Native American Women Writers:

Sister Nations Heid E. Erdrich, Laura Tohe, 2010-06 This anthology of fiction prose and poetry celebrates the rich diversity of writing by Native American women today Editors Heid E Erdrich and Laura Tohe have gathered stories from across the nation that celebrate record and explore Native American women's roles in community The result is a rich tapestry that contains work by established writers along with emerging and first time authors Contributors include Louise Erdrich Joy Harjo Diane Glancy Elizabeth Cook Lynn Allison Hedge Coke LeAnne Howe Roberta Hill Kim Blaaser Linda LeGarde Grover with a foreword by Winona LaDuke The writings included range from the personal to the political from notions of romantic love to the realities of marriage from finding a place in modern society to incorporating tradition in daily life Whether it's Louise Erdrich's heartbreaking story The Shawl Diane Glancy's tightly distilled poems or Joy Harjo's elegant and fanciful How to Get to Planet Venus all of these works explore both what it means to be a woman and how those realities are complicated by the Native American experience The editors have divided these lively and thought provoking pieces into four sections Changing Women which deals with the stages of a woman's life awareness of female ancestors and women's traditions of healing and making art Strong Hearts which shows Indian women enduring with love defending with fierce judgment and reaching out across history to protect the people New Age Pocahontas which reveals the humor and complexity of stereotypes and simplified images of Native American women and In the Arms of the Skies which explores the ways in which typical notions about romantic love and marriage are put to the test Sister Nations also includes full biographies of all the contributors commentary from many of the authors on their work and a bibliography of relevant publications

Native American Women's Writing Karen L. Kilcup, 1991-01-16 This ground breaking anthology establishes the tradition of early Native American women's writing within American literature and American women's history With a regionally diverse group of writers this richly interwoven collection explores in depth the work of well known figures such as Pauline Johnson Sarah Winnemucca and Zitkala-é as well as less familiar writers such as Narcissa Owen Buffalo Bird Woman Mary Jemison Ora Eddleman Reed Sophia Alice Callahan Owl Woman and Annette Leavitt Stannard Anonymously authored women's texts are also included along with writing by children and young adults Karen Kilcup challenges traditional mainstream notions of what constitutes literature including political historical and autobiographical writing alongside more familiarly aesthetic forms like romantic poetry short fiction and spiritual literature As well as representing traditional oral narratives the collection invites readers to hear the translation of orality into written forms Brief headnotes outline the writers' lives and indicate connections between and among the writers The volume also includes brief bibliographies of primary and secondary materials for each writer A key text for the classroom Native American Women's Writing An Anthology c 1800 1924 offers an inviting wealth of newly discovered material for scholars and general readers alike

Allen Maria Campbell Mourning Dove Louise Erdrich Joy Harjo Linda Hogan Emily Pauline Johnson Wendy Rose Leslie Marmon Silko Sarah Winnemucca Native American Women Writers Wilma L. Cabanas, 2005 The purpose of this master's project was to identify the challenges that Native American women face in developing a writing career and to gain insight and knowledge from the Native women authors I selected to develop and expand my writing skills The project contains a general overview of women writers in general a synopsis on Native American women specifically and detailed background information on three Native American authors The final pages are a selection of my stories and poems with a reflection on my reading and writing process A to Z of American Women Writers Carol Kort, 2014-05-14 Presents a biographical dictionary profiling important women authors including birth and death dates accomplishments and bibliography of each author's work Antebellum American Women Writers and the Road Susan L.

Roberson, 2012-07-26 A study of American women's narratives of mobility and travel this book examines how geographic movement opened up other movements or mobilities for antebellum women at a time of great national expansion Concerned with issues of personal and national identity the study demonstrates how women not only went out on the open road but participated in public discussions of nationhood in the texts they wrote Roberson examines a variety of narratives and subjects including not only traditional travel narratives of voyages to the West or to foreign locales but also the ways travel and movement figured in autobiography spiritual and political narratives and domestic novels by women as they constructed their own politics of mobility These narratives by such women as Margaret Fuller Susan Warner and Harriet Beecher Stowe destabilize the male dominated stories of American travel and nation building as women claimed the public road as a domain in which they belonged bringing with them their own ideas about mobility self and nation The many women's stories of mobility also destabilize a singular view of women's history and broaden our outlook on geographic movement and its repercussions for other movements Looking at texts not usually labeled travel writing like the domestic novel brings to light social relations enacted on the road and the relation between story location and mobility "The Original in Ourselves"

Andrea Millenson Penner, 2001 American Women Writers of the 19th Century Heidi M. Hanrahan, 2025-03-17 The nineteenth century was a period of prolific literary production from women writers including figures such as Louisa May Alcott Harriet Jacobs and Zitkala a who played pivotal roles in American literary history Despite facing societal forces aimed at silencing them women writers found ways to assert their voices and contribute to the intellectual and political debates of the era Their works contribute to conversations on a wide range of topics including art gender social reform slavery abolition economic and social inequality national expansion Native American dispossession and the changing identity of the nation Both retrospective and forward looking their written works found diverse audiences of men women and children This book functions as a comprehensive guide to understanding the breadth of nineteenth century women's writing exploring not only the writers and their texts but also the literary periods genres and key cultural historical and social movements that shaped their works By examining these authors impact on American literary traditions and their role in cultural discourse it highlights the lasting relevance of their work in both historical and contemporary contexts Through the Eye of the Deer Carolyn Dunn Anderson,Carol Comfort,1999 Poetry Fiction Native American Studies By bringing together the voices of Native American women writers across time regions and tribes this collection makes visible a dynamic tradition of women s wisdom and storytelling From early legends to present day fiction and poetry this tradition emphasizes women s spiritual connection to the natural world and their contributions to tribal and familial community Central to women s strength is the role of animal figures Coyote Owl Beaver and Bear who act as guides helpers and personal totems appearing unexpectedly in the modern urban landscape as well as being a constant presence in nature The work of more than forty authors appears in this volume representing tribes and regions extending over most of the U S and parts of Canada Among the authors included are Louise Erdrich Joy Harjo Leslie Marmon Silko Paula Gunn Allen Linda Hogan and Beth Brant along with writers whose work appears here for the first time THROUGH THE EYE OF THE DEER is far more than a wonderful book to read it is a guidebook to life in the multiple world we really live in It tells us of the many places the path of the sacred takes us how to act when we get there the dangers we will encounter and how to get home Paula Gunn Allen
