Louis Zukofsky and the Poetry of Knowledge Mark Scroggins, 1998 Provides a provocative and advanced introduction to the thought and writing of Louis Zukofsky aptly described as one of the first postmodernists Poet translator and editor Louis Zukofsky was born in New York City in 1904 Raised to speak first Yiddish and then English he was fascinated by language from an early age This deep preoccupation with language its musicality complex constructions and fluid meaning later became a key component in the development of his poetry Friend to William Carlos Williams Marianne Moore and Ezra Pound mentor to Robert Creeley and influence on many of the Language Movement poets Zukofsky and his work stand squarely at the center of American poetry's transition from modernism to postmodernism Mark Scroggins advances thoughtful readings of Zukofsky's key critical essays a wide variety of his shorter poems and his poem of a life A He carefully situates Zukofsky within his literary and historical contexts examining his relationship to Pound his 1930s Marxist politics and his sense of himself as a Jewish modernist poet Scroggins also places Zukofsky within an ongoing tradition of American poetry including the work of Wallace Stevens Charles Bernstein Ronald Johnson Michael Palmer and John Taggart Poetic Machinations Michael Golston, 2015-09-01 The shape lineation and prosody of postmodern poems are extravagantly inventive imbuing both form and content with meaning Through a survey of American poetry and poetics from the end of World War II to the present Michael Golston traces the proliferation of these experiments to a growing fascination with allegory in philosophy linguistics critical theory and aesthetics introducing new strategies for reading American poetry while embedding its formal innovations within the history of intellectual thought Beginning with Walter Benjamin's explicit understanding of Surrealism as an allegorical art Golston defines a distinct engagement with allegory among philosophers theorists and critics from 1950 to today Reading Fredric Jameson Angus Fletcher Roland Barthes and Craig Owens and working with the semiotics of Charles Sanders Pierce Golston develops a theory of allegory he then applies to the poems of Louis Zukofsky and Lorine Niedecker who he argues wrote in response to the Surrealists the poems of John Ashbery and Clark Coolidge who incorporated formal aspects of filmmaking and photography into their work the groundbreaking configurations of P Inman Lyn Hejinian Myung Mi Kim and the Language poets Susan Howe's Pierce Arrow which he submits to semiotic analysis and the innovations of Craig Dworkin and the conceptualists Revitalizing what many consider to be a staid rhetorical trope Golston positions allegory as a creative catalyst behind American poetry's postwar avant garde achievements Dictionary Poetics Craig Dworkin, 2020-05-05 The new ways of writing pioneered by the literary avant garde invite new ways of reading commensurate with their modes of composition Dictionary Poetics examines one of those modes book length poems from Louis Zukofsky to Harryette Mullen all structured by particular editions of specific dictionaries By reading these poems in tandem with their source texts Dworkin puts paid to the notion that even the most abstract and fragmentary avant garde literature is nonsensical meaningless or impenetrable When read from the right perspective passages that at first appear to be discontinuous irrational or hopelessly cryptic suddenly appear logically consistent rationally structured and thematically coherent Following a methodology of critical description Dictionary Poetics maps the material surfaces of poems tracing the networks of signifiers that undergird the more familiar representational schemes with which conventional readings have been traditionally concerned In the process this book demonstrates that new ways of reading can yield significant interpretive payoffs open otherwise unavailable critical insights into the formal and semantic structures of a composition and transform our understanding of literary texts at their most fundamental levels The Poetics of the Limit Tim

Woods,2016-09-27 This book situates Louis Zukofsky's poetics and the lineage of Objectivist poetics more broadly within a set of ethical concerns in American poetic modernism The book makes a strong case for perceiving Zukofsky as a missing key figure within this ethical matrix of modernism Viewing Zukofsky's poetry through the lens of the theoretical work of Theodor Adorno and Emmanuel Levinas Woods argues for an ethical genealogy of American poetics leading from Zukofsky through the contemporary school of LANGUAGE poetry Woods brings together modernism and postmodernism ethics and aesthetics in interesting and innovative ways which shed new light on our understanding of this neglected strain of modernist poetics

