Oral Narrative Research With Black Women Collecting Treasures:

Oral Narrative Research with Black Women Kim Marie Vaz, 1997-06-17 This book consists of essays on methodological issues by African and African American women scholars who have successfully employed oral narrative methods in their research. Some themes covered in these essays are the strengths of oral narrative research for expanding and transforming knowledge about black women and how these scholars learned to conduct oral narrative research, descriptions of the types of narratives they have gathered, the difficulties they have encountered and how these were overcome, and the ethical dilemmas faced while undertaking their research endeavors. What makes this book a valuable teaching tool are the pedagogical suggestions and research artifacts contained within. Contributors have described one or two activities that may assist instructors' efforts to teach oral narrative methodologies. Methodological essays about the phenomenological and empirical aspects of carrying out oral narrative research from an Afrofeminist womanist standpoint are rare, and book-length works are almost nonexistent. Oral Narrative Research with black women participates in the growing movement of Afrofeminist womanist scholarship that fills this void. This is an insightful, thought-provoking resource for researchers, students, and scholars interested in conducting qualitative research or who want to include black women in their research.

Sistuh in the Struggle La Donna Forsgren, 2020-10-15 Outstanding Academic Title CHOICE The first oral history to fully explore the contributions of black women intellectuals to the Black Arts Movement Sistuh in the Struggle reclaims a vital yet under researched chapter in African American women s and theater history This groundbreaking study documents how black women theater artists and activists many of whom worked behind the scenes as directors designers producers stage managers and artistic directors disseminated the black aesthetic and emboldened their communities Drawing on nearly thirty original interviews with well known artists such as Ntozake Shange and Sonia Sanchez as well as less studied figures including distinguished lighting designer Shirley Prendergast dancer and choreographer Halifu Osumare and three time Tony nominated writer and composer Micki Grant La Donna L Forsgren centers black women s cultural work as a crucial component of civil rights and black power activism Sistuh in the Struggle is an essential collection for theater scholars historians and students interested in learning how black women s art and activism both advanced and critiqued the ethos of the Black Arts and Black Power movements

Caribbean Women Writers , 2024-06-24 Black. Queer. Southern. Women. E. Patrick Johnson, 2018-10-22 Drawn from the life narratives of more than seventy African American queer women who were born raised and continue to reside in the American South this book powerfully reveals the way these women experience and express racial sexual gender and class identities all linked by a place where such identities have generally placed them on the margins of society Using methods of oral history and performance ethnography E Patrick Johnson s work vividly enriches the historical record of racialized sexual minorities in the South and brings to light the realities of the region s thriving black lesbian communities At once transcendent and grounded in place and time these narratives raise important questions about queer identity formation community building and power relations as they are negotiated within the context of southern history Johnson uses individual stories to reveal the embedded political and cultural ideologies of the self but also of the listener and society as a whole These breathtakingly rich life histories show afresh how black female sexuality is and always has been an integral part of the patchwork quilt that is southern culture Putting Risk in Perspective Renée T. White, 1999 Today young adults are contracting HIV more rapidly than virtually any period during the past two decades Young women particularly those who are black and Latina are bearing the brunt of this new wave of infection Putting Risk in Perspective explores the many factors associated with HIV infection among young black women HIV infection often occurs as a result of high risk behavior Understanding what causes a young woman to take sexual and reproductive risks requires a consideration of the kinds of life issues she faces Drawing on ethnographic study and interviews RenZe T White introduces to the reader many young women who are dealing with economic pressures family relationships dating and courtship intimate relationship issues and questions of sexual identity These along with the mythology surrounding HIV and AIDS_ and knowledge about contraception_ influence whether or not a black teenager will engage in risky activity This powerful book shows why the fight against AIDS must incorporate a commitment to improving the social and economic opportunities available to young black women

Literacy as Gendered Discourse Daphne W. Ntiri, 2015-01-01 This volume continues IAP s dedication to the diverse field of international adult learning in the tradition of those books related to the We Learn and AAHE conferences It is an edited and refereed collection and part of the larger body of scholarly publications associated with professional organizations such as AAACE MAACE We Learn Women Studies Association African Studies Association Gender Studies Association and Global Studies network Literacy as gendered discourse is important because it fills a unique niche in the canon of studies that investigate the challenges and prevailing norms associated with women and literacy studies adult learning and development It also offers a current volume for scholars and practitioners based on both research and practice based research This collection is appropriate for a wide variety of professors researchers practitioners and students in the field of adult literacy studies women gender and development studies In order to create this valuable contribution to the literacy and women s studies literature international scholars have contributed their research in which they study and explore the lives of women in various countries Their work establishes findings that help to illuminate and analyze the different manifestations of women s global experiences through the unique lens of local respondents or through their own lens as academic researchers In these ways the results provide powerful insight and useful lessons applicable to the fields of gender study women s studies adult literacy development studies international studies etc

Cutler,1999 Struggles for Representation examines over 300 non fiction films by more than 150 African American film videomakers and includes an extensive filmography bibliography and excerpts from interviews with film videomakers In eleven original essays contributors explore the extraordinary scope of these aesthetic and social documents and chart a previously undiscovered territory documentaries that examine the aesthetic economic historical political and social forces that shape the lives of black Americans as seen from their perspectives Until now scholars and critics have concentrated on black fiction film and on mainstream non fiction films neglecting the groundbreaking body of black non fiction productions that offer privileged views of American life Yet these rich and varied works in film video and new electronic media convey vast stores of knowledge and experience Although most documentary cannot hope to match fiction film s mass appeal it is unrivaled in its ability to portray searing indelible impressions of black life including concrete views of significant events and moving portraits of charismatic individuals Documentary footage brings audiences the moments when civil rights protestors were attacked by state troopers it provides the sights and sounds of Malcom X delivering an electrifying speech Betty Carter performing a heart wrenching song and Langston Hughes strolling on a beach Uniting all of this work is the struggle for representation that characterizes each film an urgent desire to convey black life in ways that counter the uninformed and often distorted representations of mass media film and television productions African American documentaries have long been associated with struggles for social and political empowerment for many film videomakers documentary is a compelling mode with which to present an alternative more authentic narrative of black experiences and an effective critique of mainstream discourse Thus many socially and politically committed film videomakers view documentary as a tool with which to interrogate and reinvent history their works fill gaps correct errors and expose distortions in order to provide counter narratives of African American experience Contributors include Paul Arthur Houston A Baker Jr Mark F Baker Pearl Bowser Janet K Cutler Manthia Diawara Elizabeth Amelia Hadley Phyllis R Klotman Tommy Lee Lott Erika Muhammad Valerie Smith and Clyde Taylor
