

Visions Of Love

I sit and think sometimes I would sink
What makes me see pink it is all the Things we had thought about and Breaking up kept popping out rising
Doubt and then you would shout why
Are you ignoring me I would drift
Searching for an uplift as my mind
Was scared stiff while tearing rifts

But inside you are spiff I would never Let you jump off that cliff remember
No slips but still tears begins to drip
You would always say I was your Haven
Tis you was Mine no matter what Life Throws at you the pain always hurt but sometimes not loving you always hurt
A tad worse as the inner-self disperse
It must have been our blessing and a Curse what was our relationship truly
Worth must have been girth lifting it

From the grounded dirt I valued you More than Life itself it is what you had

Always said I took it like a sack of grain Upheld it deep inside the brain between Both lanes of veins and Somehow it keeps Me sane your voice became in sync to the Head Now lets break bread somehow it Keeps me sane I wouldn't ever want our Love to die in vain so many times I have Hated Life but it provides insight now I

See the guiding Light taking flight I'm Scared of These heights as it changes
In front of me and this will always be the Setting Trends for the next centuries but Don't forget your soul is the key to its Centerpiece your heart never let it depart
As I drop on both knees hear my pleas
Don't ever let society erase what you Mean to me A best friend from the start
That became Life's greatest work of Art

Love Poems Love Life And Visions:

Innervisions Calvin Daniel, 2020-01-29 Innervisions as my good friend Karen wrote in June 2002 is a collection of heartfelt poems that reflect the visions of a man who has experienced life and influenced many. These poems are a collection of my most inner thoughts and feelings and love of God, family and country. Most of these poems were written during the period from 1974-1976 on little bits of paper which I carried with me for over forty years. Innervisions is a book of poetry and visions of life, love, nature, peace and friendship. I wish to dedicate this book to my mother Vera who was a tremendous influence on my entire life and the successes I have achieved. Thank you mama. Heart Visions and Realities: Poems of Hope, Love and Disappointment. Also "Burns," "Wellington," and "The Poet's Apology." By Junius, 1860

Love Visions Geoffrey Chaucer, 2006-05-25 Spanning Chaucer's working life, these four poems build on the medieval convention of love visions: poems inspired by dreams woven into rich allegories about the rituals and emotions of courtly love. In The Book of the Duchess, the most traditional of the four, the dreamer meets a widower who has loved and lost the perfect lady. The House of Fame describes a dream journey in which the poet meets with classical divinities. Witty, lively and playful, The Parliament of Birds details an encounter with the birds of the world in the Garden of Nature as they seek to meet their mates, while The Legend of Good Women sees Chaucer being censured by the God of Love and seeking to make amends for writing poems that depict unfaithful women. Together, the four create a marvellously witty, lively and humane self-portrait of the poet. W. B.

Yeats's a Vision Neil Mann, Matthew Gibson, Claire Nally, 2012 The first volume of essays devoted to W. B. Yeats's A Vision and the associated system developed by Yeats and his wife George. A Vision is all encompassing in its stated aims and scope and it invites a wide range of approaches as demonstrated in the essays collected here, written by the foremost scholars in the field. God's Spies: Michelangelo, Shakespeare and Other Poets of Vision Paul Murray OP, 2019-02-21 Written with both passion and precision, God's Spies is a work that will be welcomed by anyone interested in the vital interplay between poetry and religion. The authors represented, including poets such as Michelangelo, St Francis of Assisi, Charles P. Guy, Dante and Shakespeare, all possess one great and surprising quality in common: audacity. All of them in their work offer fresh and unforeseen perspectives on life and literature. Some of these authors are religious in the strict meaning of the word, their work indicating a devout turning away from the distractions of the world to focus on God. Others, in contrast, are poets whose work is distinguished by a remarkable visionary focus on the many small and great dramas of life, attending with bright, imaginative genius to what Shakespeare calls the mystery of things. Verse, Voice, and Vision Marlisa

