Loving A Catholic Perspective On Vocational Lifestyle Choices:

Loving Michele M. McCarty, 1993 Loving Michele McCarty, 1993 Sex, Love, and Families Julie Hanlon Rubio, Jason Edward King, 2020-03-30 2021 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in theology 2021 Catholic Media Association Award first place award in marriage and family living Six years into the papacy of Pope Francis Catholics are still figuring out how to respond to his image of the church as a field hospital a church that goes into the streets rather than remaining locked up behind closed doors Marriage and family are primary sites of the field hospital called to meet people's need for healing and accompaniment with compassion and love The authors of this collection all lay a mix of single and married traditional and progressive Catholics take up this work They offer practical wisdom from and critical engagement with the Catholic tradition but avoid rehashing decades old theological debates Instead their essays engage with and respond to realities shaping contemporary family life like religious pluralism technology migration racism sex and gender incarceration consumerism and the call to holiness The result is a collection that envisions ways that families can be places of healing and love in and for the world Taking Sides: Clashing Views on Controversial Issues in Religion Daniel

Judd, 2002-11-26 This debate style reader introduces students to controversial issues in religion through paired pro and con articles on such issues as the existence of evil the doctrine of salvation abortion and cloning the theory of evolution justifications for war and the sanctity of the family For additional support for this title visit our student website www.dushkin.com online The Reality of Love Ingvild Rosok, 2018-01-12 Love is one and love is all we need This book argues against the traditional theological view that God's love differs from human love If God is love and love is one we will find God embodied in all kinds of genuine love experiences By analyzing Karl Rahner's theology of love the author explores how God penetrates and embraces the whole of reality suggesting implications for Christian spirituality and spiritual direction

Women and Religion in the West Sonya Sharma, 2016-02-11 What is the relationship between women and secularization In the West women are abandoning traditional religion Yet they continue to make up the majority of religious adherents Accounting for this seeming paradox is the focus of this volume If women undergird the foundations of religion but are leaving in large numbers why are they leaving Where are they going What are they doing And what's happening to those who remain Women and Religion in the West addresses a neglected yet crucial issue within the debate on religious belonging and departure the role of women in and out of religion and spirituality Beginning with an analysis of the relationship between gender and secularization the book moves its focus to in depth examination of women's experiences based on data from key recent qualitative work on women and religion This volume addresses not only women's place in and out of Christianity the normal focus of secularization theories but also alternative spiritualities and Islam asking how questions of secularization differ between faith systems This book offers students and scholars of religion sociology and women's studies as well as interested general readers an accessible work on the religiosity of western women and contributes fresh analyses of the
