presents the first one volume overview covering the interpretation of women's place in man's world within the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament Written by the major scholars in the field of biblical studies and literary theory these essays examine attitudes toward women and their status in ancient Near Eastern societies focusing on the Israelite society portrayed by the Hebrew Bible

Female Prostitution in Costa Rica Anne Hayes, 2013-09-13 This book analyzes the development of female prostitution in the Pacific port of Puntarenas Costa Rica during the advanced stage of the coffee exporting economy 1880-1930 at the height of the consolidation of the liberal state Hayes argues that prostitution in the port differed from that of the coffee producing highlands due to differential economic social and political development In the periphery of Puntarenas the development of prostitution reflected a less stigmatized view of sexual commerce than that of the highlands where prostitution although legal threatened the tenets of liberal nationalism based on racial homogeneity and family values Women of the highlands were encouraged to reproduce the nation's more European stock of workers and to ensure the legal transference of property through legal church marriages both part of a design to stabilize the coffee exporting project By contrast prostitutes and other working women of Puntarenas many immigrants from the less European populations of neighboring regions and most in concubinage were freer to do what the law prescribed register as prostitutes in legitimate trade Such regional disparities reveal weaknesses in traditional explanations of Costa Rican exceptionalism which have rested on the premise of cultural homogeneity and have reflected the realities of only one region of the country The book advances an alternative explanation for the development of the nation's more democratic institutions situating Costa Rican exceptionalism in the nation's free labor system of which the labor prostitute in Puntarenas provides an example

What Women Want Geoff Dench, 2017-09-29 Over the last few decades families in many highly developed nations such as Great Britain have been held together by grandparents Yet as single motherhood spreads into this generation extended families without men or work are becoming more common The proportion of single mothers with daughters who are also state dependent single mothers is growing The British underclass has arrived Women who can see this happening around them and understand its roots are the ones most able to revive traditional values but policymakers are looking the other way This fuels alienation from mainstream political parties What Women Want argues that sociology and social policy in Britain have failed to recognize how women's orientation to paid work and a career remains different from men's Most women now have paid jobs but the happiest are those working only part time with plenty of time to enjoy motherhood and being a homemaker A revised sexual division of labor has emerged and the author argues that denial of this in Britain may be contributing to the breakdown of family life A working male partner is a major factor in making women happy The least content are single mothers dependent on state welfare who know that the state expects them to repay its support by becoming full time workers when their children reach a certain age Many single mothers may be victims of policies prioritizing work for women Single motherhood has grown alongside male breadwinners This is a new edition of a book previously distributed only in the United Kingdom      Women in the Holocaust Dalia Ofer, Lenore J. Weitzman, 1998-01-01 Introduction the role of gender in the Holocaust Lenore J Weitzman and Dalia Ofer Gender and the Jewish family in modern Europe Paula E Hyman Keeping calm and weathering the storm Jewish women s responses to daily life in Nazi Germany 1933 1939 Marion Kaplan The missing 52 percent research on Jewish women in interwar Poland and its implications for Holocaust studies Gershon Bacon Women in the Jewish labor bund in interwar Poland Daniel Blatman Ordinary women in Nazi Germany perpetrators victims followers and bystanders Gisela Bock The Grodno Ghetto and its underground a personal narrative Liza Chapnik The key game Ida Fink 5050      Body Work Sylvia K. Blood, 2004-03-01 Are scientific facts about body image enough to define conceptions of normality Reassessing Experimental Psychology from a critical perspective Sylvia Blood demonstrates how its research into Body Image can be misused and prone to misuse Classifying women who experience distress and anxiety with food eating and body size as suffering body image disturbance or body image dissatisfaction it can reproduce dominant assumptions about language meaning and subjectivity Experimental psychology s discourse about body image has recently become more widely influential becoming popularised through domains such as women s magazines in which psychological experts provide facts about women s body image problems and offer advice and psychological treatments With acute cross disciplinary awareness Body Work The Social Construction of Women s Body Image exposes the assumptions at work in the methods and status of experimental approaches Penetrating beyond the usual dichotomy between experimental and popular psychology this book illuminates some of the ways in which women s magazines have embraced experimental psychology s treatment of the issue Drawing on her experience in Clinical Psychology Sylvia Blood highlights the damaging effects of uncritically experimental views of body image She goes on to elaborate not only an alternative model of discursive construction but also the implications of such a theory for clinical practice Merging theory and clinical experience Sylvia Blood exposes the fallacies about women s bodies that underpin experimental psychology s body image research She demonstrates the dangerous consequences of these fallacies being accepted as truths in popular texts and in the talk of everyday women      Pornography and Silence Susan Griffin, 2015-07-28 A masterwork of feminist ideology brilliantly exposing pornography as the antithesis of free expression and the enemy of liberty In this powerful and devastating critique poet philosopher and feminist Susan Griffin exposes the inherent psychological horrors of pornography Griffin argues that rather than encouraging expression pornographic images and the philosophies that support them actually stifle freedoms through the dehumanization subjugation and degradation of female subjects The pornographic mindset Griffin contends is akin to racism in that it causes dangerous schisms in society and promotes sexual regression fear and hatred This violent rift in Western culture is explored by examining the lives of six notable individuals across two centuries Franz Marc the Marquis de Sade Kate Chopin Lawrence Singleton Anne Frank and Marilyn Monroe The result is an extraordinary new approach to evaluating sexual health and the parameters of erotic imagination Griffin reveals pornography as not a love of the life of the body but a fear of bodily knowledge and a desire to silence Eros      Women, Agency, and the State in Guinea Carole Ammann, 2020-03-05 This book examines how women in Guinea articulate themselves politically within and outside institutional politics It documents the everyday practices that local female actors adopt to deal with the continuous economic political and social insecurities that emerge in times of political transformations Carole Ammann argues that women s political articulations in Muslim Guinea do not primarily take place within women s associations or institutional politics such as political parties but instead women s silent forms of politics manifest in their daily agency that is when they make a living study marry meet friends raise their children and do household chores The book also analyses the relationship between the female population and the local authorities and discusses when and why women s claim making enjoys legitimacy in the eyes of other men and women as well as representatives of traditional authorities and the local government Paying particular attention to intersectional perspectives this book will be of interest to scholars of African studies social anthropology political anthropology the anthropology of gender urban anthropology gender studies and Islamic studies      Female

