ORDAINED BY THE ORACLE. Asare Konadu,1970      Ordained by the Oracle Samuel Asare Konadu,1978      Finitude, Crossing, Blurring Boundaries and Disrupting Tradition in Ordained by the Oracle Michel Tinguiri,2024-01-04 The book analyzes the novel Ordained by the Oracle through socio cultural symbolic and anthropological frameworks It examines funeral rituals the duality between the visible and invisible worlds and the role of the oracle spirits and ancestors in society The study sheds light on the notions of space time myth and reality in the Akan society It demonstrates that literature crosses disciplinary boundaries and can be seen as a form of anthropology The analysis will be of interest to students and researchers in African studies literature religion culture sociology and anthropology      Literary History: Towards a Global Perspective Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2011-12-22 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one s own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic      The Black Mind Oscar Ronald Dathorne,1976      A New and Complete Concordance Or Verbal Index to Words, Phrases, & Passages in the Dramatic Works of Shakespeare John Bartlett,1889      A Complete Concordance Or Verbal Index to Works, Phrases and Passages in the Dramatic Works of Shakespeare John Bartlett,1894      A Lexicon Abridged from Liddell & Scott's Greek-English Lexicon Henry George Liddell,Robert Scott,1890      Analytical Concordance to the Bible Robert Young,1882      A Concordance to All the Bookes of the Old Testament, According to the Translation Allowed by His Late Matie of Great Brittain, Etc. [By Clement Cotton.] ,1627      The Ghana Reader Kwasi Konadu,Clifford C. Campbell,2016-02-04 Covering 500 years of Ghana s history The Ghana Reader provides a multitude of historical political and cultural perspectives on this iconic African nation Whether discussing the Asante kingdom and the Gold Coast's importance to European commerce and transatlantic slaving Ghana's brief period under British colonial rule or the emergence of its modern democracy the volume's eighty selections emphasize Ghana's enormous symbolic and pragmatic value to global relations They also demonstrate that the path to fully understanding Ghana requires acknowledging its ethnic and cultural diversity and listening to its population's varied voices Readers will encounter selections written by everyone from farmers traders and the clergy to intellectuals politicians musicians and foreign travelers With sources including historical documents poems treaties articles and fiction The Ghana Reader conveys the multiple and intersecting histories of Ghana's development as a nation its key contribution to the formation of the African diaspora and its increasingly important role in the economy and politics of the twenty first century

Religion and Reconciliation in Greek Cities Noel Robertson, 2009-12-01 The lex sacra of Selinus and of Cyrene are the only two inscribed religious calendars to survive from ancient Greece These documents are fundamental to understanding Greek religious practice on the civic and personal level but they have never been studied in conjunction with one another before Religion and Reconciliation in Greek Cities provides a new edited text with translation commentary and interpretive essays on these documents

Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic
