Visions of the Other World in Middle English Robert Easting, 1997 This bibliography covers visions of Heaven and Hell or more usually Purgatory and Earthly Paradise in 19 medieval texts relating seven visions the vision of St Paul or the Eleven Pains of Hell St Patrick's purgatory the vision of Tundale a revelation of purgatory the revelation of the Monk of Eynsham the vision of Fursey and the vision of Edmund Leversedge From the Supernatural to the Uncanny Zoltán

Biedermann, Stephen M. Hart, 2018-01-23 This volume is a collection of thirteen essays built around the question what is the supernatural and how and why has it changed over time It is divided into two complementary sections the first focussing on research on the discourse of the supernatural including the miraculous located in the medieval and early modern eras and the second consisting of a set of test cases involving research on the uncanny often articulated in a post Freudian sense as expressed in modern literature film and art The eclectic and prismatic approach pursued via a variety of test cases of the supernatural in this book gives rise to a clear comparative and diachronic study of the main characteristics of the supernatural Pilgrimage in Ireland Peter Harbison, 1995-06-01 The landscape of Ireland is rich with ancient carved stone crosses tomb shrines Romanesque churches round towers sundials beehive huts Ogham stones and other monuments many of them dating from before the 12th century The purpose and function of these artifacts have often been the subject of much debate Peter Harbison proposes in this book a radical hypothesis that a great many of these relics can be explained in terms of ecclesiastical pilgrimage He has constructed a fascination theory about the palace of pilgrimage in the early Christian period placing it right at the center of communal life The monuments themselves make much better sense if it looked at in this light as having come into existence not through the practices of ascetic monks but because of the activities of pilgrims He begins by searching the historical sources in detail for evidence of early pilgrimage sites By examining their monuments he projects the findings to other locations where pilgrimage has not been documented He goes on to describe monument types of every kind and to identify pilgrims in sculpture surviving from before AD 1200 The Dingle Peninsula in Kerry proves to be a microcosm of pilgrimage monuments enabling the author to reconstruct a tradition of maritime pilgrimage activity up and down the west coast of Ireland Indeed the famous medieval traveler's tale of the fabulous voyage of the St Brendan the Navigator can now be seen as the literary expression of a longstanding maritime pilgrimage along the Atlantic seaways of Ireland and Scotland reaching Iceland Greenland and even North America Twentieth-Century

A brilliant testament to the ethnographer's art the deeply rooted wisdom of an ordinary person and the complex ways in which folklore figures in everyday life along the Irish border William Carleton, the Authentic Voice Gordon Brand, 2006

The William Carleton Summer School is one of the most important literary festivals on the island in that there are very few that make a point of studying an aspect of Ireland before the Great Famine William Carleton 1794-1869 is the greatest author to have written about the Irish peasant and the Ireland of the period immediately preceding it he enables the reader to think back past the Famine into the culture particularly the peasant culture of that time confused rich tortured bilingual that made him as a writer Enjoying immense popularity during his lifetime his popularity dwindled but a century after his death it began to revive not least because of the influence of the Summer School The lectures given at the School and revised for publication in William Carleton The Authentic Voice provide ample evidence that he was one of the greatest entertainers of Irish literature in English The Tourism Imaginary and Pilgrimages to the Edges of the World Nieves Herrero, Sharon R. Roseman, 2015 This book examines how the growth of tourism in locations that have historically been considered geographically remote plays a major role in the consolidation and transformation of often longstanding and powerful cultural imaginaries about the edges of the world The contributors examine the attraction of the sublime remoteness continental border points and the dangers of the sea in Finisterre or Fisterra in Galicia Spain Finistère in Brittany France Land's End Cornwall England Lough Derg Ireland Nordkapp or North Cape Norway Cape Spear Newfoundland Canada and Tierra del Fuego Argentina While those travelling to these locations can be seen to be conducting some form of religious or secular pilgrimage those who live in them have long contended with the implications of economic and political marginalization within global political economies Medieval Visions of Heaven and Hell Eileen Gardiner, 1993 First Published in 1993

Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Emergency Writing Anna Teekell, 2018-06-15 Taking seriously Ireland's euphemism for World War II the Emergency Anna Teekell's Emergency Writing asks both what happens to literature written during a state of emergency and what it means for writing to be a response to an emergency Anchored in close textual analysis of works by Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bowen Flann O'Brien Louis MacNeice Denis Devlin and Patrick Kavanagh and supported by archival material and historical research Emergency Writing shows how Irish late modernism was a response to the sociopolitical conditions of a newly independent Irish Free State and to a fully emerged modernism in literature and art What emerges in Irish writing in the wake of Independence of the Gaelic Revival of Yeats and of Joyce is a body of work that invokes modernism as a set of discursive practices with which to counter the Free State's political pieties Emergency Writing provides a new approach to literary modernism and to the literature of conflict considering the ethical dilemma of performing neutrality emotionally politically and rhetorically in a world at war Donahoe's Magazine, 1880
