Love With A Few Hairs:

Love with a Few Hairs Mohammed Mrabet, 1968 This unusual novel is a story recounted by Mohammed Mrabet of Tangier to Paul Bowles who has translated it into his own inimitable prose Page 2 of cover Love with a Few Hairs, 2003

Tangier Richard Hamilton, 2019-06-27 In this first guide to Tangier's extraordinary cultural history former BBC North Africa correspondent Richard Hamilton explores the city to find out what has inspired so many international writers, artists and musicians. In Tangier the Moroccan novelist Mohamed Choukri wrote everything is surreal and everything is possible. In this intimate portrait Hamilton explores hotels, cafés, alleyways and the city's darkest secrets. Delving down through complex historical layers he finds a frontier town that is comic, confounding and haunted by the ghosts of its past. Samuel Pepys thought God should destroy Tangier and St Francis of Assisi called it a city of madness and delusions. Yet throughout the centuries it has also been a crucible of creativity. It was a turning point in Henri Matisse's artistic journey and had a profound impact on the founder of the Rolling Stones, Brian Jones. Tangier also produced two of the greatest American novels of the twentieth century, The Sheltering Sky and Naked Lunch. Besides Paul Bowles and William Burroughs, the book also looks at lesser-known characters such as the flawed genius Brion Gysin as well as Ibn Battuta who travelled three times further than Marco Polo. Featuring a thrilling cast of pirates, sultans, artists, musicians, writers, princes and playboys, this is an essential read about Tangier.

In Touch Paul Bowles, 2014-10-07 This extraordinary collection of correspondence by Paul Bowles spans eight decades and provides an evolving portrait of an artist renowned for his privacy. From his earliest extant letter written at the age of four to his precocious effusions to Aaron Copeland and to Gertrude Stein, from his meditations on mescaline as relayed to Ned Rorem to his intensely moving letters to Jane Bowles during her illness, In Touch fills in the lacunae left by previous biographers and offers a rare look at the many aspects of Bowles's brilliant career as composer, novelist, short story master, travel writer, translator, ethnographer and literary critic. Here is Bowles on the genesis of his first novel The Sheltering Sky, on his distaste for Western melodies and his dogged attempts to record indigenous Moroccan music on the Beats, Gore Vidal, Truman Capote and Tennessee Williams, on the nature and craft of writing, on Bernardo Bertolucci, David Byrne and Sting, on the decline of America and the challenges of living in North Africa. Gossipy, reflective, enlightening and always entertaining, In Touch stands as an epistolary autobiography of one of the legendary writers of our time and a unique chronicle of the twentieth-century avant-garde.

Tangier Josh Shoemaker, 2013-06-26 An edge city poised at the northernmost tip of Africa but just nine miles from Europe, Tangier is more than a destination; it is an escape. The Interzone, as William Burroughs called it, has attracted spies, outlaws, outcasts and writers for centuries, men and women.

breaking through artistic borders The results were some of the most incendiary and influential books of our time and the list of outlaw originals is long stretching from Ibn Battuta and Alexandre Dumas to Twain and Wharton and from the darkly brilliant Beats of Bowles Kerouac Gysin and Ginsberg to the great Moroccan novelists Mohamed Choukri Mohammed Mrabet and Tahar Ben Jelloun Love with a Few Hairs Peter Powell,1972 The Animals: Love Letters Between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy Christopher Isherwood,Don Bachardy,2014-05-13 The love story between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy in their own words Christopher Isherwood was the celebrated middle aged English author of Goodbye to Berlin when he met the Californian teenager Don Bachardy on a Santa Monica beach in 1952 Defying convention the two created an enduring relationship out of that initial spark living as an openly gay couple for more than three decades in the closeted world of Hollywood The Animals is the testimony in letters of their extraordinary partnership which lasted until Isherwood s death in 1986 despite a thirty year age gap affairs jealousies the pressures of literary fame and the disdain of twentieth century America for love between two men In romantic letters to each other they invented the private world of the Animals Chris was Dobbin a stubborn old workhorse Don was a rash spirited white kitten named Kitty The ability to create a world a safe and separate milieu was a great talent of Isherwood s and a necessary one as a gay man in mid twentieth century America But Isherwood knew how to spread hay around his stable and attract beauty He drew Bachardy into his semisecret realm and together they invented a place for their love to thrive Bold transgressive and playful The Animals shows us the devotion between two creative spirits in tenderness and storms Spanish Colonial Lives Linda Tigges,2016-01-21 On their return to New Mexico from El Paso after the 1680 Pueblo Revolt the New Mexican settlers were confronted with continuous raids by hostile Indians tribes disease and an inhospitable landscape In spite of this in the early and mid eighteenth century the New Mexicans went about their daily lives as best they could as shown in original documents from the time The documents show them making deals traveling around the countryside and to and from El Paso and Mexico City complaining about and arguing with each other holding festivals and making plans for the future of their children It also shows them interacting with the presidio soldiers the Franciscan friars and Inquisition officials El Paso and Chihuahua merchants the occasional Frenchman and their Pueblo Indian allies Because many of the documents include oral testimony we are able to read what they had to say sometimes angry asking for help or giving excuses for their behavior as written down by a scribe at the time This book includes fifty four original handwritten documents from the early and mid eighteenth century Most of the original documents are located in the Spanish Archives of New Mexico although some are from the Bancroft Library at the University of California at Berkeley the Archivo General de la Nacion in Mexico City and elsewhere They were selected for their description of Spanish Colonial life of interest to the many descendants of the characters that appear in them and because they tell a good story A translation and transcription of each document is included as well as a synopsis background notes and biographical notes They can be considered a companion in part to Ralph Emerson Twitchell s
