Orange Crate Art The Story Of The Labels That Launched A Golden Era:

Reinventing Eden Carolyn Merchant, 2013 Visionary quests to return to the Garden of Eden have shaped Western culture from Columbus voyages to today's tropical island retreats Few narratives are so powerful and as Carolyn Merchant shows so misguided and destructive as the dream of recapturing a lost paradise A sweeping account of these quixotic endeavors by one of America's leading environmentalists Reinventing Eden traces the idea of rebuilding the primeval garden from its origins to its latest incarnations in shopping malls theme parks and gated communities With eloquence and insight Merchant shows how the drive to conquer nature and to explore and settle the globe springs from this utopian pastoral impulse throughout Western history Time and again human manipulation of the environment is our downfall Eden is achieved by fencing off pristine beauty in national parks and wildlife preserves while leaving the majority of the earth in ruins Challenging both narratives Merchant argues that the green veneer of city park conservation has become a cover for the corruption of the earth and the neglect of its environment Reinventing Eden is a bold new way to think about the earth that includes green political parties sustainable development and a partnership between humans and earth that is nothing short of an ecological revolution

Trees in Paradise Jared Farmer, 2013-10-28 Describes how the first settlers in California changed the brown landscape there by creating groves wooded suburbs and landscaped cities through planting eucalypts in the lowlands citrus colonies in the south and palms in Los Angeles

The Label Made Me Buy It Ralph M. Kovel, Terry H. Kovel, 1998 Filled with more than 300 beautiful and often whimsical labels that once decorated products from cigar boxes to soup cans The Label Made Me Buy It takes readers through the visual journey from the formative days of advertising in the early 19th century up to the 1960s Drawing on their collection of more than 10 000 labels and on their own exhaustive research the Kovels reveal the difficult to learn histories of companies printers and their designs The book is divided into chapters based on the labels images including Famous Men and Women Dogs and Cats Sports and Patriotic Symbols The Kovels also tell their readers how to identify and date labels and they provide a list of lithographers that make labels for U S companies As a final bonus The Label Made Me Buy It includes a listing of patents dates and other legal wording required on American labels
