Oral Communication C. Irvin Parmenter, John E. Tapia, 1996      Transportation Corps Professional Bulletin, 1989      The Development of Oral Communication in the Classroom Gerald M. Phillips, 1970      Resources in Education, 1998      The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 25 Jerome A. Winer, 2021-02-25 Volume 25 of The Annual is dedicated to the memory of Michael Franz Basch who achieved distinction as both a psychoanalytic theorist of the first rank and an authority on the nature and conduct of dynamic psychotherapy A wide range of original contributions bear witness to his theoretical clinical and educational interests A number of papers remind us of Basch's prominence as a self psychological theorist Elson's self psychological reappraisal of self pity dependence and manipulation as self states Ornstein's developmental perspective on power self esteem and destructive aggression Tolpin's review of sexuality from the standpoint of normal self development and Wolf's discussion of self psychology and the aging self Basch's life long educational concerns gain expression in Goldberg's discussion of clinical teaching particularly the challenge of leading of case conferences and Ornstein's and Kay's thoughtful consideration of enduring difficulties in American medical education Additional highlights of the volume include Fawcett's consideration of the role of pharmacotherapy in psychodynamic treatment Jaffe's consideration of the applicability of hierarchical models to assessment and intervention in brief psychotherapy Galatzer Levy's review of the witch metapsychology Gedo's analysis of mythic themes in the operas Don Giovanni and Der Rosenkavalier Modell's reflections on metaphor and affects and Kernberg's discussion of a new psychoanalytic mainstream which he compares and contrasts with a parallel convergence of Kohutian and interpersonal analytic approaches Many of these contributions incorporate reflections on Basch as a teacher and colleague and the entire volume is framed by Goldberg's moving tribute Analysts and psychotherapists sharing Basch's commitment to academic and clinical excellence and his keen awareness of the pragmatic requirements of doing effective therapy will find in Volume 25 a cornucopia of riches      Motivation to Learn Multiple Languages in Japan Chika Takahashi, 2022-11-22 This book provides rare insights into motivation among extremely successful learners of English and languages other than English LOTEs through the analysis of a longitudinal study and the examination of the factors involved in becoming multilingual in a non multilingual environment Based on sixteen interview sessions conducted over the course of nine years while the learners progressed from high school to the world of work this book offers the story of how two learners persist in English LOTE learning The study illuminates the long term processes through which the interviewees develop ideal English LOTE selves in an environment where multilingualism is not emphasized and where both English and LOTEs can still be described as foreign languages Educators and researchers will learn from this study which stretches our understanding of motivation beyond the recent theorizing of L2 motivation and contributes to the limited research in long term motivational trajectories and LOTE learning motivation which is particularly scarce in non European contexts The book will be of interest not only to readers in Japan but also to those in other contexts

as it offers an example of successful learners who go beyond the pragmatic and instrumentalist view of language learning to hold a more holistic view thus revealing the factors which can sustain multiple language learning even in foreign language contexts

Leveraging Mobile Media Valerie Feldmann, 2006-03-30 Mobile communications and next generation wireless networks emerge as new distribution channels for the media This development offers exciting new opportunities for media companies the mobile communication system creates new usage contexts for media content and services the social use of mobile communications suggests that identity representation in social networks impulsive access to trusted media brands and micro coordination emerge as new sources of value creation in the media industries In the light of this background this book takes two different viewpoints on the development of mobile media from a competitive strategy point of view it analyzes the extension of cross media strategies and the emergence of cross network strategies from a public policy point of view it develops demands and requirements for an innovation policy that fosters innovation in mobile media markets

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence Janet M. Bennett, 2015-03-23 In 1980 SAGE published Geert Hofstede's Culture's Consequences It opens with a quote from Blaise Pascal There are truths on this side of the Pyrenees that are falsehoods on the other The book became a classic one of the most cited sources in the Social Science Citation Index and subsequently appeared in a second edition in 2001 This new SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence picks up on themes explored in that book Cultural competence refers to the set of attitudes practices and policies that enables a person or agency to work well with people from differing cultural groups Other related terms include cultural sensitivity transcultural skills diversity competence and multicultural expertise What defines a culture What barriers might block successful communication between individuals or agencies of differing cultures How can those barriers be understood and navigated to enhance intercultural communication and understanding These questions and more are explained within the pages of this new reference work Key Features 300 to 350 entries organized in A to Z fashion in two volumes Signed entries that conclude with Cross References and Suggestions for Further Readings Thematic Reader's Guide in the front matter grouping related entries by broad topic areas Chronology that provides a historical perspective of the development of cultural competence as a discrete field of study Resources appendix and a comprehensive Index The SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural Competence is an authoritative and rigorous source on intercultural competence and related issues making it a must have reference for all academic libraries

Army AL & T, 2001 Communicating Across Cultures, First Edition Stella Ting-Toomey, 2012-04-11 From high level business negotiations to casual conversations among friends every interpersonal interaction is shaped by cultural norms and expectations Seldom is this more clearly brought to light than in encounters between people from different cultural backgrounds when dissimilar communication practices may lead to frustration and misunderstanding This thought provoking text presents a new framework for understanding the impact of culture on communication and for helping students build intercultural communication competence With illustrative examples from around the globe the book shows that verbal and nonverbal communication involves much more than transmitting a particular message it also reflects each participant's self image group identifications and values and privacy and relational needs Readers learn to move effectively and appropriately through a wide range of transcultural situations by combining culture specific knowledge with mindful listening and communication skills Throughout helpful tables and charts and easy to follow guidelines for putting concepts into practice enhance the book's utility for students

Teacher Emotions as Personal and Professional Development in Applied Linguistics Mohammad N. Karimi, Luis Javier Pentón Herrera, Behzad Mansouri, 2025-07-08 Previously most studies in this area have focused on the reciprocal effects of language teachers' emotions identity well being and agency with emotions often being portrayed as consequential entities However this book advances the field by exploring specifically how language teacher emotions can be used as tools for personal and professional development The authors provide empirical theoretical conceptual and practical contributions which demonstrate how emotional responses provide data that can be analyzed and reflected upon and how emotions can be seen not as occurrences that are suffered but as actions judgments choices responsibilities and data that can be used to improve personal growth and professional lives The chapters shed light on the potential of emotions as tools for teachers' personal and professional development such as but not limited to emotional literacy emotional intelligence emotional agility and regulation emotional memory and self exploratory and self reflective inquiries
