Security Education NSE is fundamental for instilling an innovative mindset and developing the critical thinking skills required of senior civilian and military leaders as part of whole of government development With relevant coherent and rigorous security education systems governments can strengthen the ability of senior leaders to think and react strategically when faced with threats helping them to operate effectively as part of government wide efforts to support national security Transformative international events from regional and global security trends and transnational threats to destabilizing factors such as terrorism the so called Arab Spring climate change and energy security all drive changes to National Security Education and the ways in which it is delivered Additionally as quality NSE is dependent on excellent education techniques to facilitate adult learning the latest developments in education must be continuously monitored and validated for their potential inclusion as NSE enhancements From the highest national levels there must be clarity of direction for NSE institutions particularly ensuring linkages between academic theory and practical lessons to ensure real world relevance This book critically examines the role of NSE in an ever more complex world Following on from an in depth discussion of some of the main concepts underpinning National Security Education the book then offers case studies from some of the best NSE institutions regionally and internationally These help to illuminate best practices in order to present recommendations for the successful development of the next generation of leaders so that they can confidently address complex challenges now and in the future

Conflict Management and “Whole of Government”: Useful Tools for U.S. National Security Strategy (Enlarged Edition) Volker C. Franke, Robert H. Dorff, Strategic Studies Institute, 2013-05-20 Today America faces security challenges that are exceedingly dynamic and complex in part because of the ever changing mix and number of actors involved and the pace with which the strategic and operational environments change To meet these new challenges more effectively the Obama administration advocated strengthening civilian instruments of national power and enhancing America's whole of government WOG capabilities Although the need for comprehensive integration and coordination of civilian and military governmental and nongovernmental national and international capabilities to improve efficiency and effectiveness of post conflict stabilization and peacebuilding efforts is widely recognized Washington has been criticized for its attempts at creating WOG responses to international crises and conflicts for overcommitment of resources lack of sufficient funding and personnel competition between agencies ambiguous mission objectives

Transformation Concepts for National Security in the 21st Century, 2002 This book represents some of the thinking by students at the U S Army War College considering the nature and direction of transformation They consider how the transformed joint services of the United States should employ force in the 21st century The services are exploring concepts such as Effects Based Operations and Rapid Decisive Operations to move swiftly and strike vigorously to secure victory in the coming decades At the same time the nation and its armed forces are developing new concepts of homeland security to defend the country in the war on terrorism Officers who participated in the Advanced Strategic Art Program ASAP during Academic Year 2002 wrote the individual
