backward and violent in nature have dominated the cultural landscape An Imperialist Love Story contributes to the broader conversation about the legacy of orientalist representations of Arabs in Western popular culture Combining close readings of novels discursive analysis of blogs and forums and interviews with authors Jarmakani explores popular investments in the war on terror by examining the collisions between fantasy and reality in desert romances Focusing on issues of security freedom and liberal multiculturalism she foregrounds the role that desire plays in contemporary formations of U S imperialism Drawing on transnational feminist theory and cultural studies An Imperialist Love Story offers a radical reinterpretation of the war on terror demonstrating romance to be a powerful framework for understanding how it works and how it perseveres

Women Write Iran Nima

Naghibi,2016-05-01 Women Write Iran is the first full length study on life narratives by Iranian women in the diaspora Nima Naghibi investigates auto biographical narratives across genres including memoirs documentary films prison testimonials and graphic novels and finds that they are tied together by the experience of the 1979 Iranian revolution as a traumatic event and by a powerful nostalgia for an idealized past Naghibi is particularly interested in writing as both an expression of memory and an assertion of human rights She discovers that writing life narratives contributes to the larger enterprise of righting historical injustices By drawing on the empathy of the reader spectator witness Naghibi contends life narratives offer the possibilities of connecting to others and responding with an increased commitment to social justice The book opens with an examination of how the widely circulated video footage of the death of Neda Agha Soltan on the streets of Tehran in June 2009 triggered the articulation of life narratives by diasporic Iranians It concludes with a discussion of the prominent place of the 1979 revolution in these narratives Throughout the focus is on works that have become popular in the West such as Marjane Satrapi s best selling graphic novel Persepolis Naghibi addresses the significant questions raised by these works How do we engage with human rights and social justice as readers in the West How do these narratives draw our attention and elicit our empathic reactions And what is our responsibility as witnesses to trauma atrocity and human suffering
