Loving Ourselves:

Loving Yourself Daphne Rose Kingma, 2004-04 Kingma shows how readers can start to love themselves through a simple four step process of speaking out of one's heart's desires acting out to meet them clearing out old patterns and setting out on a new path

Loving Yourself Sherrie Campbell PH.D., 2012-12-03 The purpose of this book is to set you free to be who you really are As you love who you are you will find that you move through life holding your head slightly high and your chest will be expanded and open for love and receiving Your neck will be long and lean your throat open showing you are always ready to share and relate You will know who you are and therefore will feel comfortable to be fully expressed You will no longer worry about what others think of you Why Because you love yourself flaws and all When you love your Self and have your boundaries in place there is not much that can take you off center for too long This book encourages you to shine in your own full expression in this beautiful life where you know you are loved just for being exactly who you are Loving

Love, Human and Divine Edward Collins Vacek,1994-04-01 Although the two great commandments to love God and to love our neighbors as ourselves are central to Christianity few theologians or spiritual writers have undertaken an extensive account of the meaning and forms of these loves Most accounts in fact make love of God and love of self either impossible or immoral Integrating these two commandments Edward Vacek SJ develops an original account of love as the theological foundation for Christian ethics Vacek criticizes common understandings of agape eros and philia examining the arguments of Aquinas Nygren Outka Rahner Scheler and other theologians and philosophers He defines love as an emotional affirmative participation in the beloved s real and ideal goodness and he extends this definition to the love between God and self Vacek proposes that the heart of Christian moral life is loving cooperation with God in a mutually perfecting friendship