Santos, 2013-09-26 Although it is a somewhat underrepresented form of literature, poetry finds relevance in the modern world through its appearance in cinema. Film adaptations of poems and depictions of poets on the screen date back to the silent era and continue to the present day. However, there have been few serious studies of how cinema has represented the world of poetic expression. In Verse, Voice, and Vision: Poetry and the Cinema, Marlisa Santos has compiled essays that explore the relationship between one of the world's oldest art forms poetry and one of the world's newest art forms film. The book is divided into three sections: poets on film, poetry as film, and film as poetry. Topics include analyses of poet biopics such as Mrs. Parker and the Vicious Circle, filmic representations of poets or poetic studies including Pyaasa, films inspired by particular poems such as Splendor in the Grass, and the avant-garde phenomenon of the poem film such as The Tree of Life. Poetic influences considered in this volume range from William Shakespeare to e.e. cummings, and the films discussed hail from several different countries including the U.S., the U.K., India, China, Italy, and Argentina. Featuring a great diversity in the age, genres, and countries of origin of the films, these essays provide an in-depth look at how poetry has been interpreted on film over the years. By addressing a heretofore unexamined aspect of film studies, Verse, Voice, and Vision will appeal to fans and scholars of both literature and cinema. Women in Medieval Europe Jennifer Ward, 2014-06-11

Women in Medieval Europe were expected to be submissive but such a broad picture ignores great areas of female experience. Between the thirteenth and fifteenth centuries, women are found in the workplace as well as the home, and some women were numbered among the key rulers, saints, and mystics of the medieval world. Opportunities and activities changed over time, and by 1500 the world of work was becoming increasingly restricted for women. Women of all social groups were primarily engaged with their families, looking after husbands and children and running the household. Patterns of work varied geographically. In the northern towns, women engaged in a wide range of crafts, with a small number becoming entrepreneurs. Many of the poor made a living as servants and labourers. Prostitution flourished in many medieval towns. Some women turned to the religious life, and here opportunities burgeoned in the thirteenth century. The Middle Ages are not remote from the twenty-first century; the lives of medieval women evoke a response today. The medieval mother faced similar problems to her modern counterpart. The sheer variety of women's experience in the later Middle Ages is fully brought out in this book.

The Evolution of Love Emil Lucka, 2020-11-17 Love is a theme which at all times and in all countries has been of primary interest to men and women, and therefore this book, which throws an illuminating ray of light in many a dark place still wrapped in mystery and silence, not only impresses the psychologist but also fascinates the general reader with its wealth of interesting detail and charm of expression. Ellie Schleussner. In The Evolution of Love 1922, the Austrian poet-philosopher Emil Lucka reveals his conception of the development of love and sex. In his revolutionary presentation of ideas, the author blends history, psychology, and philosophy to speculate that love is not a fundamental predisposition but evolved through historical changes. There are three distinct stages of the development of love that Lucka explores in this important work: Metaphysical Eroticism, the first, is the exploration of emotional climaxes and the sexual instinct. Moving from prehistoric man through the ideals of Greek love and to the spread of Christianity, he lays his foundation through the lens of history. The second stage is Love, which he again demonstrates its development through history, specifically the birth of European civilization. The third stage is the unity of sexual impulse and love, the evolution of the spiritual love of man for woman based on personality Finally Lucka delves into erotic aberrations exploring perversities of sex and love through the progress of history In Lucka s conclusion he looks at the realm of the spirit in the context of Ernst Haeckel s biogenetic law With an eye catching new cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of The Evolution of Love is both modern and readable

The Spiritual Vision of Frank Buchman Philip Boobbyer,2013-05-24 The Spiritual Vision of Frank Buchman is an in depth look at the life spirituality and ideology of one of the most original figures in twentieth century religion Frank Buchman 1878 1961 the Pennsylvania born initiator of the movement known as the Oxford Group and Moral Re Armament was a Lutheran pastor who first had influence as a college evangelist and missionary with the YMCA His thinking then evolved during the 1930s the Second World War and the early Cold War as he tried to develop a world philosophy that could offer an answer to war and materialism His impact was particularly felt in the areas of conflict resolution between nations and interfaith dialogue and Alcoholics Anonymous also owed much to his methods Philip Boobbyer s book is the first scholarly overview of Buchman s ideas and is an important addition to the growing corpus of academic literature on his worldwide outreach Boobbyer shows how his work reflected broader processes in twentieth century religion and politics and can be seen as a spiritual response to an emerging global society
