Early Film Noir William Hare, 2010-07-27 The name is French and it has connections to German expressionist cinema but film noir was inspired by the American Raymond Chandler whose prose was marked by the gripping realism of seedy hotels dimly lit bars main streets country clubs mansions cul de sac apartments corporate boardrooms and flop houses of America Chandler and the other writers and directors including James M Cain Dashiell Hammett Jane Greer Ken Annakin Rouben Mamoulian and Mike Mazurki who were primarily responsible for the creation of the film noir genre and its common plots and themes are the main focus of this work It correlates the rise of film noir with the new appetites of the American public after World War II and explains how it was developed by smaller studios and filmmakers as a result of the emphasis on quality within a deliberately restricted element of cities at night The author also discusses how RKO capitalized on films such as Murder My Sweet and Out of the Past two of film noir's most famous titles and film noir's connection to British noir and the great international triumph of Sir Carol Reed in The Third Man A Life Through the Lens Alan Hume, Gareth

Owen, 2004-05-19 In a career spanning six decades director of photography Alan Hume has worked on over 100 films and television shows and progressed through the ranks from a young clapper boy to one of the best lighting cameramen in the business From early films with David Lean through the popular Carry On series Amicus horror four James Bonds Star Wars Return of the Jedi A Fish Called Wanda Shirley Valentine Stepping Out and others Alan Hume has worked alongside some of the most acclaimed directors and producers and biggest film stars The memoir from his evacuation as a child in World War II to his retirement includes a collection of rare photographs both in front of and behind the camera He explains technical details and insights of the industry while divulging anecdotes about celebrities and filmmaking It concludes with a summary of the technological changes throughout his career and to the present and a full filmography With great good humor Hume offers an incomparable tour behind the camera The Penguin Modern Classics Book Henry Eliot, 2021-11-18 The essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world For six decades the Penguin Modern Classics series has been an era defining ever evolving series of books encompassing works by modernist pioneers avant garde iconoclasts radical visionaries and timeless storytellers This reader's companion showcases every title published in the series so far with more than 1 800 books and 600 authors from Achebe and Adonis to Zamyatin and Zweig It is the essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world and the companion volume to The Penguin Classics Book Bursting with lively descriptions surprising reading lists key literary movements and over two thousand cover images The Penguin Modern Classics Book is an invitation to dive in and explore the greatest literature of the last hundred years After the Trauma Harvey Curtis Webster, 2021-10-21 In this lucid book a distinguished scholar and critic measures British fiction from World War I through the convulsive effects of the Depression and World War II and the importance of the writing that has been done since Finnegans Wake Webster presents a moving account of the shattering impact of the Great War upon British writers particularly Rose Macaulay Aldous Huxley Evelyn Waugh and Ivy Compton Burnett The cynicism and despair which afflicted them also bore heavily on the novelists of the thirties and forties Graham Greene Joyce Cary L P Hartley C P Snow who endured the disorder and violence of the Depression and World War II Though all of these writers spoke with individual voices ranging from pessimism to joyful affirmation they were all marked ineradicably by the turmoil of the period The book closes with an overview of the writers who have developed since World War II Penetrating fresh affirmative in its values the book is an important assessment of this protean group of writers The Graham Greene Film Reader Graham Greene, 1994 Gathers Greene's film writings and offers a brief introduction to the role of motion pictures in his life and career Graham Greene's Conradian Masterplot Robert Pendleton, 1996-02-12 From The Man Within 1929 to The Captain and the Enemy 1988 Graham Greene engaged in a lifelong dialogue with Joseph Conrad's political psychological and melodramatic fictions Repressing Conrad's political anxieties his early work displaces the protagonist's existential dilemma into the form of the thriller or alternatively the Catholic novel After The Quiet American 1955 however Greene's novels return to politics introducing comic variations which transform Conrad's masterplot into a mixed genre uniquely his own a process charted in this book the first full length study of the subject The Rules of Art Pierre Bourdieu, 1996 Written with verve and intensity and a good bit of wordplay this is the long awaited study of Flaubert and the modern literary field that constitutes the definitive work on the sociology of art by one of the world's leading social theorists Drawing upon the history of literature and art from the mid nineteenth century to the present Bourdieu develops an original theory of art conceived as an autonomous value He argues powerfully against those who refuse to acknowledge the interconnection between art and the structures of social relations within which it is produced and received As Bourdieu shows art's new autonomy is one such structure which complicates but does not eliminate the interconnection The literary universe as we know it today took shape in the nineteenth century as a space set apart from the approved academies of the state No one could any longer dictate what ought to be written or decree the canons of good taste Recognition and consecration were produced in and through the struggle in which writers critics and publishers confronted one another MOUNT PINATUBO or WOMEN HATERS
