Ordinary Cities Between Modernity And Development:

Ordinary Cities Jennifer Robinson, 2013-07-04 This groundbreaking book establishes a new framework for thinking about urban development and crosses the longstanding divide in urban scholarship and urban policy between Western and other cities Ordinary cities J Robinson, 2006

Ordinary Cities, Extraordinary Geographies Bryson, John R., Kalafsky, Ronald V., Vanchan, Vida, 2021-08-27 This insightful book explores smaller towns and cities places in which the majority of people live highlighting that these more ordinary places have extraordinary geographies It focuses on the development of an alternative approach to urban studies and theory that foregrounds smaller cities and towns rather than much larger cities and conurbations

Exhibiting Modernity and Indonesian Vernacular Architecture Yulia Nurliani Lukito, 2015-10-16 In her research Yulia Nurliani Lukito analyses modernity and the construction of culture by the authorities using the images of Indonesian vernacular architecture presented at three different sites and times She argues that modernity is not solely constructed by the authorities rather it is an ongoing process modified by visitors of exhibitions Pasar Gambir was a laboratory of modernity for the colony and an important stage in modernizing and negotiating cultural and social conditions in the colony The Dutch Pavilion at the 1931 colonial exhibition became a moment when the Indies heritages played a role in marking colonial territory Modern ethnographic park of Taman Mini gives a way to the making of an official authentic culture and suppresses the previous Dutch construction of the Indies culture

The Routledge Handbook on Cities of the Global South Susan Parnell, Sophie Oldfield, 2014-03-26 The renaissance in urban theory draws directly from a fresh focus on the neglected realities of cities beyond the west and embraces the global south as the epicentre of urbanism This Handbook engages the complex ways in which cities of the global south and the global north are rapidly shifting the imperative for multiple genealogies of knowledge production as well as a diversity of empirical entry points to understand contemporary urban dynamics The Handbook works towards a geographical realignment in urban studies bringing into conversation a wide array of cities across the global south the ordinary mega global and peripheral With interdisciplinary contributions from a range of leading international experts it profiles an emergent and geographically diverse body of work The contributions draw on conflicting and divergent debates to open up discussion on the meaning of the city in or of the global south arguments that are fluid and increasingly contested geographically and conceptually It reflects on critical urbanism the macro and micro scale forces that shape cities including ideological demographic and technological shifts and constantly changing global and regional economic dynamics Working with southern reference points the chapters present themes in urban politics identity and environment in ways that re frame our thinking about cities The Handbook engages the twenty first century city through a southern urban lens to stimulate scholarly professional and activist engagements with the city

A Research Agenda for Cities John Rennie Short, 2017-03-31 Elgar Research Agendas outline the future of research in a given area Leading scholars are given the space to explore their subject in provocative ways and map out the potential directions of travel They are relevant but also visionary This book provides a critical assessment of key areas of urban scholarship In twelve stimulating chapters expert contributors examine a range of important pressing topics from sustainability and gentrification to feminist interventions and globalization to security and food issues Six more regionally informed expert reviews examine recent urban research in sub Saharan Africa South America East Asia the Middle East Australia and Eastern Europe The chapters provide polemical assessments and signposts for future research The book will be an indispensable and accessible guide to urban research across the globe

Locating Right to the City in the Global South Tony Roshan Samara,Shenjing He,Guo Chen,2013 Drawing from scholars with extensive fieldwork experience this volume covers sixteen cities in fourteen countries across a belt stretching from Latin America to Africa and the Middle East and into Asia Central to what binds these cities are deeply rooted complex and dynamic processes of social and spatial division that are being actively reproduced These cities are not so much fracturing as they are being divided by governance practices informed by local histories and political contestation and refracted through or infused by market based approaches to urban development Through a close examination of these practices and resistance to them this volume provides perspectives on neoliberalism and right to the city that advance our understanding of urbanism in the Global South

