The Living Church, 1966 Jonathan Swift and the Vested Word Deborah Baker Wyrick, 1988 In Jonathan Swift and the Vested Word Deborah Wyrick argues that modern Continental and American literary theory is tantalizingly applicable to Swiftian texts Its applicability she writes stems from Swift s interest in and exploration of what are now thought of as phenomenological structuralist poststructuralist and new historicist concerns how a life in language comes into being how semiotic systems determine meaning how texts open up their own systems to other texts and to multiple interpretations Wyrick investigates Swift s confrontations with three theories of language current in his day theories that locate meaning in the thing named in the idea behind the word or in the response of the audience She concludes that Swift fashioned a fourth theory of meaning one that locates meaning in and among words themselves Because of his fear of the anarchic potential of language Swift attempted to invest his words with extratextual authority yet a powerful counterforce was his desire to exploit the possibilities of language divested of stable significance These divestitures particularly the word play and language games ultimately served serious personal and social purposes A crucial personal purpose was Swift s ability to create a textual self which he did Wyrick maintains by constructing defensive transvestitures centered on clothes and money These parallel sign systems produced Swift s greatest achievement in using the resources of language and history to effect political action By using the entire Swift canon poems and prose narratives letters and essays sermons and satires Wyrick presents Swift s struggle with the inadequacies of language and its inability to answer the tremendous demands he made upon it Originally published 1988 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Poetics of the Americas Bainard Cowan, Jefferson Humphries, 1997-08-01 Emanating from a colloquium held at Louisiana State University entitled Intertextuality and Civilization in the Americas this volume features some of the best minds now writing in comparative and interdisciplinary fields Through lively discussions of topics ranging from Sigmund Freud to Zora Neale Hurston from Christopher Columbus to the Holocaust and including latter day cultural icons such as Monty Python and the Holy Grail the contributors create a stimulating dialogue on the crucial role of the poetic imagination in shaping the identity of civilizations Addressing themes such as the Moses story in modern literature the relation between power and cultural encounter the first African American novel and the foundations of Latin American literature and the New World baroque the contributors link multiculturalism with intertextuality crossing disciplinary national linguistic and hemispheric boundaries The volume closes with Jefferson Humphries deft translation of a poem by Edouard Glissant a featured speaker at the conference whose writings bear a special relation to the subject of intertextuality Together the essays offer a full consideration of cultural identity and bring to the fore the difficult question of the larger responsibilities that identity entails

As Bainard Cowan illustrates in his perceptive introduction in both the past and the future of the Americas in moments of foundation as well as of conflict and dispersal there has been or will be present the recurrent need for mythic and poetic understanding. An unusually timely work Poetics of the Americas skillfully addresses the crises that the world faces in the confrontations of cultures traditions and peoples. Explorations in Organizations James G. March, 2008 This collection of recent papers authored or co authored by James G March explores contemporary issues in the study of organizations. The Philosopher's Index, 1978. Prabuddha Bharata, 1968. The Location of Religion Kim Knott, 2005 The book begins by developing a spatial methodology to analyse secular and post secular religious relations. The spatial approach is then applied to a particular case that of the left hand. Our understanding of this sinister but intimate other draws on a wide range of ideas from different religious traditions to alternative paths to salvation and self realisation. International Orders in the Early Modern World Shogo Suzuki, Yongjin Zhang, Joel Quirk, 2013-09-05 This book examines the historical interactions of the West and non Western world and investigates whether or not the exclusive adoption of Western oriented international norms is the prerequisite for the construction of international order. This book sets out to challenge the Eurocentric foundations of modern International Relations scholarship by examining international relations in the early modern era when European primacy had yet to develop in many parts of the globe. Through a series of regional case studies on East Asia the Middle East Africa and Latin America and Russia written by leading specialists of their field this book explores patterns of cross cultural exchange and civilizational encounters placing particular emphasis upon historical contexts. The chapters of this book document and analyse a series of regional international orders that were primarily defined by local interests agendas and institutions with European interlopers often playing a secondary role. These perspectives emphasize the central role of non European agency in shaping global history and stand in stark contrast to conventional narratives revolving around the Rise of the West which tend to be based upon a stylized contrast between a dynamic West and a passive and static East. Focusing on a crucial period of global history that has been neglected in the field of International Relations International Orders in the Early Modern World will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations international relations theory international history early modern history and sociology. Aryan Path, 1966. Order and Counter-order G. C. Waterston, 1966. Unthinking Modernity Judith Stamps, 1995-01-18 Like their European contemporaries Innis and McLuhan worked toward a theory of how westerners have developed classifications through which they perceive the world. Moreover Stamps shows that they used insights derived from their North American experience to add a new media based perspective to such a theory. Unthinking Modernity offers unique perspectives on the ways in which economics politics and media intertwine to create personal and social consciousness. The Aryan Path Sophia Wadia, 1966. From East to West Roy Bhaskar, 2002-09-09 In this radical book Roy Bhaskar expands his philosophy of critical realism with an audacious re synthesis of many aspects of Western and Eastern thought. Arguing that the existence of God provides the fundamental structure of the world he renders plausible ideas of reincarnation karma and moksha or liberation From East to West signifies a major new development in critical realism It will stimulate debate in ontology epistemology ethics political philosophy and the philosophy of religion The Philosopher's Index Richard H. Lineback,1978 The Publishers Weekly ,1911 The Journal of Philosophy ,1922 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1984 Theology ,1968 International Philosophical Quarterly ,1966 Christian Character Formation Gifford A. Grobien,2019-05-16 Christian Character Formation investigates worship and formation in view of Christian anthropology particularly union with Christ Traditions which value justification by faith wrestle to some degree with how to describe and encourage ethical formation when salvation and righteousness are presented as gracious and complete The dialectic of law and gospel has suggested to some that forgiveness and the advocacy of ethical norms contend with each other By viewing justification and formation in light of Christ s righteousness which is both imputed and imparted it is more readily seen that forgiveness and ethics complement each other In justification God converts a person by which he grants new character Traditional Lutheran anthropology says that this regeneration grants a new nature in mystical union with Jesus Christ By exploring the Finnish Luther School led by Tuomo Mannermaa Gifford A Grobien explains how union with Christ imparts righteousness and the corresponding new character to the believer Furthermore as means of grace the Word and sacraments are the means of establishing union with Christ and nurturing new character Considering Oswald Bayer s suffering the word of Christ Louis Marie Chauvet s symbolic order and Bernd Wannenwetsch s understanding of worship as Christianity s unique form of life Grobien argues that worship practices are the foundational and determinative context in which grace is offered and in which the distinctively Christian ethos supports virtues consistent with Christian character This understanding is also coordinated with Stanley Hauerwas s narrative ethics and Luther s teaching of virtue and good works in view of the Ten Commandments