Rethinking the Vanguard John W. Maerhofer, 2009-05-27 How has political revolution figured into the development of avant garde cultural production Is the vanguard an antiquated concept or does its influence still resonate in the 21st century Focusing closely on the convergence of aesthetics and politics that materialized in the early part of the twentieth century this study offers a re interpretation of the historical avant garde from 1917 to 1962 a turbulent period in intellectual history which marked the apex crisis and decline of vanguardist authority Moving from the impact of the Bolshevik Revolution to the anti imperialist and decolonizing movements in the Third World to the emergence of neo vanguardism in the wake of postmodernity this study opens the way for understanding the transformation of vanguardist cultural paradigms from a global perspective the implications of which also reveal its relevance and application to the contemporary period marriage were followed in 1931 by the start of a life changing correspondence and complicated thirty five year friendship with modernist poet Louis Zukofsky who connected Niedecker to a literary lifeline of distant poets and magazines Supporting herself by turns as a hospital scrubwoman and proofreader for a dairy journal Niedecker made a late marriage to an industrial painter which gave her time to write and publish her work in the final decades of her life During her lifetime Niedecker s poetry was praised by a relatively small literary circle including Zukofsky William Carlos Williams Robert Creeley Denise Levetov and Allen Ginsberg Since her death much more of her surviving writings have been published including a comprehensive edition of collected works and two volumes of correspondence Through Margot Peters s compelling biography readers will discover Lorine Niedecker as a poet of spare and brilliant verse and a woman whose talent and grit carried her through periods of desperation and despair Best Special Interest Books selected by the American Association of School Librarians

MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,1999      Questions of Possibility: Contemporary Poetry and Poetic Form David Caplan,2006-09-26

Questions of Possibility examines the particular forms that contemporary American poets favor and those they neglect The poets choices reveal both their ambitions and their limitations the new possibilities they discover and the traditions they find unimaginable By means of close attention to the sestina ghazal love sonnet ballad and heroic couplet this study advances a new understanding of contemporary American poetry Rather than pitting closed verse against open and traditional poetry against experimental Questions of Possibility explores how poets associated with different movements inspire and inform each other s work Discussing a range of authors from Charles Bernstein Derek Walcott and Marilyn Hacker to Agha Shahid Ali David Caplan treats these poets as contemporaries who share the language not as partisans assigned to rival camps The most interesting contemporary poetry crosses the boundaries that literary criticism draws synthesizing diverse influences and establishing surprising affinities In a series of lively readings Caplan charts the diverse characteristics and accomplishments of modern poetry from the gay and lesbian love sonnet to the currently popular sestina      Poetic

Jenkins,2008-04 Since at least the time of Plato s Republic the relationship between poetry and ethics has been troubled Through the prism of what has been called the new ethical criticism inspired by the work of Emmanuel Levinas G Matthew Jenkins considers the works of Objectivists Black Mountain poets and Language poets in light of their full potential to reshape this ancient relationship American experimental poetry is usually read in either political or moral terms Poetic Obligation by contrast considers the poems of Louis Zukofsky Charles Reznikoff George Oppen Edward Dorn Robert Duncan Susan Howe and Lyn Hejinian in terms of the philosophical notion of ethical obligation to the Other in language Jenkins s historical trajectory enables him to consider the full breadth of ethical topics that have driven theoretical debate since the end of World War II This original approach establishes an ethical lineage in the works of twentieth century experimental poets creating a way to reconcile the breach between poetry and the issue of ethics in literature at large With implications for a host of social issues including ethnicity and immigration economic inequities and human rights Jenkins's imaginative reconciliation of poetry and ethics will provide stimulating reading for teachers and scholars of American literature as well as advocates and devotees of poetry in general Poetic Obligation marshals ample evidence that poetry matters and continues to speak to the important issues of our day      Beyond Maximus Anne Day Dewey, 2007 Beyond Maximus shows how field poetics influenced the construction of the public voices of five Black Mountain poets Charles Olson Robert Creeley Robert Duncan Denise Levertov and Ed Dorn in order to explain their association in the 1950s and 60s as well as their break up as a result of the political and poetic crises of the Vietnam War era