Locating Right to the City in the Global South Tony Samara,Shenjing He,Guo Chen,2013-01-04 Despite the fact that virtually all urban growth is occurring and will continue to occur in the cities of the Global South the conceptual tools used to study cities are distilled disproportionately from research on the highly developed cities of the Global North With urban inequality widely recognized as central to many of the most pressing challenges facing the world there is a need for a deeper understanding of cities of the South on their own terms Locating Right to the City in the Global South marks an innovative and far reaching effort to document and make sense of urban transformations across a range of cities as well as the conflicts and struggles for social justice these are generating The volume contains empirically rich theoretically informed case studies focused on the social spatial and political dimensions of urban inequality in the Global South Drawing from scholars with extensive fieldwork experience this volume covers sixteen cities in fourteen countries across a belt stretching from Latin America to Africa and the Middle East and into Asia Central to what binds these cities are deeply rooted complex and dynamic processes of social and spatial division that are being actively reproduced These cities are not so much fracturing as they are being divided by governance practices informed by local histories and political contestation and refracted through or infused by market based approaches to urban development Through a close examination of these practices and resistance to them this volume provides perspectives on neoliberalism and right to the city that advance our understanding of urbanism in the Global South In mapping the relationships between space politics and populations the volume draws attention to variations shaped by local circumstances while simultaneously elaborating a distinctive transnational Southern urbanism It provides indepth research on a range of practical and policy oriented issues from housing and slum redevelopment to building democratic cities that include participation by lower income and other marginal groups It will be of interest to students and practitioners alike studying Urban Studies Globalization and Development

Urban Geography Andrew E. G. Jonas, Eugene McCann, Mary Thomas, 2015-01-23 Urban Geography a comprehensive introduction to a variety of issues relating to contemporary urban geography including patterns and processes of urbanization urban development urban planning and life experiences in modern cities Reveals both the diversity of ordinary urban geographies and the networks flows and relations which increasingly connect cities and urban spaces at the global scale Uses the city as a lens for proposing and developing critical concepts which show how wider social processes relations and power structures are changing Considers the experiences lives practices struggles and words of ordinary urban residents and marginalized social groups rather than exclusively those of urban elites Shows readers how to develop critical perspectives on dominant neoliberal representations of the city and explore the great diversity of urban worlds

Cities of Culture Deborah Stevenson, 2013-08-15 Culture now has a prominent place on the urban policy and re profiling agendas of cities around the world City based cultural planning emphasising creativity in all its guises has emerged as a significant local policy initiative while the notion of the creative city has become an urban imaging cliché The proliferation of local blueprints for cultural planning creative cities has been remarkable while supra state bodies such as the European Union and UNESCO are also fostering the use of culture in strategies to revive cities and urban economies and to brand places as different Cities of Culture highlights significant trends in cultural planning since its inception revealing and analysing key discourses and influential globally circulating manifestos and processes as well as their interpretation and implementation in specific places With reference to examples drawn from Europe Australia Asia and North America Cities of Culture provides insights into the application of urban cultural strategies in different local national and international contexts highlighting regularities tensions and intersections as well as core underpinning assumptions This book explores the now pervasive expectation that cultural planning is capable of achieving a wide range of social economic urban and creative outcomes It will be of interest for students and scholars of urban sociology urban studies cultural policy studies and human geography

Cities of the Global South Reader Faranak Miraftab, Neema Kudva, 2014-10-10 The Cities of the Global South Reader adopts a fresh and critical approach to the field of urbanization in the developing world The Reader incorporates both early and emerging debates about the diverse trajectories of urbanization processes in the context of the restructured global alignments in the last three decades Emphasizing the historical legacies of colonialism the Reader recognizes the entanglement of conditions and concepts often understood in binary relations first third worlds wealth poverty development underdevelopment and inclusion exclusion By asking whose city whose development the Reader rigorously highlights the fractures along lines of class race gender and other socially and spatially constructed hierarchies in global South cities The Reader's thematic structure where editorial introductions accompany selected texts examines the issues and concerns that urban dwellers planners and policy makers face in the contemporary world These include the urban economy housing basic services infrastructure the role of non state civil society based actors planned interventions and contestations the role of diaspora capital the looming problem of adapting to climate change and the increasing spectre of violence in a post 9 11 transnational world The Cities of the Global South Reader pulls together a diverse set of readings from scholars across the world some of which have been written specially for the volume to provide an essential resource for a broad interdisciplinary readership at undergraduate and postgraduate levels in urban geography urban sociology and urban planning as well as disciplines related to international and development studies Editorial commentaries that introduce the central issues for each theme summarize the state of the field and outline an associated bibliography They will be of particular value for lecturers students and researchers making the Cities of the Global South Reader a key text for those interested in understanding contemporary urbanization processes

