Rancière, 2016-06-07 The development of Rancière's philosophical work from his formative years through the political and methodological break with Louis Althusser and the lessons of May 68 is documented here as are the confrontations with other thinkers the controversies and occasional misunderstandings So too are the unity of his work and the distinctive style of his thinking despite the frequent disconnect between politics and aesthetics and the subterranean movement between categories and works Lastly one sees his view of our age and of our age's many different and competing realities What we gain in the end is a rich and multi layered portrait of a life and a body of thought dedicated to the exercise of philosophy and to the emergence of possible new worlds A Cinema of Poetry Joseph Luzzi, 2016-03-30 A Cinema of Poetry brings Italian film studies into dialogue with fields outside its usual purview by showing how films can contribute to our understanding of aesthetic questions that stretch back to Homer Joseph Luzzi considers the relation between film and literature especially the cinematic adaptation of literary sources and more generally the fields of rhetoric media studies and modern Italian culture The book balances theoretical inquiry with close readings of films by the masters of Italian cinema Roberto Rossellini Vittorio De Sica Luchino Visconti Michelangelo Antonioni Federico Fellini Pier Paolo Pasolini Bernardo Bertolucci and others Luzzi's study is the first to show how Italian filmmakers address such crucial aesthetic issues as the nature of the chorus the relation between symbol and allegory the literary prehistory of montage and the place of poetry in cinematic expression what Pasolini called the cinema of poetry While Luzzi establishes how certain qualities of film its link with technological processes capacity for mass distribution synthetic virtues and vices as the so called total art have reshaped centuries long debates A Cinema of Poetry also explores what is specific to the Italian art film and more broadly Italian cinematic history In other words what makes this version of the art film recognizably Italian A thought provoking and well written investigation of the role of history and realism in Italian cinema and the role played by the centuries long tradition of poetry or more precisely poesis in this quest H Italy Ambitious inventive learned A Cinema of Poetry brilliantly analyzes the art in the art film by showing how Italian cinema uses a chorus or expresses itself through allegory This impressively intelligent re description of the tradition surely takes its place alongside other necessary histories of Italian cinema Choice Joseph Luzzi is a professor of comparative literature at Bard College He is the author of Romantic Europe and The Ghost of Italy which received the MLA's Scaglione
