and Data Mining

The background of the book cover is a vibrant, abstract design. It features a central point from which numerous thin, radiating lines of light emerge, creating a starburst or 'data explosion' effect. The lines are primarily in shades of purple, magenta, and pink, with a bright yellow-white core at the center. Overlaid on this background are concentric rings and scattered patterns of binary code (0s and 1s) in a light, translucent font, giving the impression of digital data being processed or transmitted.
