimes makes no sense This book was one of the first autobiographies written by a parent of a child with autism and it continues to inspire both parents and professionals in the autism community What I Wish I'd Known about Raising a Child with Autism Bobbi Sheahan, Kathy DeOrnellas, 2012-10-01 Bobbi Sheahan mother of a child with autism and psychologist Kathy DeOrnellas Ph D did not write this book to lecture you on how to parent your child Instead they offer themselves as your scouts in the field who have valuable information to share from the moment you realize your kid is different My what a quiet baby I have to the self righteous moms on the playground to holding your marriage together and the realm of routines They candidly tackle ASD issues such as Picky Eating Bedtime Battles Potty Training Speech Delays Discipline Early Intervention Sibling Rivalry And much more Parent to Parent Ann Boush  y, 2004-05-15 After her son Jon was diagnosed with autism Ann Boush  y soon learned that for her knowledge was the key to peace Written from her own experience this inspiring book provides the information that will empower parents who find themselves in her situation and inspire them in their quest for the right diagnosis and the right help for their child A Lifetime of Laughing and Loving with Autism R Wayne Gilpin, 2012-11-05 This book will warm your heart A compilation of the first three Laughing and Loving with Autism books this book contains all of your favorite stories plus some new ones The concept for Laughing and Loving came when R Wayne Gilpin realized how much people enjoyed the stories about his son Alex and his unique view of the world Not only did people love his stories they usually chimed in with a few of their own This light view of autism contrasted sharply with all of the technical manuals or doom and gloom stories that were in print at the time so Wayne decided that THIS view needed to be shared As a publisher he printed up 500 copies and hoped he could sell them within a few years He took them to the National Autism Society of America meeting in 1993 and all 500 were gone within two days The world needed this kind of book and it still does A compilation of your favorite stories from Laughing and Loving with Autism More Laughing and Loving with Autism and Much More Laughing and loving with Autism this book will warm your heart while it opens up to all the great qualities our folks with autism bring to us

Riveted: The Science of Why Jokes Make Us Laugh, Movies Make Us Cry, and Religion Makes Us Feel One with the Universe Jim Davies,2014-08-05 Why do some things pass under the radar of our attention but other things capture our interest Why do some religions catch on and others fade away What makes a story a movie or a book riveting Why do some people keep watching the news even though it makes them anxious The past 20 years have seen a remarkable flourishing of scientific research into exactly these kinds of questions

Professor Jim Davies fascinating and highly accessible book Riveted reveals the evolutionary underpinnings of why we find things compelling from art to religion and from sports to superstition Compelling things fit our minds like keys in the ignition turning us on and keeping us running and yet we are often unaware of what makes these keys fit What we like and don't like is almost always determined by subconscious forces and when we try to consciously predict our own preferences we're often wrong In one study of speed dating people were asked what kinds of partners they found attractive When the results came back the participants' answers before the exercise had no correlation with who they actually found attractive in person We are beginning to understand just how much the brain makes our decisions for us we are rewarded with a rush of pleasure when we detect patterns as the brain thinks we've discovered something significant the mind urges us to linger on the news channel or rubberneck an accident in case it might pick up important survival information it even pushes us to pick up People magazine in order to find out about changes in the social structure Drawing on work from philosophy anthropology religious studies psychology economics computer science and biology Davies offers a comprehensive explanation to show that in spite of the differences between the many things that we find compelling they have similar effects on our minds and brains
