Animal Genocide and its Aftermath Nicholas Chare, 2025-09-01 In this exacting assessment of the bounty policies enacted against the Tasmanian Tiger and the Newfoundland Wolf Animal Genocide and its Aftermath provides a much needed reappraisal of the legal political and social definition of animal killing Analyzing natural history collections and cultural representations this book advances a compelling case for viewing the bounty schemes as a form of genocide that requires its own historical reckoning Ethical issues regarding the evocation of animal genocide in film literature photography and museum exhibitions are also explored

Man and Wolf H. Frank, 1987-04-30 The Essential Mary Midgley Mary Midgley, 2005 This anthology includes carefully chosen selections from her best selling books including Wickedness Beast and Man Science and Poetry and The Myths We Live By An unrivalled introduction to a great philosopher and includes a

Beyond the Book Bridget Carrington, 2014-01-06 November 2012 saw the joint annual conference of the British branch of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY UK and the MA course at the National Centre for Research in Children s Literature NCRCL at Roehampton University The theme of the conference was the investigation of aspects of literature for children that were Beyond the Book From woodcuts to e books children s literature has always lent itself to reinterpretation and expansion In its early days this was achieved through different forms of retelling through illustration and interactive illustration pop ups and flaps and then through music film television and stage adaptation The contributors to the 2012 conference explored the variety of means by which we transform literature intended for children and celebrated the vibrant world of creativity that has sought and continues to seek different ways in which to engage young readers Bridget Carrington and Jennifer Harding have previously collaborated as the editors of earlier IBBY UK NCRCL MA conference proceedings Going Graphic Comics and Graphic Novels for Young People Conflicts and Controversies Challenging Children s Literature and It Doesn t Have to Rhyme Children and Poetry Pied Piper Publishing 2010 2011 2012

Beast and Man Mary Midgley, 2004-03-01 Philosophers have traditionally concentrated on the qualities that make human beings different from other species In Beast and Man Mary Midgley one of our foremost intellectuals stresses continuities What makes people tick Largely she asserts the same things as animals She tells us humans are rather more like other animals than we previously allowed ourselves to believe and reminds us just how primitive we are in comparison to the sophistication of many animals A veritable classic for our age Beast and Man has helped change the way we think about ourselves and the world in which we live

Wolf-hunting in France in the Reign of Louis XV Richard H. Thompson, 1991 This is the true story so far as it can be reconstructed of the beast of the Gevaudan and how it terrorized an entire countryside for years during the 18th century killing scores of men women and children but ignoring the domestic animals An Entertaining Tale of Quadrupeds, 2003-07-18 An Entertaining Tale of Quadrupeds is the first English verse translation of the Greek satirical poem Diegesis Paidiophrastos ton Zoon ton Tetrapodon Written by an anonymous author in fourteenth century Byzantium this vernacular allegorical poem has long been recognized as a unique document one that appears to have originated independently of comparable works in other traditions A medieval Animal Farm the story describes a convention of animals in which each beast vaunts its uses to humanity while denigrating others resulting in a cataclysmic battle The authors provide extensive textual analysis and notes on the form style and context of the poem Journal of the North American Wolf Society North American Wolf Society, 1977 Colorado Gray Wolf Recovery Larry E. Bennett, 1994 Dogs Darcy Morey, 2010 Dogs provides a comprehensive account of the origins and development of the domestic dog over the past 15 000 years

Biegel, May Wykle, 1994-03-16 Published in cooperation with the Center for Practice Innovations Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences Case Western Reserve University Increased life expectancy the deinstitutionalization of persons with mental illness the rise of home health care and advances in medical technology have resulted in greater numbers of dependent people requiring care by family members The frail elderly the chronically mentally ill and the physically disabled are examples of such groups who now receive their daily care in the community How do families accept the burden of this care What are the physical and emotional demands of such caregiving Are the families prepared to assume this role Family Caregiving Across the Lifespan considers the broad spectrum of chronic illnesses that necessitate family caregiving throughout the lifespan and expands the caregiving paradigm by including in its focus both members of the caregiving dyad and significant non family caregivers It also explores the social context in which care is provided an entire section of the volume is devoted to discussions of the interface between informal and formal caregivers and society at large Among the other subjects this volume addresses are the negative consequences of family caregiving the value of providing support to caregivers and caregivers of persons living with AIDS Family Caregiving Across the Lifespan is important reading for those in social work nursing family medicine and clinical psychology Family Caregiving Across the Lifespan represents a significant milestone in the continuing maturation of this vital area of long term care The title is an understatement of the authors accomplishments Rather than offering narrow boxes or labels the book invites the reader to join in a broadened perspective on caregiving so that it can more fully reflect the richness of the lives of all involved For those who encounter Family Caregiving Across the Lifespan as part of their continuing study of caregiving the book provides the integrating milestone of caregiving literature Journal of Case Management This volume is a useful compendium of articles on family caregiving The fourteen chapters in this volume address many important topics in family caregiving One of the book s major contributions is its clarification that family caregiving to frail or chronically ill people has no age limitation although there are unique issues at different points in the development of individuals and families The book has exceptional merit It expands our understanding of family caregiving provides important ideas for future research offers research findings that enhance our understanding of family care and presents a very useful review of the literature This book would be a beneficial addition to the library of all researchers in the area of caregiving They will discover worthwhile conceptualizations and gain new insights that can inform their research Practitioners should also benefit from this collection The chapters addressing interaction between formal and informal caregivers should give practitioners a deeper understanding of how to be more effective in dealing with informal caregivers and care recipients Ageing Society One paper in this volume deserves particular notice because it attempts to do what many of the authors feel is most critical in caregiving research but also most difficult namely to analyze the effectiveness of caregiving the effect of provision of care on elder health outcomes This is an important and original conceptualization of the problem Steven M Albert Contemporary Gerontology This book is both unique and valuable because it embraces Brody s observation that family caregiving is not limited to a specific segment of the life span Moreover the book is not limited to filial caregiving but entertains an impressive variety of contexts of family caregiving This book will be a valuable text in graduate level courses Journal of Marriage and the Family Publishers Weekly ,1976 The Publishers Weekly ,1976-07 Arctic ,1978 Etruscan Studies ,1995
