Corps Competency? Michael F. Morris, 2024-08-07 The Vietnam War ended nearly fifty years ago but the central paradox of the struggle endures how did the world's strongest nation fail to secure freedom for the Republic of Vietnam Michael F Morris addresses this vexing question by focusing on the senior Marine headquarters in the conflict's most dangerous region Known as I Corps the northern five provinces of South Vietnam witnessed the bloodiest fighting of the entire war I Corps also contained the Viet Cong's strongest infrastructure key portions of the Ho Chi Minh Trail and the important political and economic prizes of Hue and Da Nang For Americans it was the site of the first major military operation Operation STARLITE the Battles of Hue City and Khe Sanh during the 1968 Tet Offensive and a military innovation known as the Combined Action Platoon CAP a counterinsurgency technique designed to secure the region's villages The Marine zone served as Saigon's canary in the coal mine if the war was to be won allied action must succeed in its most contested region With such deep significance I Corps holds many answers to the lasting questions of the Vietnam War Following the Marine Amphibious Force III MAF the primary US tactical command in I Corps from 1965 to 1970 Corps Competency provides the first composite analysis of the critical role of the senior Marine headquarters and offers a coherence missing in piecemeal accounts Despite the critical importance of I Corps relatively little is known about its overall impact on the war due to disconnected and patchy historical study of the region In this comprehensive and newly insightful study of the Vietnam War Michael Morris tells a story that illustrates what can happen when a corps headquarters is not ready for the conflict it encounters and then fights the war it wants to rather than the one it must The views expressed in this work are those of the author and not the official position of the United States government Department of Defense Department of the Navy United States Marine Corps or Marine Corps University Daily Life of U.S. Soldiers Christopher R. United States Army in World War II. ,1965 Army, Navy, Air Force Journal & Register ,1943 Through My Eyes Leon Weckstein, 1999 1942 the mention of it still evokes images of our once proud fleet sinking into Pearl Harbor s watery graveyard and Nazis goose stepping through the Arc de Triomphe Leon Weckstein had just turned 21 and figured he d be drafted After being rejected by the Navy for poor eyesight he found himself drafted into the 91st Infantry Division He became dependent on his vision for survival as he led his platoon through dangerously crucial assignments including a direct order to level the Tower of Pisa From his forward observation post he held the Tower s fate in his hands Utah Beach Carl Shilleto, 2001 The fortunes of war and clear headed decisions by commanders on the scene combined to make Utah Beach the most successful and least costly of the D Day landings on June 6 1944 Strong ocean currents and the confusion of battle placed the landing force a mile south of its target but further away from German artillery and in a sector that was less heavily defended because the land inland was flooded The first craft ashore happened to contain Gen Theodore Roosevelt Jr who immediately brought order to what might have been a chaotic situation The U S 8th Infantry Regiment quickly began to move inland for a crucial linkup with the 82nd and 101st Airborne Divisions all of whose landing zones were behind Utah Beach The personalities units and individual actions of this dramatic D Day landing are all covered in the usual Battleground Europe fashion with numerous illustrations maps and a guide to the area as it is today The Illustrated naval and military magazine ,1886 The Publishers Weekly ,1981 Library Journal ,1981 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately The Independent Leonard Bacon,Joseph Parrish Thompson,Richard Salter Storrs,Joshua Leavitt,Henry Ward Beecher,Theodore Tilton,Henry Chandler Bowen,William Hayes Ward,Hamilton Holt,Fabian Franklin,Harold de Wolf Fuller,Christian Archibald Herter,1920 The Independent William Livingston,1920 Infantry ,1995 Supplying the British Army in the Second World War Janet Macdonald,2020-03-30 During the Second World War how were the multitude of items required by the soldiers in the front line selected ordered and delivered and how were they produced In this the second volume in her detailed scholarly study of the army s logistical system Janet Macdonald describes the necessity for central advanced planning for each expeditionary force as well as those engaged in home defence and the complex organization of personnel who performed these tasks from the government and military command in London to those who distributed the equipment on the battlefield Armies have always required large amounts of material but by the Second World War the numbers of men involved had grown exponentially their equipment had become mechanized and their deployment was world wide Elaborate planning and administration at every level had to ensure that items of all kinds were collected transported and handed out in every theatre of the war The scale of the operation was enormous and it had to be performed to critical timetables and was sometimes threatened by enemy action and it was vital to the army s success
