Camera ,1910 The Journals of Captain James Cook on his Voyages of Discovery J.C. Beaglehole,2017-07-28 Captain James Cook s first two voyages of exploration in 1768 71 and 1772 75 had drawn the modern map of the South Pacific Ocean and had opened the door on the discovery of Antarctica These expeditions were the subject of Volumes I and II of Dr J C Beaglehole s edition of Cook s Journals The third voyage on which Cook sailed in 1776 was directed to the Northern Hemisphere Its objective was the discovery of a Northern Passage by sea from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean the North west Passage sought since the 16th century which would have transformed the pattern of world trade The search was to take Cook into high latitudes where as in the Antarctic his skill in ice navigation was tested Sailing north from Tahiti in 1778 Cook made the first recorded discovery of the Hawaiian Islands On March 7 he sighted the Oregon coast in 44 N The remarkable voyage which he made northward along the Canadian and Alaskan coasts and through Bering Strait to his farthest north in 70 nearly disproved the existence of a navigable passage towards the Atlantic and produced charts of impressive accuracy Returning to Hawaii to refit Cook met his death in a clash with the natives as tragic as it seems unnecessary Dr Beaglehole discusses with sympathy and insight the tensions which led Cook by then a tired man into miscalculations alien to his own nature and habits The volume and vitality of the records both textual and graphic for this voyage surpass those even for Cook s second voyage The surgeons William Anderson and David Samwell both admirable observers left journals which are also here printed in full for the first time The documentation is completed as in the previous volumes by appendixes of documents and correspondence and by reproductions of original drawings and paintings mainly by John Webber the artist of the expedition In Dr Beaglehole's words no one can study attentively the records of Cook's third and last voyage

Paddle 'Til Dark Raimonds Zvirbulis, 2018-09-21 This solo wilderness kayaking journey began many years ago years before I even knew anything about kayaks and paddling down remote legendary rivers Poring over maps of those places revealed very little The blank spaces spread far and wide At last after decades of dreaming I stood on the shore of Lake Atlin in British Columbia where the headwaters of the Yukon River are I stood there and thought about all those hope-filled years and was thrilled at the anticipation of leaving that morning in mid June Crossing the expanse of Lake Atlin in a fine mist I guided the kayak toward Graham Channel which would take me to Tagish Lake There I met Jim and Marion Brook at their cabin After hot coffee and freshly baked cookies they sent me on my way They were the first of many people who helped me on my journey That evening having found the perfect campsite I inspected the area for bear tracks Finding none I started a large campfire before setting up the tent Supper had been eaten at a previous stop so there was no cooking where I stayed for the night This was the procedure I followed every night It kept animals bigger and hungrier than me from visiting my campsites As I paddled down the lakes I stopped at villages such as Tagish I paddled down Marsh Lake and down dangerous Lake Laberge and I stopped in historic towns such as Whitehorse and Dawson City I passed by wrecked and beached steamboats from the gold rush days and finally crossed the US Canadian line into Alaska I had paddled through a forest fire so immense that it took a day to pass the flames The current carried me past Eagle Circle City through the Yukon flats where the river was ten to twenty miles wide and I crossed the Arctic Circle at Fort Yukon Then came the small villages of Beaver Stevens Village and then the oil pipeline I paddled on to Rampart where the fierce head wind nearly drove me back upstream Next I passed through Tanana where I met Emmet Peter who won the Iditarod long ago then on to Ruby Galena Nulato and Holy Cross where Bergie Demientieff served me coffee and gave good advice Finally I arrived at Russian Mission where I ran out of time after fifty one days and two thousand miles of paddling my kayak There Harvey Pitka and his wife Ester fed me a wonderful dinner before I flew out As the plane climbed and banked toward Bethel I knew that I would return one day to finish my kayak trip to the Bering Sea

My Paddle to the Sea John Lane, 2020-10-07 In an age that values faster and faster travel Lane's river memoir affirms the great value of floating and observing Booklist Three months after a family vacation in Costa Rica ends in tragedy when two fellow rafters die on the flooded Rio Reventazon John Lane sets out with friends from his own backyard in upcountry South Carolina to calm his nerves and to paddle to the sea Like Huck Finn Lane sees a river journey as a portal to change but unlike Twain's character Lane isn't escaping He's getting intimate with the river that flows right past his home in the Spartanburg suburbs Lane's three hundred mile float trip takes him down the Broad River and into Lake Marion before continuing down the Santee River Along the way Lane recounts local history and spars with streamside literary presences such as Mind of the South author W J Cash Henry Savage author of the Rivers of
