his mission his teaching and the great works he performed among an ancient people The Life Times and Teachings of a Savior differs in that it not only chronicles historical and biblical events but also goes beyond digging deeply into many of the esoteric meanings of events in those days and the relationship between Yahshuas teaching and his environment It meshes the first four books of the New Testament into one unbroken story and blends it with selected writings from other holy books such as the Upanishads and the Dhammapada In doing so the study seeks to reveal Yahshua the man and explain why the errors of humanity became his responsibility Moreover it links the man commonly known as the Messiah to who the Bible calls the first man Adam showing how Adam fell short of bringing light to a world that became darkened and formless while Yahshua fulfilled his mission leaving an example for all to follow out of the darkened and formless world to an illuminated world of abundant life The Life Times and Teachings of a Savior will no doubt magnify the teachings of the Bible and shine light on prophecies while unveiling mans purpose on the earth Intended for anyone seeking truth in light whether Christian or not this study considers the life of Yahshua through a unique and spiritually expanded perspective
