Preacher, Can You Hear Us Listening? Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-02-03 Everyone knows that pulpits are for preaching and pews are for listening to sermons This obvious scenario however masks an essential prerequisite for faithful fruitful preaching namely that preachers listen to God and to their people before they speak Roger Van Harn here puts forth pointed questions that sermon listeners really ask of preachers Why should we listen to sermons Does every sermon need a Bible text How can a sermon be the word of God Do you preach for the church or the world Van Harn grapples with and discusses such questions giving preachers fresh insights into the needs and desires of congregations Preacher Can You Hear Us Listening will foster an ongoing dialogue between pulpit and pew and sharpen listening skills in both directions

Luminescence, Volume 2 C. K. Barrett, Fred Barrett, 2017-08-09 What is found in this series unveils an entirely different side of C K Barrett a side one might never have known about if one had knowledge only of his famous commentaries and monographs Herein lies a goodly selection of Kingsley's sermons preached largely in small and medium sized Methodist churches in the Northeast of England though often elsewhere in England and around the world Fred Barrett was not the scholar his son was but on close inspection one can most definitely see the impact of the father on the son when it came to preaching It seems right to include as many sermons from both of these men as we can in this series One thing sorely lacking in much preaching these days is in depth engagement with both the biblical text and one's tradition and theology The sermons in these volumes demonstrate what such preaching can look like While the first volume presented sermons on the Gospels and Acts this second volume covers the rest of the New Testament and extensive portions of the Old Testament

Daffodils in March Clare Revell, 2016-02-12 Given a week's notice in her current job, Eden Jameson is desperately looking for something new. Being a nanny for her widowed best friend, Hanna, is the ideal solution to both their problems. David Painter has other ideas. Having a stranger in the house, even if she is his sister's best friend, could ruin everything he's worked so long to achieve. He needs to get rid of this nanny, and fast. When Hanna dies unexpectedly, the reading of the will is a shock. Eden and David have been left joint custody of the baby and joint ownership of the house. Can they overcome their differences, or is it too late?
