Comprising a close reading of Darwish's love poems coupled with many examples of novels and short stories from both Arabic and Hebrew fiction that deal with Arab Jewish love stories this book delves into the complexity of Arab Jewish relations and shows how romance can blossom across ethno religious lines and how politics all too often destroys it.

Destruction, Ethics, and Intergalactic Love Peter Admirand, 2022-12-30 Destruction Ethics and Intergalactic Love Exploring Y The Last Man and Saga offers a creative and accessible exploration of the two comic book series examining themes like nonviolence issues of gender and war heroes and moral failures forgiveness and seeking justice and the importance of diversity and religious pluralism. Through close interdisciplinary reading and personal narratives the author delves into the complex worlds of Y and Saga in search of an ethics meaning and a path resonant with real world struggles. Reading these works side by side the analysis draws parallels and seeks common themes around the four central ideas of seeking and making meaning in a meaningless world love and parenting through oppression and grief peacefulness when surrounded by violence and the perils and hopes of diversity and communion. This timely and thoughtful study will resonate with scholars and students of comic studies media and cultural studies philosophy theology literature psychology and popular culture studies.

Besieged Sharon Alker, Holly Faith Nelson, 2021-01-15 Siege literature has existed since antiquity but has not always been understood as a crucial element of culture. Focusing on its magnetic force Besieged brings to light its popularity and potency between the British Civil War and the Great Northern War in Europe a period in which literary texts reflected an urgent interest in siege mentality and tactics. Exploring the siege as represented in canonical works by Milton Dryden Defoe Davenant Cowley Cavendish and Bunyan alongside a wide array of little known memoirs plays poems and works of prose fiction on military and civilian experiences of siege warfare Besieged breaks new ground in the field of early modern war literature. Sharon Alker and Holly Faith Nelson draw on theories of space and place to show how early modern Britons feverishly worked to make sense of the immediacy horror and trauma of urban warfare offering a valuable perspective on the literature that captured the cultural imagination during and after the traumatic civil wars of the 1640s. Alker and Nelson demonstrate how the narratives of besieged cities became a compelling way to engage with the fragility of urban space unstable social structures developing technologies and the inadequacy of old heroic martial models. Given the reality of urban warfare in our own age Besieged provides a timely foundation for understanding the history of such spaces and their cultural representation.