Homosexuality in Ancient Greece and Rome Sandra Boehringer, 2021-09-06 This groundbreaking study among the earliest syntheses on female homosexuality throughout Antiquity explores the topic with careful reference to ancient concepts and views drawing fully on the existing visual and written record including literary philosophical and scientific documents Even today ancient female homosexuals are still too often seen in terms of a mythical ethereal Sapphic love or stereotyped as Amazons or courtesans Boehringer s scholarly book replaces these clichés with rigorous precise analysis of iconography and texts by Sappho Plato Ovid Juvenal and many other lyric poets satirists and astrological writers in search of the prevailing norms constraints and possibilities for erotic desire The portrait emerges of an ancient society to which today s sexual categories do not apply a society before sexuality where female homosexuality looks very different but is nonetheless very real Now available in English for the first time Female Homosexuality in Ancient Greece and Rome includes a preface by David Halperin This book will be of value to students and scholars of ancient sexuality and gender and to anyone interested in histories and theories of sexuality      Women Who Belong Marsha R. Robinson, 2013-02-22 Why bother to invert the history of Western women We must do so to fight an insidious fallacious assumption that patriarchy is universal and eternal and we must do so to nullify the amnesic effects of Domesticity s potent semantics We must resist this two pronged attack that reduces women to powerless incubators When we invert the patriarchal hegemony and center the ordinary woman as empowered owner and hostess to her life story we find women rich and poor who chose when where how and if they would cooperate with the rules of patriarchy rules often supported by other women Our heroines demanded the rights due them for properly occupying their societal place in the home in church or on the street corner We find this to be consistent across time and space We start in the seventeenth century with European women on three continents Europe North Africa and North America We present Isabel de J sus Alida Schuyler Van Rensselaer Livingston and soldiers wives widows and femmes sole of the Tangier and Gibraltar garrisons Here we have women of different religions language groups and social classes and they all used patriarchal laws to protect their rights We move across time to the turn of the twentieth century in Ireland Puerto Rico and the United States where we find women as wives of rich men in Toledo s Woman Suffrage Association as middle class professionals in the civilizing missions of the Christian Church in Puerto Rico the magdalen homes of Ireland and the eugenics movement in the US and as sex workers serving tradesmen in Ireland Again these women manipulated the legal systems and demanded the powers due them from legislators mission boards and judges The microhistories of women in this volume adulterate the assumption of universal and eternal patriarchy As these women claimed the rights due them for properly occupying their prescribed social roles they also created alliances with men who partnered with them in their feminist projects Why should we invert Women s history with microhistory We must do so to liberate men and women from fallacious patriarchal oppression     The Evil Body April Anson,2020-09-25     FREE to SERVE, God's Liberated Woman Jennifer Wallace,2006     Women's Experiences and Feminist Practices in South Korea Pil-wha Chang,Eun-Shil Kim,2005 Textbook on women s studies and feminist research in South Korea It covers a wide range of issues including family work sexuality and women s movements The book is designed for an upper undergraduate and graduate level audience     Inside the Expressive Culture of Chinese Women's Mosques Maria Jaschok,2024-11-06 This book presents a multi voice narrative of the history and significance of current contestations over the increasing prominence of expressive piety in Hui Muslim women s mosques in central China By drawing on a Song Book of chants collected from the tradition of women s mosques as context it reveals just how the increasing prominence of female voices has given rise to considerable misgivings among senior religious leaders over the potential destabilization of orthodox Islamic gendered practices Providing a historical introduction to the place and function of Islamic chants jingge and zansheng the book gives a conceptual framing of female silence sound and agency in local translations of Confucian and Islamic precepts and women s personal accounts of the role played by traditional and modern soundscapes in transmitting and celebrating Islamic knowledge and faith As a study of women s soundscapes and the significance of legitimacy ambiguities and implications of female sound this book will be of considerable interest to students and scholars of Chinese society and culture gender studies cultural anthropology and Islam     Commons, Citizenship and Power Filippo Barbera,Emma Bell,2025-01-10 Since the 2010s populism and illiberal politics have been on the rise Demagogue leaders preach simplified rhetoric to vilify the powerless polarising city and rural areas and sparking such shocking events as the US insurrection on 6th January 2021 This interdisciplinary book argues for a politics of representativity and accountability to help transform people s experiences showing that where they live matters and therefore so do they This book demonstrates how place based politics can draw on and benefit from collective local knowledge rather than deferring to a nameless central government Analysing democratic theory and using rich case studies from protest movements to citizens assemblies it shows how it can return a sense of control to the people
