Seeking A Sanctuary:

Seeking a Sanctuary Malcolm Bull, Keith Lockhart, 2006-12-20 The completely revised second edition further explores one of the most successful of America's indigenous religious groups Despite this the Adventist church has remained largely invisible Seeking a Sanctuary casts light on this marginal religion through its socio historical context and discusses several Adventist figures that shaped the perception of this Christian sect Seeking a Sanctuary Malcolm Bull, Keith Lockhart, 1991-06-01

The Mystery of the Cross Judith Couchman, 2010-03-05 Christianity is a religion founded on the mystery of the cross of Christ Leo the Great At the center of Christianity sits the cross of Christ From the beginning Christ's followers celebrated the cross as a symbol of their faith It was honored in church worship carved into rough tombstones pressed onto loaves of bread and set out as a sign of sanctuary The cross represented what Christians believed who they hoped for and how they approached life In this thoughtful book Judith Couchman takes up forty images of the cross from early Christianity As we discover the meaning and significance of each of these uses we learn a little more about the early church More than that she helps us focus on the meaning of the cross and the Savior's sacrifice Ideal for Lenten devotional reading and appropriate for any season of the church calendar this book includes original illustrations of each cross image The Mystery of the Cross will enrich your understanding of Christian tradition and draw you into Christ's presence

Asylum-Seeking, Migration and Church Susanna Snyder, 2016-04-15 Asylum Seeking Migration and Church addresses one of the most pressing issues confronting contemporary society How are we to engage with migrants Drawing on studies of church engagement with asylum seekers in the UK and critical immigration and refugee issues in North America Snyder presents an extended theological reflection on both the issue of asylum seeking and the fears of established populations surrounding immigration This book outlines ways in which churches are currently supporting asylum seekers encouraging closer engagement with people seen as other and more thoughtful responses to newcomers Creatively exploring biblical and theological traditions surrounding the stranger Snyder argues that as well as practising a vision of inclusive community churches would do well to engage with established population fears Trends in global migration and the dynamics of fear and hostility surrounding immigration are critically and creatively explored throughout the book Inviting more complex nuanced responses to asylum seekers and immigrants this book offers invaluable insights to those interested in Christian ethics practical theology social work mission and faith and social action as well as those working in the field of migration

Entrepreneurial Learning City Regions Judith James, Jean Preece, Raúl Valdés-Cotera, 2017-09-21 This book proposes an alternative strategy to improve and sustain prosperity through the creation of an entrepreneurial culture in learning cities or city regions The edited collection provides insights into how entrepreneurship education job creation and social inclusion can be aligned through entrepreneurial learning in the context of territorial development With rich and varied contributions from a wide field including policy makers entrepreneurs an investment banker leaders of universities and councils the voluntary sector scientists educators and students it reviews and assesses how learning cities and regions may become more prosperous by investing in the development of entrepreneurial skills throughout lifelong learning Reinforced by examples on developing and retaining entrepreneurial people this book contributes to our understanding of how entrepreneurial learning can be fostered in different city and city region contexts It makes an interesting contribution to the field in terms of mapping out complex issues and testing the practical validity of the concept while also providing rich and insightful case studies centred on the Welsh experience with entrepreneurial learning city regions The high quality international contributions demonstrate the new worldwide interest in developing an entrepreneurial culture for the benefit of a city or region rather than an entrepreneurial mind set for individual benefit This fascinating subject will be of interest to many social scientists policymakers and practitioners It will be found especially valuable for professionals involved in economic inclusive and sustainable city or regional development

No Innocent Bystanders Christopher Doucot, 2017-10-11

The struggle for justice is ongoing In answering the biblical call to act justly and love mercifully can Christians cross lines of privilege to walk humbly not only with God but with their marginalized neighbors as well No Innocent Bystanders looks at the role of allies in social justice movements and asks what works what doesn't and why It explains what allies legitimately can accomplish what they can't and what kind of humility and clarity is required to tell the difference This book is a start up guide for spiritual or religious people who are interested in working for social justice but don't know how or where to begin drawing on the lessons of history the framework of Christian ideas and the insights of contemporary activists It offers practical guidance on how to meaningfully and mindfully advocate alongside all who struggle for a more just society

A Tolerant Nation? , 2015-03-15 Combines historical and contemporary material Draws on historical sociological cultural and literary approaches Full revised and up to date edition of a classic book in the field Covers the whole field in one volume

A Just Church Chris Howson, 2011-02-17 What does liberation theology actually look like in 21st century Britain How can the Church respond faithfully to issues like war climate change and vast global inequalities A fresh expression church in the centre of Bradford has explored these questions through radical forms of worship non violent direct action for example physically resisting the unjust detentions of asylum seekers and experimenting with new ways of being community that help to build the reign of God Church members have been arrested come under the scrutiny of security forces and been super glued together at the gates of hell aka Aldermaston Atomic Weapons Establishment This is their story their successes and disasters and their modelling of a new version of the Action Reflection cycle called EARS Education Action Reflection Sustaining aimed at helping other Christians to evolve their own way of thinking growing and demonstrating the relevance of Church in today's contexts
