The New Heretics of France Susan Palmer, 2011-09-30 Since the Age of Enlightenment France has upheld clear constitutional guidelines that protect human rights and religious freedom Today however intolerant attitudes and discriminatory practices towards unconventional faiths have become acceptable and even institutionalized in public life Susan Palmer offers an insightful examination of France s most stigmatized new religions or sectes and the public management of religious and philosophical minorities by the state The New Heretics of France tracks the mounting government sponsored anti cult movement in the wake of the shocking mass suicides of the Solar Temple in 1994 an event that ushered France s most visible religious minorities onto a blacklist of 172 sectes commissioned by the National Assembly Drawing on extensive interviews and field research Palmer describes the controversial histories of well known international New Religious Movements including the Church of Scientology Raelian Movement and Unificationism as well as esoteric local groups Palmer also reveals the partisanship of Catholic priests journalists village mayors and the passive public who support La R publique s efforts to control minority faiths all in the name of Liberty Equality and Fraternity Through historical and sociological theory Palmer analyzes France s war on sectes as a strategic response to social pressures arising from globalization and immigration Her study addresses the impact of these social pressures on traditional cultures and national character as well as important issues of religious freedom and public tolerance La Démocratie Étienne VACHEROT, 1860

Koenig, Paul F. A. Guchteneire, 2007-01-01 By unanimous adoption of the Universal Declaration of Cultural Diversity the UNESCO Member States accepted a new ethical approach to respect diversity as a guiding principle for democratic societies While support for the Declaration remains strong there is a general awareness that the democratic management of multicultural societies needs rethinking and further development This publication examines the political governance of cultural diversity specifically how public policy making has dealt with the claims for cultural recognition that have increasingly been expressed by ethno national movements language groups religious minorities indigenous peoples and migrant communities Its principle aim is to understand explain and assess public policy responses to ethnic linguistic and religious diversity Adopting interdisciplinary perspectives of comparative social sciences the contributors address the conditions forms and consequences of democratic and human rights based governance of multi ethnic multi lingual and multi faith societies Publisher s description Chercheurs de Dieux Dans L'espace Public Eileen Barker, Université Laval. globalization and in particular many new religions have followed suit This book draws together a selection of top quality papers given at a conference held in Aarhus in 2002 under the auspices of the Research Network on New Religions RENNER The papers which have been edited and up dated represent the work of leading scholars in the history of religions sociology of religion psychology of religion and other disciplines They address questions that are vital for everyone in the modern world whether approached as a reflection of world economy and power dynamics new possibilities of communication and cultural exchange in the light of mass media and technology increased cultural plurality in the wake of migration or as a combination of any of these globalization challenges the academic study of religion to renewed theoretical and methodological reflection
