Optimising New Modes of Assessment: In Search of Qualities and Standards Mien Segers, F. Dochy, E. Cascallar, 2006-04-11

This is an essential book for all those concerned with the field of assessment. It addresses relevant and timely conceptual and practical issues from a research perspective and based on research results clearly provides solutions to practical applications at the cutting edge of the emerging area of new modes of assessment. In a clear and rigorous manner the authors explore new methods and study the various quality aspects of innovative approaches. 7th International Conference on University Learning and Teaching (InCULT 2014) Proceedings Chan Yuen Fook, Gurnam Kaur Sidhu, Suthagar Narasuman, Lee Lai Fong, Shireena Basree Abdul Rahman, 2015-12-30 The book comprises papers presented at the 7th International Conference on University Learning and Teaching InCULT 2014 which was hosted by the Asian Centre for Research on University Learning and Teaching ACRULET located at the Faculty of Education Universiti Teknologi MARA Shah Alam Malaysia. It was co-hosted by the University of Hertfordshire UK, the University of South Australia, the University of Ohio USA, Taylor's University Malaysia and the Training Academy for Higher Education AKEPT Ministry of Education Malaysia. A total of 165 papers were presented by speakers from around the world based on the theme 'Educate to Innovate in the 21st Century'. The papers in this timely book cover the latest developments, issues and concerns in the field of teaching and learning and provide a valuable reference resource on university teaching and learning for lecturers, educators, researchers and policy makers. Balancing Dilemmas in Assessment and Learning in Contemporary Education Anton Havnes, Liz McDowell, 2007-11-21 This book focuses on dilemmas inherent in the practice of assessment in the contemporary context. New forms of assessment are being introduced in all sectors of education and training and the culture of assessment is shifting. The authors in this volume discuss the practice of assessment, reporting empirical research on modes of assessment within a variety of educational contexts while also addressing conceptual and theoretical aspects of assessment. Though most publications on assessment do not go beyond one sector or phase of education and only consider assessment in one national context, this volume is cross-sectoral and international in scope. This groundbreaking book illustrates the conceptual and practical dilemmas of assessment and raises issues that are relevant and applicable across a variety of modes of assessment and across various contexts where assessment takes place. The Cambridge Handbook of Instructional Feedback Anastasiya A. Lipnevich, Jeffrey K.

Smith, 2018-11-15 This book brings together leading scholars from around the world to provide their most influential thinking on instructional feedback The chapters range from academic in depth reviews of the research on instructional feedback to a case study on how feedback altered the life course of one author Furthermore it features critical subject areas including mathematics science music and even animal training and focuses on working at various developmental levels of learners The affective non cognitive aspects of feedback are also targeted such as how learners react emotionally to receiving feedback The exploration of the theoretical underpinnings of how feedback changes the course of instruction leads to practical advice on how to give such feedback effectively in a variety of diverse contexts Anyone interested in researching instructional feedback or providing it in their class or course will discover why when and where instructional feedback is effective and how best to provide it Innovative Practices for Higher Education Assessment and Measurement Cano, Elena, Ion,

Georgeta, 2016-07-18 Both educators and their students are involved in the process of assessment all parties are expected to meet and exceed expectations in the face of competing conditions New practices are being developed to enhance students participation especially in their own assessment be it through peer review reflective assessment the introduction of new technologies or other novel solutions Though widely researched few have measured these innovations effectiveness in terms of satisfaction perceived learning or performance improvements Innovative Practices for Higher Education Assessment and Measurement bridges the gap between political discourse theoretical approach and teaching practices in terms of assessment in higher education Bringing new insights and presenting novel strategies this publication brings forth a new perception of the importance of assessment and offers a set of successful innovative practices This book is ideal for educators administrators policy makers and students of education Assessment for Learning Within and Beyond the Classroom

Siew Fun Tang, Loshinikarasi Logonnathan, 2016-06-29 These conference proceedings focus on Assessment for Learning Within and Beyond the Classroom in recognition of the power of assessment for learning as a way of boosting student performance They explore the breadth depth and quality of the best models and practices strategies lessons learnt and discuss cases of successful implementation of assessment within the classroom and beyond including the virtual space They also provide fertile ground for stimulating and comparing responsive assessment approaches and practices in relatively new areas of assessment such as graduate capability assessment in view of the need for educational institutions to evidence graduate employability Reconceptualising Feedback in Higher Education Stephen Merry, Margaret Price, David

Carless, Maddalena Taras, 2013-07-18 Feedback is a crucial element of teaching learning and assessment There is however substantial evidence that staff and students are dissatisfied with it and there is growing impetus for change Student Surveys have indicated that feedback is one of the most problematic aspects of the student experience and so particularly in need of further scrutiny Current practices waste both student learning potential and staff resources Up until now the ways of addressing these problems has been through relatively minor interventions based on the established model of feedback providing information but the change that is required is more fundamental and far reaching Reconceptualising Feedback in Higher Education coming from a think tank composed of specialist expertise in assessment feedback is a direct and more fundamental response to the impetus for change. Its purpose is to challenge established beliefs and practices through critical evaluation of evidence and discussion of the renewal of current feedback practices. In promoting a new conceptualisation and a repositioning of assessment feedback within an enhanced and more coherent paradigm of student learning, this book analyses the current issues in feedback practice and their implications for student learning, identifies the key characteristics of effective feedback practices, explores the changes needed to feedback practice and how they can be brought about, illustrates through examples how processes to promote and sustain effective feedback practices can be embedded in modern mass higher education. Provoking academics to think afresh about the way they conceptualise and utilise feedback, this book will help those with responsibility for strategic development of assessment at an institutional level: educational developers, course management teams, researchers, tutors and student representatives.

SAGE Handbook of Research on Classroom Assessment James H. McMillan, 2013. The Sage Handbook of Research on Classroom Assessment provides scholars, professors, graduate students and other researchers and policy makers in the organizations, agencies, testing companies and school districts with a comprehensive source of research on all aspects of K-12 classroom assessment. The handbook emphasizes theory, conceptual frameworks and all varieties of research: quantitative, qualitative, mixed methods, to provide an in-depth understanding of the knowledge base in each area of classroom assessment and how to conduct inquiry in the area. It presents classroom assessment research to convey in depth the state of knowledge and understanding that is represented by the research, with particular emphasis on how classroom assessment practices affect student achievement and teacher behavior. Editor James H. McMillan and five Associate Editors bring the best thinking and analysis from leading classroom assessment researchers on the nature of the research making significant contributions to this prominent and hotly debated topic in education.

Handbook of Research on Creative Problem-Solving Skill Development in Higher Education Zhou, Chunfang, 2016-09-21. Developing students' creative problem-solving skills is paramount to today's teachers due to the exponentially growing demand for cognitive plasticity and critical thinking in the workforce. In today's knowledge economy, workers must be able to participate in creative dialogue and complex problem-solving. This has prompted institutions of higher education to implement new pedagogical methods such as problem-based and case-based education. The Handbook of Research on Creative Problem-Solving Skill Development in Higher Education is an essential, comprehensive collection of the newest research in higher education, creativity, problem-solving and pedagogical design. It provides the framework for further research opportunities in these dynamic, necessary fields. Featuring work regarding problem-oriented curriculum and its applications and challenges, this book is essential for policy makers, teachers, researchers, administrators, students of education.
