Jesus My Valentine Henrietta Hunter, 2019-05-07 The greatest gift the world has is God s love for us The love God has for us precipitated God sending us Jesus to bring us back into a loving fellowship with him With all the hate evil and pain that exist in the world humanity cannot forget the power of love and the sovereignty of God God is love and since God is sovereign love still reigns not only in the hearts of men and women but in the heart of God and it is inextricably interwoven within our salvation story Our Christian salvific story is one of love it is a narrator of love We were made to love and made to be loved We were made in the image of God and God being love denotes we were made to love be loved and desire a relationship with those we love God desires a relationship with us because he loves us The love of the Father is manifested through the deeds of Jesus Christ in the Father s desired to be back in relationship with his creation The love God has for his creation must be dramatize and visualized in how we love one another and relate to those we love God s will need to be done on earth as it is in heaven Henrietta Hunter s

Jesus My Valentine explores how interconnected the love we experience in our personal lives i.e. romantically, platonically, to our love for God. She demonstrates this by outlining how the love and passion that the lover in Songs of Solomon possesses for his love is an extended analogy to God's love for us and how God's people ought to pursue him as their lover. Her work calls readers to experience God's love through the way we experience love with others reciprocally; the way readers experience love with one another is the same way readers are to experience being in love with God. Henrietta introduced the magnitude of love on a horizontal level which is eye level, a level a reader can grasp and then raise our spiritual conscious to above eye level which is a vertical love. Jesus My Valentine argues both are necessary to truly make Jesus our valentine. It is when Jesus become our valentine that we come to know true love and the true meaning of true love, realizing it is impossible for Jesus to be your valentine without the love of people and the people without Jesus being your valentine is not possible. Henrietta's journey within Jesus My Valentine takes us from the historicity of Valentine's Day to the evolution of how we contemporarily celebrate Valentine's Day. She matriculates from a historical view of Valentine's Day to a theological view of Valentine's Day, moving from an anthropocentric human view of love to a theocentric God view of love. Jesus My Valentine calls readers to replicate the wooing they extend on Valentines for their lovers to how readers approach and love on Jesus. Henrietta outlines how readers are to love Jesus and make him their valentine in very practical ways. If you asked Henrietta how to make Jesus your valentine, according to this text she would suggest it is like the way a wife knows her husband and the way a husband gets to know his wife. It is a love that comes from a knowledge that is only generated by living together by responding to each other's daily interests and by the needs and by listening and being present.

Love Addict Mark G. Boyer, Corbin S. Cole, Matthew S. Ver Miller, 2019-02-15

In Greek the language of the New Testament there are four words for love: agape, philia, storge, and eros, but no matter what the Greek word is, the English equivalent is always love. The most used Greek word for love in the NT is agape, the noblest word for self-sacrificial love. The second most used word for love in the NT is philia, brotherly or sisterly affectionate love between equals. The third word for love in Greek is storge, which refers to love that is based in one's nature such as the natural affection of parents toward children. The fourth Greek word for love is eros, which does not appear in the NT. It is the love of sexual passion, intimate love, and romantic love. Each entry in all six chapters of this book follows a five-part exercise: 1. title, 2. a short quotation from Scripture, 3. a two-paragraph reflection on the use of love in the quotation, 4. a journal meditation question to help the reader connect the reflection to his or her own life, and 5. a short prayer. The process is an exercise in spirituality that is the way one is in the divine's presence.

Delivered ... to the Children Attending the Aberdeen Gratis Sabbath Evening Schools Duncan GRANT (Minister of Alves.),1818 Then the Whisper Put On Flesh Prof. Brian K. Blount,2001-11-01 Devastating circumstances still enslave most African Americans in American society today especially in urban environments They struggle with economic devastation family disintegration black on black crime unemployment political and social injustice as well as the structural racism that fuels all of these In the midst of this horrible din there is a whisper from the Lord a faith statement upon which there can be established an ethic of transformation for an oppressed African American Christian community The whispers of faith hope and ethical direction that flow out of the New Testament materials have always taken their fleshly shape in light of the context in which African Americans have found themselves Blount studies selected New Testament texts and evaluates them in light of their first century contexts primarily from a socio linguistic perspective and then reads them through the eyes of the contemporary African American Christian This study analyzes the differences between the first century context which prompted the biblical writers to reflect ethically upon their faith statements as they did and the present reality of African Americans in the United States which motivates their Christian leaders to reflect upon these same statements in such radically different ways An example of a twentieth century ethical situation is Martin Luther King Jr s campaign of civil disobedience which appeared to be in direct contradiction to the ethical prescriptions in Romans 113 and 1 Peter 2 13 17 which mandate unqualified Christian obedience
