New Directions in Advertising Rhetoric* Edward F. McQuarrie, Barbara J. Phillips, 2008 Rhetorical scholarship has found rich source material in the disciplines of advertising communications research and consumer behavior Advertising considered as a kind of communication is distinguished by its focus on causing action Its goal is not simply to communicate ideas educate or persuade but to move a prospect closer to a purchase The editors of Go Figure New Directions in Advertising Rhetoric have been involved in developing the scholarship of advertising rhetoric for many years In this volume they have assembled the most current and authoritative new perspectives on this topic The chapter authors all present previously unpublished concepts that represent advances beyond what is already known about advertising rhetoric In the opening and closing chapters editors Ed McQuarrie and Barbara Phillips provide an integrative view of the current state of the art in advertising rhetoric Five Chapters on Rhetoric Michael S. Kochin, 2015-10-27 Michael Kochin's radical exploration of rhetoric is built around five fundamental concepts that illuminate how rhetoric functions in the public sphere To speak persuasively is to bring new things into existence to create a political movement out of a crowd or an army out of a mob Five Chapters on Rhetoric explores our path to things through our judgments of character and action It shows how speech and writing are used to defend the fabric of social life from things or facts Finally Kochin shows how the art of rhetoric aids us in clarifying things when we speak to communicate and helps protect us from their terrible clarity when we speak to maintain our connections to others Kochin weaves together rhetorical criticism classical rhetoric science studies public relations and political communication into a compelling overview both of persuasive strategies in contemporary politics and of the nature and scope of rhetorical studies Methods of Rhetorical Criticism Bernard L.
