New Zealand in a Globalising World Ralph Pettman, 2005 In 2003 Victoria University hosted the Fourth Wellington Conference on World Affairs This book is a collection of papers from that gathering The theme was New Zealand in World Affairs and focused on three major threads New Zealand's role in the Pacific Trans Tasman relations and New Zealand in a globalising world Chapters include a discussion and deconstruction of globalization the role of diplomacy in a global world security in Oceania in the post 9/11 era a survey of diplomacy politics with regard to nuclear testing by the French and an investigation of the differing world views held by Australia and New Zealand

Australian Security After 9/11 Derek McDougall, 2020-07-24 Debates on security became more intense following the unanticipated end of the Cold War conflict and took on added force after the terrorist attacks on the US on September 11 2001 Generally viewed as a part of the wider West despite its separation by enormous geographical distances from both Europe and the United States Australia is a regional power in its own right It has been an active and loyal member of the US led coalitions of the willing first in Afghanistan and then in Iraq The terrorist attacks in Bali one year after the attacks in the United States brought home to Australia the direct nature of the new global terrorist threats to its own security This volume brings together leading experts on international security and Australia's foreign and security policies in a critical examination of Australia's adaptations to the new security challenges It is the first in depth and comprehensive analysis of Australia's defence and security policies as well as the country's role in countering regional and global challenges to international security since the war on terrorism began

Global Trends and Transitions in Security Expertise James McGann, 2017-11-08 The scope of Security and International Affairs research has expanded tremendously since the end of the Cold War to include topics beyond the realm of war studies or military statecraft The field once devoted solely to the study of conventional military and nuclear security issues has diversified to include foci often considered nontraditional including peace and conflict political economic environmental and human security In this exciting new volume McGann has undertaken a quantitative and qualitative study of SIA think tanks looking at global and regional trends in their research He argues that the end of the Cold War marked a fundamental shift within the field of defense and security studies among think tanks and academics Tracking the evolution of security as understood by researchers and policymakers is vital as the world follows the path of the Four Mores more issues more actors more competition and more conflict As we move forward into a world of rapid change and ubiquitous uncertainty think tanks will only become more prominent and influential The volume concludes with an assessment of the future of Security and International Affairs studies and raises the possibility of a return to a traditional security focus driven by recent events in Europe and the Middle East This will be an important resource for students and scholars of security studies global governance and think tanks