Broken Cities Deborah Potts, 2020-04-15 From Britain's Generation Rent to Hong Kong's notorious cage homes societies around the world are facing a housing crisis of unprecedented proportions The social consequences have been profound with a lack of affordable housing resulting in overcrowding homelessness broken families and in many countries a sharp decline in fertility In Broken Cities Deborah Potts offers a provocative new perspective on the global housing crisis arguing that the problem lies mainly with demand rather than supply Potts shows how market set rates of pay and incomes for vast numbers of households in the world's largest cities in the global South and North are simply too low to rent or buy any housing that is legal planned and decent As the influence of free market economics has increased the situation has worsened Potts argues that the crisis needs radical solutions With the world becoming increasingly urbanized this book provides a timely and urgent account of one of the most pressing social challenges of the 21st century Exploring the effects of the housing crisis across the global North and South Broken Cities is a warning of the greater crises to come if these issues are not addressed

Making Cities Global A. K. Sandoval-Strausz, Nancy H. Kwak, 2018 Making Cities Global argues that combining urban history with a transnational approach leads to a better understanding of our increasingly interconnected world In order to achieve prosperity peace and sustainability in metropolitan areas in the present and into the future we must understand their historical origins and development Cities on a Finite Planet Sheridan Bartlett, David Satterthwaite, 2016-04-14 Cities on a Finite Planet Transformative responses to climate change shows how cities can combine high quality living conditions resilience to climate change disaster risk reduction and contributions to mitigation low carbon development It also covers the current and potential contribution of cities to avoiding dangerous climate change and is the first book with an in depth coverage of how cities and their governments citizens and civil society organizations can combine these different agendas based on careful city level analyses The foundation for the book is detailed city case studies on Bangalore Bangkok Dar es Salaam Durban London Manizales Mexico City New York and Rosario Each of these was led by authors who contributed to the IPCC s Fifth Assessment and are thus acknowledged as among the world s top specialists in this field This book highlights where there is innovation and progress in cities and how this was achieved Also where there is little progress and no action and where there is no capacity to act It also assesses the extent to which cities can address the Sustainable Development Goals within commitments to also dramatically reduce greenhouse gas emissions In this it highlights how much progress on these different agendas depends on local governments and their capacities to work with their low income populations

Handbook on Shrinking Cities Pallagst, Karina, Bontje, Marco, Cunningham Sabot, Emmanuèle, Fleschurz, René, 2022-10-18 Compelling and engaging this Handbook on Shrinking Cities addresses the fundamentals of shrinkage exploring its causal factors the ways in which planning strategies and policies are steered and innovative solutions for revitalising shrinking cities Chapters cover topics of governance greening and right sizing and regrowth laying the relevant groundwork for the Handbook s proposals for dealing with shrinkage in the age of COVID 19 and beyond Planning

World Cities Peter Newman, Andy Thornley, 2011-06-21 This major comparative text on urban planning and the global and regional context in which it takes place examines what have been traditionally regarded as world cities New York London Tokyo and also a range of other important cities in America Europe and Asia The authors show the role planning has played in the way cities have responded to the forces of globalization and argue for the importance of diverse rather than one size fits all planning practices This fully revised second edition systematically brings the debates on the impact of globalization right up to date and provides integrated coverage of the latest planning theory and practice It also contains extended analysis of the implications of the rapid growth of Chinese cities such as Shanghai Hong Kong and Beijing New material is included on the impact of globalization on poorer mega cities like Mumbai and Johannesburg
