story of the colossal sphinx that is a highlight of the Penn Museum's Egyptian galleries and an iconic object for the Museum as a whole. The narrative covers the original excavations and archaeological history of the Sphinx, how it came to Philadelphia, and the unexpected ways in which the Sphinx's story intersects with the history of Philadelphia, the University of Pennsylvania, and the Museum just before World War I. The book features ample illustrations, photographs, letters, newspaper stories, postcards, maps, and drawings drawn largely from the extensive materials in the Museum Archives. Images of related artifacts in the Penn Museum's Egyptian collection and other objects from the Egyptian Near East and Mediterranean Sections, many not on view and some never before published, as well as pieces in museums in the United States, Europe, and Egypt, place the story of the Penn Museum Sphinx in a wider context. The writing style is informal, and text is woven around the graphics that form the backbone of the narrative. The book is designed to be of interest to a wide audience of adult readers, but accessible and engaging to younger readers as well.

Advances in Utopian Studies and Sacred

Architecture Claudio Gambardella, Claudia Cennamo, Maria Luisa Germanà, Mohd Fairuz Shahidan, Hocine Bougdah, 2021-02-02. At a time dominated by the disappearance of Future as claimed by the French anthropologist Marc Augé, Utopia and Religion seem to be two different ways of giving back an inner horizon to mankind. Therefore, this book, on the one hand, considers the importance of utopia as a tool and how it offers an economic and social resource to improve cities' wealth, future, and livability. On the other, it explores the impact of religious and cultural ideals on cities that have recently emerged in this context. Based on numerous observations, the book examines the intellectual legacy of utopian theory and practices across various academic disciplines. It also presents discussions, theories, and case studies addressing a range of issues and topics related to utopia.

Piranesi's Candelabra and the Presence of the Past Caroline van Eck, 2023. This volume explores the creation and reception of Piranesi's three colossal neoclassical candelabra. Caroline Van Eck's study explores the intense interest taken by producers and consumers of art objects in objects that made the classical live again in the late 1700s and early 1800s.

Andrea Mantegna: Paintings in Close Up Roger Godfrey, 2015-01-06. Andrea Mantegna (1431–1506) is one of the foremost north Italian painters of the 15th century. A master of perspective and foreshortening, he made important contributions to the compositional techniques of Renaissance painting. Like other artists of the time, Mantegna experimented with perspective, e.g., by lowering the horizon in order to create a sense of greater monumentality. His flinty, metallic landscapes and somewhat stony figures give evidence of a fundamentally sculptural approach to painting. He also led a workshop that was the leading producer of prints in Venice before 1500.

A Masterpiece Close-up, 1981. Arnold Bocklin: Paintings in Close Up Carla Tagloff, 2015-01-06. Arnold Böcklin was a Swiss symbolist painter influenced by Romanticism. His painting is symbolist with mythological subjects often related with the Pre-Raphaelites. He depicts fantastical figures alongside classical buildings, frequently revealing an obsession with death, creating a strange fantasy world. Art critics have constantly found it not easy to categorize this original and eccentric artist. Böcklin hated giving titles to his pictures and declared that he painted in order to make people dream Just as it is poetry s task to express feelings painting must provoke them too A picture must give the spectator as much food for thought as a poem and must make the same kind of impression as a piece of music Edgar Degas: Paintings in Close Up Annabelle Thornhill,2015-01-06 Edgar Degas seems never to have reconciled himself to the label of Impressionist preferring to call himself a Realist or Independent Nevertheless he was one of the group s founders an organizer of its exhibitions and one of its most important core members Like the Impressionists he sought to capture fleeting moments in the flow of modern life yet he showed little interest in painting plain air landscapes favoring scenes in theaters and cafes illuminated by artificial light which he used to clarify the contours of his figures adhering to his Academic training He is especially identified with the subject of dance more than half of his works depict dancers He also was a superb draftsman and particularly masterful in depicting movement as can be seen in his interpretations of dancers and female nudes His portraits are notable for their psychological complexity and for their portrayal of human isolation Ready for My Close-up! Denny Martin Flinn,2007-11
