Shadows of ANZAC David W. Cameron, 2013-03-01 On 25 April 1915 with the landing of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps ANZAC below the slopes of Sari Bair on the Gallipoli peninsula the ANZAC legend was born Nine months later having suffered thousands of casualties from disease hand to hand fighting bombing sniping and forlorn charges across no man's land the politicians and senior military commanders in London called it quits While the Turks also suffered terribly they at least emerged victorious The fighting at Anzac was not restricted to the ANZACs and Turks alone British troops also fought at Anzac from the earliest days of the invasion and large numbers of British and Indian troops were committed to the Anzac sector during the failed August offensive designed to break the stalemate The invasion was also supported by large numbers of men often non combatants who performed vital roles Naval beach officers kept logistics operating in some form of orderly fashion Indian mule handlers moved supplies of food water and ammunition to the front lines and medical staff and army chaplains worked on the beach caring for the wounded and the dead All these men were frequently under fire from the Turkish battery known as Beachy Bill Others surveyed the narrow beachhead and bored deep holes for drinking water signallers tried desperately to establish and maintain communications and the gunners hunted the battlefield for suitable places to site their guns Off the peninsula but just as vital were the nursing and medical staff on the hospital ships at Lemnos Alexandria Cairo and Malta and the airmen who flew above the battlefield spotting for the navy and artillery Shadows of Anzac An intimate history of Gallipoli tells the story of the ordinary men and women who participated in the Gallipoli campaign from April to December 1915 and gave the Anzac legend meaning Drawing on letters diaries and other primary and secondary sources David Cameron provides an intimate and personal perspective of Anzac a richly varied portrayal that describes the absurdity monotony and often humour that sat alongside the horrors of the bitter fight to claim the peninsula

The Price of Valour John Hamilton, 2012-09-01 From the bestselling author of Goodbye Cobber God Bless You and Gallipoli Sniper In The Price of Valour award winning journalist John Hamilton gives us an extraordinary insight into the life of a real Australian hero Hugo Throssell From the bloody battles of The Nek and Hill 60 during the Gallipoli campaign where Throssell won a Victoria Cross to the Great Depression of the 1930s where his life came to its tragic end Hamilton has written a rich and vivid portrait of a fearless soldier a national hero a born again socialist a loving husband and father and finally a victim of the war's long and destructive aftermath Winner of the Nib Waverley Library Award for Literature People's Choice Award 2013 Gallipoli Sniper John Hamilton, 2008-11-01 The Anzac battlefield on Gallipoli was made for snipers Scrub cliffs spurs and hills meant that both Anzac and Turkish positions often overlooked one another The unwary or unlucky were prey to snipers on both sides and the sudden crack of a gunshot and instant death were an ever present menace The most successful and most feared sniper of the Gallipoli campaign was Billy Sing a Light Horseman from Queensland who was almost unique among the Australian troops in having a Chinese born father A combination of patience stealth and an incredible eye made him utterly deadly with the incredible and horrifying figure of over 200 credited kills John Hamilton author of the bestselling Goodbye Cobber God Bless You has written an extraordinary account of a hidden side of the campaign the snipers war Following Sing from his recruitment onwards Hamilton takes us on a journey into the squalor dust blood and heroism of Gallipoli seen from the unique viewpoint of the sniper Gallipoli Sniper is a powerful and very different account of war and its effect on those who fight

Our Friend the Enemy David W. Cameron, 2014-10-01 Our Friend the Enemy is the first detailed history of the Gallipoli campaign at Anzac since Charles Bean's Official History Viewed from both sides of the wire and described in first hand accounts Australian Captain Herbert Layh recounted that as they approached the beach on 25 April that once we were behind cover the Turks turned their fire on us and gave us a lively 10 minutes A poor chap next to me was hit three times He begged me to shoot him but luckily for him a fourth bullet got him and put him out of his pain Later that day Sergeant Charles Saunders a New Zealand engineer described his first taste of battle The Turks were entrenched some 50 100 yards from the edge of the face of the gully and their machine guns swept the edges Line after line of our men went up some lines didn't take two paces over the crest when down they went to a man and on came another line Gunner Recep Trudal of the Turkish 27th Regiment wrote of the fierce Turkish counter attack on 19 May designed to push the Anzac's back into the sea It started at morning prayer call time and then it went on and on never stopped You know there was no break for eating or anything Attack was our command That was what the Pasha said Once he says Attack you attack and you either die or you survive

