Louise Bourgeois: Paintings Clare Davies, Briony Fer, 2022-04-12 Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 is celebrated today for her sculptures Less known are the paintings she produced between her arrival in New York in 1938 and her turn to three dimensional media in 1949 Crucial to her artistic practice these early works the focus of this groundbreaking publication show how Bourgeois evolved her deeply personal artistic lexicon and how the themes and motifs she explored in her paintings coalesced into symbols of her sculptural practice Informed by new archival research and the artist's extensive diaries Louise Bourgeois Paintings explores Bourgeois's relationship to the New York art world of the 1940s and her development of a unique pictorial language adding a key element to our understanding of this crucial artist's career

Designing Memory Sabina Tanović, 2019-11-28 This innovative study of memorial architecture investigates how design can translate memories of human loss into tangible structures creating spaces for remembering Using approaches from history psychology anthropology and sociology Sabina Tanović explores purposes behind creating contemporary memorials in a given location their translation into architectural concepts their materialisation in the face of social and political challenges and their influence on the transmission of memory Covering the period from the First World War to the present she looks at memorials such as the Holocaust museums in Mechelen and Drancy as well as memorials for the victims of terrorist attacks to unravel the private and public role of memorial architecture and the possibilities of architecture as a form of agency in remembering and dealing with a difficult past The result is a distinctive contribution to the literature on history and memory and on architecture as a link to the past Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M.

Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott's 1896 1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion

Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois's transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois's contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois's work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life Louise Bourgeois, Marmorarbeiten Louise Bourgeois, Michaela Unterdörfer, 2002 Famous for her sculptures and installations Louise Bourgeois is recognized as one of the most important living artists Having worked with a number of different materials the artist has returned again and again to marble since the 1960s In more than 60 photographs this publication presents the results of Bourgeois's continuous confrontation with the unforgiving yet organic stone BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Cultivating Perception through Artworks Helen A. Fielding, 2021-11-30 What are the ethical political and cultural consequences of forgetting how to trust our senses How can artworks help us see sense think and interact in ways that are outside of the systems of convention and order that frame so much of our lives In Cultivating Perception through Artworks Helen Fielding challenges us to think alongside and according to artworks cultivating a perception of what is really there and being expressed by them Drawing from and expanding on the work of philosophers such as Luce Irigaray and Maurice Merleau-Ponty Fielding urges us to trust our senses and engage relationally with works of art in the here and now rather than distancing and systematizing them as aesthetic objects Cultivating Perception through Artworks examines examples as diverse as a Rembrandt painting M. Nourbese Philip's poetry and Louise Bourgeois's public sculpture to demonstrate how artworks enact ethics politics or culture By engaging with different art forms and discovering the unique way that each opens us to the world in a new and unexpected way Fielding reveals the importance of our moral political and cultural lives Disability and Art History from Antiquity to the Twenty-First Century Ann Millett-Gallant, Elizabeth Howie, 2022-03-28 This volume analyzes representations of disability in art from antiquity to the twenty-first century incorporating disability studies scholarship and art historical research and methodology This book brings these two strands together to provide a comprehensive overview of the intersections between these two disciplines Divided

Urban Ecology, Water Quality and Climate Change Arup K. Sarma,Vijay P. Singh,Rajib K. Bhattacharjya,Suresh A. Kartha,2018-03-14 This unique book brings together high quality research contributions on ecological aspects of urbanization water quality concerns in an urban environment and climate change issues with a strong Indian focus under one umbrella It includes several case studies that discuss urban water management particularly highlighting the quality aspects Urbanization is an ecological disturbance that the modern world accepts as essential in the absence of a better alternative that could provide an equal level of comfort The prohibitive costs of eco friendly production technologies are forcing the developing world to generate industrial waste that is detrimental to the environment At the same time the availability of adequate fresh water is another challenge for our climate change impacted world The scientific community is therefore searching for ways towards ecologically sustainable urban development Discussing all these issues this book offers a useful guide for academicians researchers practicing engineers and managers dealing with diverse water related problems in urban areas

