The Origins of the Modern State in Europe series arises from an important international research programme sponsored by the European Science Foundation The aim of the series which comprises seven volumes is to bring together specialists from different countries who reinterpret from a comparative European perspective different aspects of the formation of the state over the long period from the beginning of the thirteenth to the end of the eighteenth century One of the main achievements of the research programme has been to overcome the long established historiographical tendency to regard states mainly from the viewpoint of their twentieth century borders The modern European state defined by a continuous territory with a distinct borderline and complete external sovereignty by the monopoly of every kind of legitimate use of force and by a homogeneous mass of subjects each of whom has the same rights and duties is the outcome of a thousand years of shifting political power and developing notions of the state This major study sets out to examine the processes of state formation and the creation of power elites A team of leading European historians explores the dominant institutions and ideologies of the past and their role in the creation of the contemporary nation state How Can One Not be Interested in Belgian History Benno Barnard, 2005 As Belgian history addresses questions of identity and security of a sense of cohesion and common purpose or the lack thereof this volume tells you why Belgium does matter Doing Conversation Analysis Paul ten Have, 2007-09-25 This is the book for introducing and getting to grips with conversation analysis Accessible comprehensive and very applied Steven Wright Lancaster University A clearly written book It puts CA into perspective by presenting exemplary studies and differentiating CA from other approaches to discourse It is full of advice concerning the technicalities of recording transcription and analysis It will be most useful to my students Spiros Moschonas University of Athens The Second Edition of Paul ten Have's classic text Doing Conversation Analysis has been substantially revised to bring the book up to date with the many changes that have occurred in conversation analysis over recent years The book has a dual purpose to introduce the reader to conversation analysis CA as a specific research approach in the human sciences and to provide students and novice researchers with methodological and practical suggestions for actually doing CA research The first part of the book sets out the core theoretical concepts that underpin CA and relates these to other approaches to qualitative analysis The second and third parts detail the specifics of CA in its production of data recordings and transcripts and its analytic strategies The final part discusses ways in which CA can be applied in the study of specific institutional settings and for practical or critical purposes One Hundred Years of Masochism Michael C. Finke, Carl Niekerk, 2000 Just over a century has passed since the sexologist Richard von Krafft-Ebing coined the term masochism in a revised edition of his Psychopathia Sexualis 1890 Put into circulation as part of the fin de siècle process through which sexuality and sexual practices considered deviant became medicalized this suspicious concept grew in significance and explanatory power in the expanding new context of psychoanalytic discourse Today the study of masochism shows signs of becoming a discipline in its own right the political social and cultural ramifications of which exceed and indeed render problematic traditional psychoanalytic perspectives on the phenomenon The essays in this volume demonstrate however that the concept of masochism still offers a point of entry into psychoanalytic theory that while revealing a number of its most vexing insufficiencies and problematic constructions evokes also a sometimes surprising illuminative potential and capacity to adapt to changing social realities And as the volume s title is meant to suggest the authors represented here tend to agree that the continued rich viability of psychoanalytic theory in cultural analysis is best appreciated and ensured through engaging the theory s own social historical and cultural contexts The volume includes clinical perspectives on masochism and articles on medieval romance Goethe Sacher Masoch Krafft Ebing s Psychopathia Sexualis Turgenev Tolstoy Multatuli Fassbinder and masochism and postmodernism Structures and Assertions Thomas Allan Brady, Heiko Augustinus Oberman, James D. Tracy, 1993-12-31 Vol 1 Geographies of Tourism Julie Wilson, Salvador Anton Clave, 2013-11-26 Aims to map out the past and present of the tourism geographies sub discipline within and more importantly beyond the English language contributions and learn from the historical trajectories as well as experiences of tourism geographers working in different cultural and linguistic contexts How to Manage International Multidisciplinary Research Projects Hantrais, Linda, 2022-08-05 This insightful How to guide is expertly crafted to assist mid career academic and non academic researchers in preparing for new and innovative ways of working in international multidisciplinary environments