Gallipoli Victoria Cross Hero John Hamilton, 2020-01-24 The WWI biography of a Victory Cross recipient who fought bravely at Gallipoli only to be shunned after the war for speaking out against it The son of a former Premier of Western Australia Hugo Throssell volunteered to join the Imperial Australian Force during the Great War He was shipped to Gallipoli in 1915 with the 10th Australian Light Horse Regiment which fought in a dismounted role He was involved in the famous charge of the 10th Light Horse at the Battle of the Nek and the Battle of Hill 60 Throssell was severely wounded during the Battle of Hill 60 but refused to leave his post until the fighting was over As soon as his wounds were dressed he went back into the firing line until he was ordered to stand down by the Medical Officer His determination saved his battalion at a critical moment After the war Throssell became an outspoken opponent of war for which he was widely condemned It also made employment difficult and he fell into debt When he tried to pawn his Victoria Cross he was offered only ten shillings He committed suicide at forty nine Meticulously researched and beautifully written this is a moving tale of heroism and tragedy Gardens of Hell Patrick Gariepy,2014-05-15 Gardens of Hell examines the human side of one of the great tragedies of modern warfare the Gallipoli campaign of the First World War In February 1915 beginning with a naval attack on Turkey in the Dardanelles a combined force of British Australian New Zealand Indian and French troops invaded the Gallipoli Peninsula only to face crushing losses and an ignominious retreat from what seemed a hopeless mission Both sides in the battle suffered huge casualties with a combined 127 000 servicemen killed during the action Patrick Gariepy has pieced together the battle from combatants own words Drawn from diaries and letters and from stories passed down through generations of families these firsthand accounts offer an honest heartfelt and sometimes painful testimony to a doomed campaign fought by the men who lived through the fury terror and grief that was Gallipoli Gardens of Hell is a sensitive acknowledgment of the enormous human cost of military folly and failure Gallipoli 1915 Tim

Travers,2016-07-11 Why was the Allied naval assault of February March 1915 so unsuccessful Did the Ottoman Turks have knowledge of the Allied landings of 25 April 1915 And did Sir Ian Hamilton the overall commander of the Allied forces at Gallipoli really make a mistake in his intervention at Suvla These questions and the key issue of why the Ottoman Turks won the 1915 Gallipoli campaign or why the Allies lost it have never been satisfactorily answered This new history of the Gallipoli campaign aims to answer them while also telling the story of what actually happened through the voices of British Australian and Turkish soldiers In order to properly understand the bloody events of 1915 Tim Travers is the first historian of Gallipoli to use the general Staff Ottoman archives in Ankara to tell the other side of the story Wide ranging research in the Turkish archives as well as those in Australia Britain France and New Zealand plus a significant newly discovered German source has produced a startling new interpretation of the 1915 conflict Moving from a study of the Western Front Tim Travers has produced a challenging analysis of the enduring mysteries of the Gallipoli campaign Sport, War and Society in Australia and New Zealand Martin Crotty,Robert Hess,2018-02-02 Sport and war have been closely linked in Australian and New Zealand society since the nineteenth century Sport has variously been advocated as appropriate training for war lambasted as a distraction from the war effort and resorted to as an escape from wartime trials and tribulations War has limited the fortunes of some sporting codes and some individuals while others have blossomed in the changed circumstances The chapters in this book range widely over the broad subject of Australian and New Zealand sport and their relation to the cataclysmic world wars of the first half of the twentieth century They examine the mythology of the links between sport and war sporting codes groups of sporting individuals and individual sportspeople Revealing complex and often unpredictable effects of total wars upon individuals and social groups which as always created chaos and the sporting field offered no exception This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport When We Dead Awaken: Australia, New Zealand, and the Armenian Genocide James Robins,2020-11-12 On April 25th 1915 during the First World War the famous Anzacs landed ashore at Gallipoli At the exact same moment leading figures of Armenian life in the Ottoman Empire were being arrested in vast numbers That dark day marks the simultaneous birth of a national story and the beginning of a genocide When We Dead Awaken the first narrative history of the Armenian Genocide in decades draws these two landmark historical events together James Robins explores the accounts of Anzac Prisoners of War who witnessed the genocide the experiences of soldiers who risked their lives to defend refugees and Australia and New Zealand s participation in the enormous post war Armenian relief movement By exploring the vital political implications of this unexplored history When We Dead Awaken questions the national folklore of Australia New Zealand and Turkey and the mythology of Anzac Day itself

Russian Anzacs in Australian History Elena Govor,2005 Extraordinarily it was men born in the former Russian Empire that constituted the most numerous group in the First Australian Imperial Force after those of Anglo Celtic background This book a history of Russian multiethnic communities in Australia follows the hidden lives of these Anzacs through and beyond the war

An Inconvenient Genocide Geoffrey Robertson,2014-10-16 The most controversial question that is still being asked about the First World War was there an Armenian genocide will come to a head on 24 April 2015 when Armenians worldwide will commemorate its centenary and Turkey will deny that it took place claiming that the deaths of over half of the Armenian race were justified This has become a vital international issue Twenty national parliaments in democratic countries have voted to recognise the genocide but Britain and the USA continue to equivocate for fear of alienating their NATO ally Geoffrey Robertson QC condemns this hypocrisy and in An Inconvenient Genocide he proves beyond reasonable doubt that the horrific events in the Ottoman Empire in 1915 constitute the crime against humanity that is today known as genocide He explains how democracies can deal with genocide denial without infringing free speech and makes a major contribution to understanding and preventing this worst of all crimes His renowned powers of advocacy are on full display as he condemns all those from Sri Lanka to the Sudan from Old Anatolia to modern Syria and Iraq who try to justify the mass murder of children and civilians in the name of military necessity or religious fervour

Genocide Perspectives II Colin Tatz,Peter Arnold,2003 Collection of essays about holocaust and genocide Looks at cultural and linguistic genocide as well as physical genocide examines the perpetrators and the failure to prevent genocide Explores these themes in the cases of Armenians Jews Tutsis the East Timorese and the Australian Aborigines Includes endnotes and selected bibliography Colin and Sandra Tatz are directors of the Australian Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies
