My Life In Search Of Africa:

My Life in Search of Africa John Henrik Clarke, 1999 The author one of the foremost scholars on Africa fought to legitimise African history for more than 60 years This book finally uncovers the tumultuous life of this great figure Through a series of autobiographical essays Clarke looks back on his lifelong struggle to restore African history to its proper place in the context of world history My Life in Search of Africa John Henrik Clarke, 1994 My Life as an African Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2009-08-08 This is an autobiographical work covering a wide range of subjects including a number of major events relevant to Africa and the African diaspora Ex Africa: the Ten Stages of My Life from the Niger Delta to Nashville, Tennessee Mebenin Awipi, 2011-05-24 The book is about my experiences and observations at the various stages of my life including insightful commentary on race religion technology and politics in the USA and Nigeria Looking for Love in Strange Places: A Memoir for My Stepdaughters Diana Page, 2016-02-18 Back in 1968 Diana Page was going to graduate from the University of Michigan without much hope for marriage or a career She didn't have a boyfriend so a prospective husband was unlikely to materialize before the semester ended and a bachelor's in political science wasn't going to make her easily employable The solution Join the Peace Corps where she could help change the world and possibly meet a guy who shared her values Thus began Diana's adventures Her travels as a journalist and diplomat took her down the dangerous roads of Latin American history from the 1960s into the twenty first century With excerpts from diaries letters and news articles she weaves together a narrative of war and peace presidents and peasants but mostly of ordinary people who teach her about life She also runs into a few extraordinary people along the way Fidel Castro Isabel Peron Pele Jorge Luis Borges and Hilary Clinton among others Looking for Love in Strange Places A Memoir for My Stepdaughters is a hopeful humorous account of what happens when you seize the day without too many expectations for the future My Life in Nevada Politics Richard H. Bryan, John L. Smith, 2024-10-22 My Life in Nevada Politics tells the entertaining informative and at times poignant story of the rise of Richard Bryan from humble beginnings in Las Vegas to the pinnacle of Nevada politics during a time of great change across the state and nation Through his memoir Bryan provides keen insight into the mechanics of politics and the book serves as a must read for anyone interested in the history of the Silver State Born in Washington D C in 1937 Bryan grew up in Las Vegas His interest in politics started early winning school class elections and expressing a personal goal of one day becoming Governor of Nevada He was elected student body president at the University of Nevada His career in public service began as a deputy district attorney in Clark County In 1966 he became the first county public defender in state history Bryan served in the Nevada Legislature in both the Assembly and Senate before winning the statewide office of Attorney General in 1978 He was elected Nevada Governor in 1982 winning re election in 1986 Bryan was elected to the U S Senate in 1988 reelected in 1994 and served on the committees on Commerce Banking Taxation and Intelligence and chaired the Ethics Committee He retired from the Senate in 2001 and returned to Nevada Bryan's list of accomplishments is extensive He was largely responsible for the early call to arms in the fight against the Department of Energy s attempt to create a nuclear waste repository at Yucca Mountain As governor he reorganized state economic development programs improved environmental protections for Lake Tahoe and other threatened areas and made unprecedented appointments of women In the Senate Bryan authored the Southern Nevada Public Lands Management Act and the National Conservation Area for the High Rock Desert country He had a front row seat to the historic buildup to the Iraq War and the impeachment of President Bill Clinton In retirement Bryan continues to serve the state through his participation on a wide range of committees Throughout his political career Bryan with wife Bonnie at his side traversed Nevada from its tiniest hamlets to the metro areas of Reno and Las Vegas with unrivaled zeal in his efforts to represent the state s citizens He is famous for knowing thousands of his constituents not only by their first names but also recalling details of their lives The simple fact is while in service to Nevada Bryan was in his element in the place he loves best My Life in South Africa David Forbes,1938 My Life in Basuto Land Eugène Casalis,1889 The Days of My Life Henry Rider Haggard,1926 Riding in Africa Ian Williams,2005 Riding in Africa captures the escapades of more than twelve journeys to Africa Author Ian Williams offers sage if somewhat tongue in cheek advice on how to get from one end of an African horse safari to the other without killing yourself Read about African flora and fauna evolution history language the eccentricities of human character and above all the perspectives of a scientist adventurer who puts himself on life s edge Williams tells of succumbing to pneumonia in the foothills of Mount Kenya his experiences in a small African cottage hospital and later in the Nairobi Hospital part of which he spends in morphine induced delirium and part in the hospital room reserved for former Kenyan strong man Daniel arap Moi Williams also shares stories of adventures with horses and people while riding through the savannahs of Kenya the mountains of Malawi the swamps of Botswana the deserts of Namibia and the Lapalala Wilderness home to the fearsome black rhino Riding in Africa is about middle passages the leap from one side of fifty to the other and the fine line between life and death Africa in History Basil Davidson,1995-12 History of Africa tracing its inner growth and world wide significance that also includes recent changes in South Africa The Time of My Life Peter McNally,2013-03-12 Peter McNally enjoyed a boyhood of privilege and hard work growing up in a large and happy extended family during the war years in the safety of the Ulster countryside Public school back in England gave him a moral code and work ethic which stood him in good stead over the meteoric years that followed in business After qualifying as a chartered accountant at the age of 22 Peter found himself mixing with the powerful and wealthy and getting to know some of the leading players and businessmen of the day When the opportunity came to join the board of the newly created London Weekend Television as Finance Director Peter still only in his thirties seized it with both hands He became a senior member of the team that steered LWT to dramatic success in the 1970s eventually sharing in its financial fortunes which has enabled him in later life to enjoy many leisure hours salmon fishing shooting skiing and partying with a wide circle of friends MY

LIFE IN THE STRUGGLE FOR THE LIBERATION OF ZIMBABWE J M Mpofu, 2014-09-09 This is an elucidation of accumulation of personal experience within the context of socio cultural internalization in particular and the socio political environment in general that is intended to provide some insights into a plethora of ingredients that converged and crystallized into a catalytic impetus that socially transformed my generation from village boys to highly politicised freedom fighters during the 1960s to the 1970s in Rhodesia I have done this by tracing the footprints of my experience which show multiple stages and strands of cultural social political and physical determinants that landed themselves on my growth path starting from socialization in my parents home all the way through the local community traditions and schooling to active service for the freedom of my country at local and national levels Here the crucial elements that moulded my social being in a very profound way have been ventilated to show when and how I became able to distinguish antagonistic differences between justice and injustice at my very early age Proceeding from here I have brought out how I teamed up with others whose political outlook and aspirations were identical with mine as we all voluntarily joined anti colonial struggle starting from invisible low intensity activism in schools and towns up to risky adventures that finished up in armed struggle within a broad national perspective The narration further demonstrates the domesticity of the movements that championed liberation struggle as drivers were citizens who grew up in the rural villages and urban African Townships where they progressively became aware that they were born unlike their parents in a country under colonial administration In doing all this I had to spell out how my interaction with informative social vectors brought awareness on how my country Zimbabwe was colonized and governed by Europeans without the consent of the indigenous natives who showed their resentment to foreign rule by rebelling First Chimurenga within six years of colonization but failed only to succeed in the second rebellion Second Chimurenga after ninety years of racial domination Furthermore I believe I have laid bare how I became a civilian freedom fighter together with peers of my generation in the second rebellion where intolerable weight of oppression caused us to abandon nonviolent methods of struggle in favour of using arms of war to face a cobweb of security forces led by superb military machine of the colonial state wherein lay formidable challenges confronting rebelling citizens The armed struggle phase meant that fighters and their collaborators had to face those challenges in the theatre of operation Initially they exhibited more weaknesses than strengths and lost opportunities that were in the form of abundance of political support of masses of people in the country The overall process of the struggle exhibited strengths and costly weaknesses right from the civilian phase up to the armed struggle phase with or without my participation It was not until freedom fighters gained experience in planning and undertaking field operations that they became able to apply appropriate tactics that caused the struggle to gain sustainability in the theatre of operation More importantly the narration makes the point that the Rhodesian colonial system was presided over by European settler leaders who hardly recognized African citizens as entitled to participation in governance of the country with equal rights in social political economical and juridical spheres of societal setting of two main races Exclusion of African from consensus on the act of Unilateral Declaration of Independence UDI by Ian Douglas Smith was a fundamental blunder that precipitated nationwide fury that lead to a civil war in which a deprived citizen fought against a privileged citizen who was indoctrinated with falsehood that his adversary freedom fighter was sponsored by foreign powers of a communist type while the latter rightly believed that he was fighting to free his country from racially imposed injustices of deprivation More importantly the narration lays emphasis on the creation of massive political structures throughout the country well below the radar of legality for the purpose of sustaining guerrilla warfare in the face of the super professional Rhodesian security forces In this connection the final phase of armed struggle demonstrated to all at home and abroad that freedom fighters became significantly effective because they were politically rooted in the oppressed population whence came their strength against superior military hardware and a water tight counter insurgency strategy of the Rhodesian security forces Essentially it was that political strength not Communist powers or betrayal by the West which caused all stakeholders to become willing to come to a negotiating table at Lancaster House in Britain in 1979 to settle the armed conflict decisively Africa Study Bible, NLT John Jusu, 2017 The Africa Study Bible brings together 350 contributors from over 50 countries providing a unique African perspective It is an all in one course in biblical content theology history and culture with special attention to the African context Each feature was planned by African leaders to help readers grow strong in Jesus Christ by providing understanding and instruction on how to live a good and righteous life Publisher The Story of My Life / История моей жизни Махатма Карамчанд Ганди, 2024-03-14 PDF A4 Africa: What It Gave Me, What It Took from Me Margarethe von Eckenbrecher, 2015-05-28 Africa What It Gave Me What It Took from Me is a memoir of an extraordinary woman who as a newlywed travelled with her husband to German South West Africa a colony situated just above South Africa on the Atlantic coast Here they begin a farm in a quite remote area where they raise cattle sheep and goats and plant large gardens on the banks of the Omaruru River They build a comfortable home and welcome their first child As the von Eckenbrechers work hard to build their farm natives whose land has been appropriated by the colonial government are planning a revolt against colonial rule Insurrection begins and the von Eckenbrechers are in the midst of it all As the rebellion strengthens Frau von Eckenbrecher returns to Germany to wait out the insurrection Her husband eventually returns as well Frau von Eckenbrecher never feels completely at home again in Germany The von Eckenbrechers divorce and Frau von Eckenbrecher returns to South West Africa with her two sons Her former husband emigrates to Paraguay Frau von Eckenbrecher eventually takes a position in a German language school in Windhoek the capital city and rears her two sons there In her book she chronicles colonial life the natives of the colony how the Spanish Influenza pandemic raged in Namibia World War I in Africa German surrender and the South African occupation of German South West Africa and the eventual ceding of the colony to South Africa We bring the memoir to a close with an update of Frau von Eckenbrecher's later life and death and a short remembrance from one of her two grandsons My Life at Sea William Caius Crutchley,1912 Activating Arts to Understand Disability in Africa Charlotte Baker,Elvis Imafidon,Kobus Moolman,Emelda Ngufor Samba,2025-08-29 While Disability Studies has become more diversified in recent years contemporary debates still favour the Northern Hemisphere ignoring the lived experience of disabled people in much of the global South Few theoretical studies pay sufficient attention to the range of beliefs and attitudes towards disability in specific African contexts despite the fact that beliefs and explanations for disability permeate daily existence in sub Saharan African places and can have real consequences for persons with disabilities leading to stigmatisation marginalisation and even violence This volume is a timely intervention that seeks to address some of these imbalances and biases Through frank life writing evocative poetry and critical reflections on African arts and literatures the contributors highlight the urgent need for more culturally informed understandings of disability as a means by which to challenge existing explanations They examine the powerful role of different creative forms tools and methodologies in enhancing understandings of disability in African contexts Demonstrating the power of cultural representation in building sensitivity to the range of issues related to disability this book is of key relevance not just to scholars and students of disability studies African studies and sociology but to all who seek to advocate for social change The volume is a key outcome of the Disability and Inclusion Africa Network It is edited by Charlotte Baker Lancaster University UK Elvis Imafidon SOAS University of London UK Kobus Moolman University of the Western Cape South Africa and Emelda Ngufor Samba University of Yaound 1 Cameroon This Generation Leads: The Latest Leadership Ideas from South Africa Mike Teke,Muzi Kuzwayo,2022-03-01 This book was born out of an idea that I had during the period in which I spent time with several young people who had approached me to assist them in different ways including personal development career advancement and growth as well as growing their businesses and entrepreneurial acumen and skills I took the challenge but felt that more could be achieved hence this book The chapters in this book are written by each one of these young people They chose the topics guided by me and the plan was to simply convey a message from each one of them about leadership They did not do this for fame or to sell this book to make money but to share their ideas The topics covered in this book will appeal to different readers and some readers might find more lessons in one chapter or in more chapters than one I urge each one of you who read this book to pick one or a few lessons and share it with those you wish to make a difference to Mentorship of young people is critical but this does not mean that the mentors will provide handouts in the form of money People who wish to grow are not interested in money they are interested in a piece of your generous heart Mike Teke My Life's Journey Dell Wright,2005-07-11 In pursuit of an affordable opportunity to travel and see the world and meet with the native people of these various foreign countries the book tells of how the writer was able to make contact with natives in their homeland see and learn of their daily typical lifestyle and simultaneously assist the United States Government with achieving some of its national goals and national prides The book as its story unfolds tells how the writer accomplishes his twofold interest as he joined and became a solid force amongst his technical team providing his technical expertise to some of this countries largest leading edge technology defense contractors The book tells the story how the writer joined with highly trained and skilled engineers scientists and technicians and shared his technical work experience and technical skills with these respectable trained professionals on some of NASA s highly publicized space explorations and missions programs Dell Wright has traveled to such exotic places as Hong Kong China Singapore Bangkok Thailand Taiwan Nigeria Kenya Africa Saudi Arabia Morocco Jordan Ecuador S A Bogota Columbia S A England Germany Amsterdam Mahe Seychelles Island and more