A Curious Intimacy Lois Oppenheim,2013-01-11 What can neuroscience contribute to the psychodynamic understanding of creativity and the imagination A Curious Intimacy is an innovative study into the interrelation between art and neuro psychoanalysis which significantly narrows the divide between the humanities and the sciences Situating our grasp of the creative mind within the historical context of theories of sublimation Lois Oppenheim proposes a change in paradigm for the study of the creative process questioning the idea that creativity serves above all the reparation of early object relationships and the resolution of conflict The book is divided into two parts Part One Art and the Brain introduces the field of neuro psychoanalysis and examines the contribution it can make to the discussion of gender and art Part Two A New Direction for Interdisciplinary Psychoanalysis draws on the verbal and visual artistry of Samuel Beckett Paul Klee and Martha Graham to put to the test the proposed new direction for applied psychoanalysis Lois Oppenheim concludes by addressing the future of psychoanalysis as it becomes increasingly informed by neuroscience and raising questions about what the neurobiology of emotion and feeling has to tell us about the creative experience of an individual and what might constitute a neuro psychoanalytic aesthetics A Curious Intimacy will have great appeal for all those interested in the study of imagination and creativity It will also be of particular interest to students across the humanities and sciences and to psychotherapists and psychoanalysts wanting to explore the contribution that neuro psychoanalysis can make to our understanding of the creative process This Arab Is Queer Elias Jahshan,2022-06-16 This ground breaking anthology features the compelling and courageous memoirs of eighteen queer Arab writers some internationally bestselling others using pseudonyms Here we find heart warming connections and moments of celebration alongside essays exploring the challenges of being LGBTQ and Arab From a military base in the Gulf to loving whispers caught between the bedsheets and from touring overseas as a drag queen to a concert in Cairo where the rainbow flag was raised to a crowd of thousands this collection celebrates the true colours of a vibrant Arab queer experience Focus On: 100 Most Popular United States National Medal of Arts Recipients Wikipedia contributors, You Could Make This Place Beautiful Maggie Smith,2024-06-04 INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER NPR Best Book of the Year Time Best Book of the Year Oprah Daily Best Memoir of the Year A bittersweet study in both grief and joy Time A sparkingly beautiful memoir in vignettes Isaac Fitzgerald New York Times bestselling author that explores coming of age in your middle age from the bestselling poet and author of Keep Moving Life like a poem is a series of choices In her memoir You Could Make This Place Beautiful poet Maggie Smith explores the disintegration of her marriage and her renewed commitment to herself The book begins with one woman s personal heartbreak but its circles widen into a reckoning with contemporary womanhood traditional gender roles and the power dynamics that persist even in many progressive homes With the spirit of self inquiry and empathy she s known for Smith interweaves snapshots of a life with meditations on secrets anger forgiveness and narrative itself The power of these pieces is cumulative page after page they build into a larger interrogation of family work and patriarchy You Could Make This Place Beautiful like the work of Deborah Levy Rachel Cusk and Gina Frangello is an unflinching look at what it means to live and write our own lives It is a story about a mother s fierce and constant love for her children and a woman s love and regard for herself Above all this memoir is extraordinary Ann Patchett in the way that it reveals how in the aftermath of loss we can discover our power and make something new and beautiful The Gothic Gilda Williams,2007 This comprehensive survey of the Gothic in contemporary visual culture explores the work of artists ranging from Andy Warhol to Cindy Sherman to Matthew Barney with texts by Julia Kristeva Marina Warner Jeff Wall and many others Childhood as Memory, Myth and Metaphor Catherine Crimp,2017-12-02 A fascination with childhood unites the artist Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 and the writers Samuel Beckett 1906 89 and Marcel Proust 1871 1922 But while many commentators have traced their childhood images back to memories of lived experiences there is more to their mythologies of childhood that waits to be explored They invite us to move away from familiar ideas whether psychological or biographical about what a child can represent and even what a child is The haunting child figures of Bourgeois Beckett and Proust echo each other as they show how imagining origins for a life for a work of art involves paradoxes that test the limits of our forms of expression Art meets literature profusion meets concision French meets English and images of childhood reveal new insights in this encounter between three great figures of twentieth and twenty first century culture Catherine Crimp holds a PhD from the University of

Cambridge and is currently Lectrice d anglais at theEcole Normale Supérieure de Lyon Louise Bourgeois Frances Morris,Louise Bourgeois,2003 Concerning Consequences Kristine Stiles,2016-03-21 Kristine Stiles has played a vital role in establishing trauma studies within the humanities A formidable force in the art world Stiles examines the significance of traumatic experiences both in the individual lives and works of artists and in contemporary international cultures since World War II In Concerning Consequences she considers some of the most notorious art of the second half of the twentieth century by artists who use their bodies to address destruction and violence The essays in this book focus primarily on performance art and photography From war and environmental pollution to racism and sexual assault Stiles analyzes the consequences of trauma as seen in the works of artists like Marina Abramovic Pope L and Chris Burden Assembling rich intellectual explorations on everything from Paleolithic paintings to the Bible s patriarchal legacies to documentary images of nuclear explosions Concerning Consequences explores how art can provide a distinctive means of understanding trauma and promote individual and collective healing Runaway Girl Jan Greenberg,Sandra Jordan,2003-03 Introduces the life of renowned modern artist Louise Bourgeois who is known primarily for her sculptures The Great Parade Pierre Théberge,Galleries Nationales du Grand Palais (Parijs),National Gallery of Canada,2004-01-01 A beautiful book that showcases how circus figures and artifacts have been portrayed in art over the past two centuries The circus is a dazzling world filled with acrobats and harlequins tumblers and riders monsters and celestial creatures Now this engaging book sets that world in a new light examining how painters sculptors and photographers from the eighteenth century to the present have used the circus as a springboard for their imaginative expression and have envisioned the clown as a metaphor for the modern artist The book presents more than 175 works by such artists as Degas Toulouse Lautrec Rouault Picasso Chagall and L ger Some of these are masterful works shown for the first time these range from the 18 meter stage curtain Picasso designed in 1917 for Erik Satie s ballet Parade to more intimate works such as Nadar and Tournachon s photographs of Pierrot as played by celebrated mime Charles Debureau
